Shun "Modern" Wives

PLANKFORD—ON THE MAIN, Germany. (AP)—German do not want their wives too modern. That is the message from the advertisements for seven appearing in the best German newspapers.

A German wholesaler who has a flourishing business in Portland wants a wife between 14 and 22 who is able to adopt herself readily to the different conditions of life she will find in Portland, but who is "not too modern" in her ideas. She must not have bobbed hair, must be companionable, beautiful, good-natured and "thoroughly domestic" in her tastes.

Many of the advertisements for wives are in the name of relatives of the prospective bridegroom. They frequently ask that the negotiations be being conducted without the knowledge of the man in the past and will be completed between the two principals before the principals are presented to each other.

It is singular "Curtis should not be tonight."—Lafayette Journal.
