GAS FROM FOOD PRESSES ON HEART

If food does not digest it turns into poisons which form gas. This often presses on heart and other organs, causing a nervous, restless feeling. Simple methylene blue, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adierka, removes foul, decaying food-matter you never thought was in your system which caused gas and pressure on heart. 2:09 Pace at Lexington Proves Feature of Card

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The feature of the closing day's program of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association's 51st annual meeting was expected to be the Lexington stakes for 2-year-old trotters, but it developed that it was the 2:09 pace, which required four heats for a decision and was a keen race, going to Donna Mae.

Rose Scott, trotting against time, lowered her record to 2:09.34 and Anna Bradford's girl, pacing against time, lowered her record to 2:01. The weather was fine and the track fast.

SHIELDS TO HELP COACH OREGONIANS

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene (Special)—Ardie Shields, well known Oregon grid star, has been appointed to assist "Doc" Huntington and Bert Spillman in coaching the University of Oregon football squad which will meet the Whitman eleven at Round-Up Park in Pendleton on October 13.

Only five lettermen have returned to Oregon this year and the coaches are confronted with the problem of recruiting a strong line for the coming Northwest conference game with Tom veterans and much green material. With the exception of Vander Ahe, Fred and McKenna, the line that meets Berkeley's players in the Oregon-Whitman game will all be new at conference playing.

Oregon coaches and players are not factors for the 10 to 0 score, run up against Willamette university in 80-ten last week, as any indication of future success, but are out to perfect the mistakes made in the Salem contest. Although the flaws in the Oregon-Willamette game were not costly, the coaches are working hard to iron them out for this last Northwest conference game of the season. The remainder of the games are on the Pacific Coast conference schedule.

A tentative line-up of the Oregon players in the Whitman game according to the line-up in the Willamette would be: Wilson, center; Bailey and Mils, guards; Reed and Vander Ahe, tackles; Maultz and Williamson, ends; Chapman, quarterback; Latham, fullback; Terjison and Sax, halfback.
