

SOCIETY

A lovely party was given at the Country club yesterday afternoon when Mrs. P. L. Lilly, Mrs. Howard O'Brien, Mrs. Robert Newlin and Mrs. John Thibault entertained at bridge. A new plan was carried out in the arrangement of the tables, being 22 of them and placed in rows, making four rows and a prize going to one lady in each. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Earl Stoddard, Mrs. J. J. Carr, Mrs. Dick Jones and Mrs. Chase Bohlenkamp.

The club rooms were beautifully decorated in violet and flowers of the autumn season, and at the close of a delightful time a delicious luncheon was served by the charming hostesses.

Yesterday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage in La Grande Rev. A. H. Sifton united the hearts and lives of a boy and girl whose grandparents pioneered Eastern Oregon, settling in the Medical Springs country on adjoining ranches. The bride is Miss Clara Turner while the groom is Nestor Wright Foy, son of Mrs. Pat Powers and grandson of Hon. Dunham Wright of Medical Springs.

The ring ceremony was used by Rev. Sifton and a few near relatives and friends were present. This evening a reception and wedding dinner will be given to the happy young couple at the Medical Springs resort and the entire neighborhood will be present.

Abbie Green, son of Mrs. C. E. Duffey, of La Grande, who entered the University of Oregon this fall, expecting to major in music, has been initiated into the Beta Tau Beta Fraternity of the college.

Many of the Pythian sisters of La Grande will go to Portland, where they will attend the convention that is being held there. Miss Callie E. Bowman, formerly of La Grande, but who is now Governor Walter Pierce's assistant secretary, at Salem, has been elected senior for the La Grande lodge by a unanimous vote.

Miss La Rue Hanks, one of La Grande's popular young ladies, who graduated from the La Grande high school in 1920, and entered the Oregon Agricultural college this year, has been pledged to the Gamma Phi Beta fraternity of the university.

Also Miss Agnes McLaren, of Wallawa, who graduated from the La Grande high school last spring, has been pledged to the Alpha Gamma Delta fraternity of the O. A. C. U.

The regular monthly meeting of the Abstinence Society of the Christian church will be held at the home of Mrs. H. F. Gray, 162 Henlock street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. O. W. Jones as leader. All members are requested to be present.

North Powder, (Special) — Dick Denning and Bethel Tuney, popular North Powder residents, were united in marriage Monday. Both bride and groom are descendants from prominent pioneer families in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Russell, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Anderson, Jr., left this morning by auto for Pendleton, where they will attend the Knights Templar celebration.

Mrs. J. E. Clark and Mrs. Mat coalwell entertained last evening at the Coalwell residence on Fourth street, in honor of Dr. H. E. Scheon, who is to leave La Grande soon for California, where he will locate in the future.

The evening was spent at "500" at which there were three tables, Dr. Scheon winning first prize and Mrs. E. Rommert second. At the close of a delightful evening delicious refreshments were served.

The committee in charge of the Teachers' tea to be given by the Neighborhood club, at the Country club Saturday afternoon, is putting forth its best efforts to make the occasion a pleasant one. The affair will be informal.

A way will be provided for everyone wishing to attend, and cars will be at the club rooms at the library, at 2:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Fashion Notes

Medici Collar in Vogue.
Paris. — Once more the Medici collar is in vogue. The stiff, high ruff—often of metallic lace and often seen on evening wraps—is becoming to long, slender necks.

Chinese Embroideries Everywhere.
Paris.—At first the brilliant Chinese embroideries were used to lighten somber fabrics. But today they are superimposed on flame-stitch, jade and other brilliant grounds.

Odd Shapes for Bottles.
New York.—Scent bottles for the boudoir today are being made in fantastic shapes. One of them, oddly decorated with arabic and gold stripes, had a stopper in half moon design which nearly touched the bottom of the bottle at each side.

Cornelian Necklaces.
New York.—Cornelian wins by a neck, so to speak, the season's race for first place in necklaces. The deep red cornelian is sometimes delightfully combined with bits of jade.

Flower of Tiny Shells.
London.—Artificial flowers made of tiny shells are creeping into favor with the smart set today. They have even been noted adorning bridal wreaths and forming the bridesmaids' bouquets.

Black, Silver, White.
London.—Black, silver and white are effectively combined in some of the new clothes exhibited here today. A theater cape, for example, is black moire, its flounces edged with silver and white galloon.

Moire for Evening.
New York.—Moire in delicate shades is being widely utilized at present for evening frocks. But it is a new moire, neither so stiff nor so dull as heretofore. A special process gives it an almost satin luster.

New Shade for Lingerie.
New York.—A new shade between peach and apricot is popular just now for lingerie. In satin finish it is especially thin texture. It is at its best when edged with many rows of real lace.

Scenery Put To Fore.
OREGON CITY, Or. — "Several railroads have spent more millions advertising their scenery than all the busie frooms of wealth, which, after all, through their development by capital, provide the largest revenue, through the freight they carry in the form of manufactured articles, or the products of the soil, mines or forests," declared Herbert Cuthbert, publicity manager for the Portland Chamber of Commerce, at a meeting of the Oregon chamber of commerce tonight.

Mr. Cuthbert introduced the programme of the Portland Chamber of Commerce in advertising the state.

Bridge Work Rushed.
HOOD RIVER, Or.—Cashier Fletcher of the Gubin Construction company, engaged on the Hood River-White Salmon Columbia river bridge, announced at a luncheon of business men today that pouring of concrete would begin in 21 days.

Crews are now building cofferdams for four of the 11 piers. Mr. Fletcher said that 300 tons of fabricated steel would be needed in the structure. Cribbing and superstructure and piling will require about 1,000,000 feet of lumber.

Business forecast: Less speculation, more real business.

There's No Magic in Saving

Saving is merely the method used by those wise persons who are determined to get what they want. There are three steps in successful saving.

1. Decide how much you can save regularly. It is usually 10 per cent of your income.
2. Start at once—now.
3. Make regular deposits of a definite amount.

This plan has never failed. It will surely bring the things you want.
