Temptation.

WHEN she was eighteen she was tempted frequently and frequently resisted temptation.

WHEN she was twenty-eight she was tempted occasionally and occasionally resisted temptation.

WHEN she was thirty-eight, she was tempted seldom and seldom resisted temptation.

WHEN she was forty-eight she wished for temptation and—continued to wish!

The fellow who thinks that the whole world is against him never seems to realize that possibly "the world doesn't even know he is around."

KNOCK A BELLE "COLD" ONCE IN AWHILE AND SHE WILL HING FOR YOU EVERY NIGHT!

Fifty Dutch farmers are coming to American soil to escape the high taxes. They are comparable to the iron foundry worker who went to the war to get away from noises.

Mary had a little lamb,
"Twas black and white—
She laughed and chortled when she heard
That knee-length skirts must go.

More than one La Grande wife will assert that a model husband is one who is as nice to her in private as he is in public—and wish her's fell that way about it.

The long skirt is on the wane in Paris—still more in America, so Junius declares, it is usually on the bow-legger.

Barnum was right. A Chicago man recently paid $20,000 for a kimono.

The time of the year is here when married men throw out hints on economy in buying new fall hats and other articles of apparel, the while mentioning a secret purpose to supply themselves with a brand new Studier's—man, a few hundred short in shells extra for emergencies, new hip boots, a few new ryes, and some other odds and ends, all clasped as "necessities" on every married woman ought to know.

So many, many of the older generation knock the use of clubs by their youthful associates. And, yet, when they get excited their tongues occasionally is slightly up-to-date!

So live, that thy summons come, the city editor won't smileardonically as he fails to blue-pencil the "kind-hearted, respected and mourned by a host of friends" when he looks over the obituary.

The Matrimonial Blues.
"She's cockeyed, hawkeyed, blind, and possessed of an unmovable temper—
"Dot she's mine, all mine!"
And he couldn't even give her away.

How Better Than Pills?
The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is, they are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.—Adv.

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Measles-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritations, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Measles-Sulphur from any good drug store and use it like cold cream.

Real Estate Profits Must Be Included in Income Tax Reports

PORTLAND, Ore. — Investigations conducted by field deputies of the Internal Revenue Service indicate that hundreds of taxpayers in Oregon have neglected, intentionally or otherwise, to include as income in their returns for 1922, 1921 and 1922, profits realized from the sale of real estate, according to Collector Hunter, who several weeks ago ordered a rigid probe to be made of suspected evaders of income regulations. In order to close up the Government tax net, the Collector has ordered that a transcript be made of all doubtful taxpayers. A careful investigation will be made of all those who, in determining whether or not the sales involved have been reported upon the income tax returns, Collector Hunter suggested that all persons who failed to include the profit realized from real estate sales call at his office or file the sales returns at the office of the collector's department not to meet heavy penalties when the disclosures of failure to include income are voluntarily made by taxpayers.

"It is my belief that the failure of many taxpayers to include real estate profits in their returns was due to an erroneous interpretation of the income tax laws, and to misleading publicity that was given out prior to the ruling of the United States Supreme Court, holding that such gains were taxable income under the revenue laws," Collector Hunter stated. In cases where the taxpayer does not voluntarily disclose items of income that were omitted, and where the gains from real estate sales have not been reported, the Collector said that it would be necessary to assert full penalties from all returns where the investigation disclosed the failure of the taxpayer to include real estate gains in his income tax returns.
