Hints To Husbands.
Give her the replies she add a spice to life.
Don't give her pin money—she might get stuck.
Praise other women—She likes to hear it.
Don't buy her jewelry—she'll think you are extravagant.
Don't buy her jewelry—she'll think many of the plays are immoral.
Don't tell her where you've been—let her guess.
Take home more candy and less "taffy."

Hints To Wives.
Gladly him with kisses—that will keep him in the lead part.
Give him one dramatic dresser for his very own—then pile it full of your own things.
Don't comb your hair before breakfast—he likes you to look natural.
Keep him boiling hot—it makes him tender.
Flirt with other men—that keeps him interested.
When he wants you to go some place, pull the eye stuff and say "I have nothing to wear."

Told By a La Grande Clergyman.
"A strapping big fellow the other day brought a demure little lass to the parsonage in order that they might be joined in the bonds of matrimony."
"In accordance with my custom, I turned to the bridegroom at a certain part of the ceremony and said, 'This is now your lawful wedded wife.'"
"Trembling with embarrassment, as he had been from the outset, the big fellow turned awkwardly in the direction of the girl and said: 'Pleased to meet you.'"

The canoe in foolish hands is probably the nation's greatest tipping evil.
EVERY FAVOR ACCEPTED CREATES AN OBLIGATION.
He adores the ground she walks on. In the first place, there is a lot of it, well located, thoroughly drained and with $100,000 worth of improvements.
Also she was the only child.
So, and therefore, he adores the ground she walked on.

A lot of people would like to know what kind of a car the Kansas doctor was driving when, after losing the gas tank, he did not discover the loss until the next day.

If a wife thinks her husband a hairpin, where does he get the notion that his photographer thinks him worth firing with?

"A rabbit digging a hole seems surprisingly efficient until you watch an amateur golfer," observes a La Grande.

A village is a place where they still chuckle over the jokes that caused the entire nation to tear his matted beard in pieces.

The only successful effort to lodge death and taxes was made by John Barleycorn.

There's not a thrill left in a soldier's uniform, thinks Anne Tash—even to the flimsiest flapper.

Cave Man Romance
Meet her.
Great her.
Treat her.
Beat her.

Small child (describing St. Bernard dog to mother)—"It was an awful big dog. Way up high, way long—the most dog I ever saw in one piece."

SOME MEN'S ONLY CREED IS GRUD
Not to be outdone by Mr. Bok, we have after him and for any plan that will eliminate human nature.

NEWS OF WEEK FROM PROMISE

PROMISE. (Special)—A Pomona Grange meeting was held at Promised September 22. A big dinner and supper was served by the ladies of the grange. The afternoon was spent in discussing farm problems and of ways of making the grange more helpful to its members. During the evening session eighteen delegates were given the fifth degree. On account of the threshold being full, outside points were unable to be present. Those from other granges were Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Papp, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Calhoun and sons, Tom, Ed and Bert of Hurri-cane Creek Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Hook of South Park Grange, and Mr. and Mrs. St. Michaels and sons, Grover and Sam of Wallawa Grange. Grover Hooks is secretary of the Pomona Grange. The next meeting will be held at South Park Grange at Lustin.

Henry Carper, who is attending high school at Wallawa, was in Promise during the Pomona meeting returning to Wallawa Sunday.

SHERRY'S LAST DAY
"BLUEBEARD'S SIXTH WIFE"

New Swanson Picture Wins.

Glenn Swanson's Paramount production of Alfred Savoir's French comedy, "Bluebeard's Sixth Wife," was shown with flattering results at the Sherry theatre last evening. Miss Swanson is supported by Huntley Gordon, in the leading man's role; Charles Green, Paul Wengel, Robert Agnew and other artists of note.

STAR WEDNESDAY ONLY
Royal Northwest Story at Star Stars Desmond.

Din trails of the North Canadian borderland, and trails well blazed through parts of that vast territory, trails followed alike by trapper, native and fugitive, are the trails of "McGuire of the Mounted," the Universal photoplay starring William Desmond, which comes to the Star theatre Wednesday only.

The story has its setting in that great unsettled territory lying along the last American frontier, where scattered trading posts furnish the only sign of the coming civilization.

The only law is the law of the men who wear the red coats of the dominant police, the "Mounties." And although the arm of the law is long, the country is vast and there are a thousand hiding places, which afford refuge for the fugitives of two continents.

It is a story filled with intense human interest and dramatic action. A pretty love theme between McGuire and Juniper, the little daughter of a French-Canadian trapper, is woven into the play. A strong cast supports the star.

A two reel comedy will also be shown.

with home folks Sunday, returning to their work Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Husband of Lustin, were at L. S. McDonald's Sunday gathering teachers.

The Misses Emma, Ethel and Lilian Carper were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Lee Smith.

John Carper, Mr. Corbett and Marshall Pleshman and family returned to their work at Bishop Sunday.

The central phone and switchboard has been moved to Mrs. Jess Garretts.

Mr. Ward Hecock, on visiting his bear trap, which he had set in the Burton Miller orchard, was surprised to see that the game had carried it away.

He returned home, where he got down and Ole Sacramento to accompany him. They were tracked up Mr. Bear but were unable to head him off until he was half way up to the Grande Ronde river, where they killed him. Then began the arduous task of packing him out of the canyon. After they reached the top he was taken home in a truck. He happened to be a fair sized brown fellow.

The Promise school opened Monday, James Leonard as teacher.

Dress Thompson finished moving to Wallawa Monday.

Thompson Carper, went to La Grande Wednesday returning in the Ford bus which she purchased.

Mr. W. Carper, who helped his son Howard save some a few days, returned Wednesday.

Harold Carper, who has been receiving treatment of Dr. Gregory of Wallawa for the past week on account of ulcers on his eye, returned on Thursday's stage. This will hinder his work in the woods for a time.

Will Reed and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Carper went to Wallawa Thursday.

Mrs. Truman Poulson and children visited Thursday with Mrs. Lee Smith.

Louis Newby returned home Wednesday from Bishop, as he hurt his back and was unable to work.

"Practical statement" are men who call a time and leave the player's bill to posterity.

As you grow older, the report of bar guns in politics sounds unpleasantly like "Ping."

Travelers are funny. They want to see the temple, for example, instead of the man who built it.

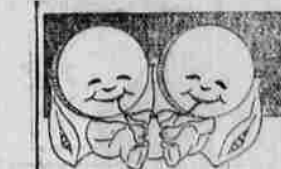

How Better Than Pills?

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? One answer is: they are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.—Adv.

Rheumatism

Cannot Exist in the Human Body if You Will Use Frank's Prescription
It is preposterous; in fact it is a shame to suffer with inflammatory, muscular, sciatic or any form of Rheumatism.
This Prescription does not rub the stomach, it does not depress the heart, eat all the meat and good food you wish while taking Frank's Prescription. Contains no mercury, salicylate soda, oil, wintergreen or narcotics, but positively overcomes any kind of rheumatism or gout on earth. What more do you want? There is nothing just as good, and it is impossible to get something better. The greatest uric acid solvent known and also a superior liver medicine.
Frank's Prescription sells for $1.75 or 4 for only $5.00 at drug stores.
