Celebration Planned.

SALEM, Oct. 18.—Members of the Salem committee in charge of the so-called Capital-to-Capital highway celebration to be held here October 26, will go to Portland Tuesday, where they will hold a conference with L. C. McVardie, head of the department of efficiency, with headquarters in Washington.

Members of the local committee are Dr. H. E. Morris, C. E. Wilson, J. C. Perry, W. M. Hamilton and Sam A. Koser, secretary of state. Salem's part in the celebration probably will be held in the house of representatives in the capitol building, and will be featured by addresses by Governor Pierce, members of the state highway commission and other men prominent in the road construction activities in this state.

Gold Medal

The Queen of Salad Dressings

TRY THIS

Take as many large red apples as there are people to be served. Scoop out the inside of the apples and chop with celery and pecan meats. Mix with GOLD MEDAL MAYONNAISE. Put mixture back into apples and stick celery top in crown or sprig of gay holly or a sweet pea blossom.

"The touch which creates the perfect salad lies in the Dressing."
