BISHOP FAST BECOMING CITY

Bowman-Hicks Town Is Being Built Rapidly; Social News of Promise.

PROMISE (Special)—Jim Crowley and Mr. Gray, of Bishop, were in Promise on business Wednesday. Mr. Petelle, the Christian minister of Wallawa, preached his farewell sermon here Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. U. Foulson, who have been working at the timber camp, have moved back to their home here. Little May Nicklesky, accompanied them home and intends to remain through the winter and attend school at Riverside Dist.

J. C. Conley, the county superintendent accompanied by the county nurse was visiting the school in this part of the country Wednesday and Thursday.

There was no school in the Sunnyside district last week on account of the illness of the teacher, Miss Emma Weaver.

Miss Stanton, an attendant of the orphan home at Portland visited Thursday with Raymond Bunker, who is living with Mrs. Fred G. Potter.

Alfred Carper and John Barton have been assisting Walter Carper in harvesting his potato crop. They report the potatoes very nice.

Fred G. Potter made a trip to Bishop Meadows Thursday.

Vesper Henderson and Walter Carper took a load of produce to Bishop Meadows Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bennett, Jerrett Kenworthy, Miss Nora and Dorothy Bennett and Miss Lena and Emma Carper took a horse back trip to Bishop Meadows Friday. The place is fast taking on the appearance of a modern city. The hotel, round house and store buildings are nearing completion and several are busy digging ditches for water and sewer systems. The houses of camp five (Vincennes) are being moved over as fast as possible and they expect to have them all wired within a short time.

Jerrett Kenworthy is backing a saddle horse for Elmer Bennett. Miss Alice and Doris Eastberg, Miss Margaret Horner and Henry Carper, who are all attending school at Wallawa spent the week end here.

Chester Garrett and son, Duane, and Jesse Garrett and sons, David and Ivan, who are all working at Bishop Meadows, spent Sunday at home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chenoweth arrived here Saturday evening and announced their wedding, which took place at Milton Tuesday. They spent a short visit with Mrs. Chenoweth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vesper Henderson, and intend to return to Milton Monday. If the wishes of their many friends would come true their happiness would not be marred.

There was a party at Will Reed's Saturday night, several people attending.

Miss Nora Carper, who has been suffering from whooping cough is quite ill today, and it is feared that she is taking pneumonia.

Dr. M. Majors, the "Wallawa Sun" editor, accompanied by his father and mother, who are recently from Michigan, spent Sunday here. They say that they are well pleased with this country.

David Garrett, Ray Carper and Garrett Kenworthy took Sunday dinner with Truman Foulson and family.

Carl Griffith and family, of Wallawa, spent a short visit here Sunday and were accompanied home by Carl's mother Mrs. Ward Henscock.

Mrs. Lee Smith, who is living at Bishop Meadows, is home for a few days gathering her fowl.

Mrs. L. S. McDonald and son Alvin left Monday for La Grande, where Mrs. McDonald will receive medical attention from the eye specialist, Drs. Harry and Lou Bonny.

Ray Henderson has been plowing for David Carper.

Here's a home-heating plant that's built to give years and years of efficient, trouble-free service. It's the long-lived Sunbeam Warm-Air Furnace. Every part that is exposed to extreme heat is made of "Sunbeam metal"—a newly discovered furnace metal of remarkable strength and durability. Why be satisfied with a furnace built of ordinary materials, when you can have a long-lived Sunbeam at no extra cost? Come in and inspect the Sunbeam. Do it soon.
