THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Stanley

OFFICE CAT

The modern girl seldom chases a man. For that matter, missuses seldom chase flies.

Headline: "Wedded Pair Kept Silent Six Years." We'll bet the woman broke the silence at the end of the six years! Gosh, what a strain it must have been on her.

KISSING A SWEET GIRL TIL YOU GET RED IN THE FACE ISN'T SO MUCH RISSING.

The foremen in Madrid have gone on strike and now there isn't anyone to throw the ball!

It is disagreeable to have cookies, etc., but it could be worse. Suppose they chirped!

Therefore—Boost! If you want to live in the kind of a town Like the kind of a town you like, You needn't slip your clothes in a grip And start on a long, long hike.

For you'll only find what you left behind, For there's nothing that's really new, It's a knock at yourself when you knock La Grande—IT'S YOU!

Constitutional amendments can't be made in a day. Think of the Ten Commandments!

Where Livestock Is Shown at Its Greatest

MANY have not yet come to realize the size, importance and influence the Pacific International Livestock Exposition yields for the welfare and upbuilding of livestock raising in the Northwest. Nor does every stockraiser appreciate the opportunities offered for his own development and profit.

In 12 years the Pacific International has grown to be one of the great livestock exhibitions of the world, the largest under one roof in America, until this year, November 2 to 10, it will exhibit about 4000 head of purebred dairy and beef cattle, hogs, sheep, goats and horses; also 2500 chickens and rabbits, offering $50,000 in premiums and showing many world's champions as well as other notable stock. The exposition combines:

- Gigantic Livestock Exposition
- Daily Products Show
- Land Products Show
- Northwest Hay and Grain Show
- Western Winter Poultry Show
- Night Horse Show
- Industrial Exhibits
- Daily Auction of Dairy and Beef Stock.

More than 100,000 people attended last year. Why don't you attend and come in contact with the breeders and purched animals that are doing so much for livestock development in the West? Then come in and tell us of your impressions here at the La Grande National Bank.

Before You Vote Tomorrow

Just before you vote tomorrow on the income tax, please remember—

That real property in Oregon—meaning farms, town homes, timber and business buildings—are carrying the tax burden of the present day;

That high salaries and income from securities are now going free from tax in Oregon;

That the man with a small home pays his proportion for the government, schools and other privileges, while the high income man gets the benefit of these blessings and pays nothing;

That banks and other corporations ARE TAXED on their incomes through the individual stockholders, regardless of the misrepresentation that has been made;

That in Oregon the class of men with heavy incomes is increasing, and these dodge the taxes, while the farm and the small home each year carries a larger and larger burden;

That taxation will not decrease but it will increase as cost of government increases, hence someone must pay the increase. If the man with an income is not brought into the taxpaying game along with the owner of real estate it means the real estate owner must not only pay the additional taxes for increased government cost. It is either pay a lot more or make the man with an income help you bear this load;

That the fight now being waged on the income tax bill has brought forth in bold relief those who are willing to hold to the selfish view and let the state perish as a whole; those who care nothing for the future prosperity of the agricultural and livestock industry, those who think of self and self alone;

That the argument about driving industry from Oregon is easily answered by comparison of the tax in California and Oregon today. An industry seeking a location is offered taxation in Los Angeles at 14 mills, while Portland charges 46 mills on the dollar. Would it not be well to obtain some form of taxation other than real estate so that Portland can offer the same inducement Los Angeles offers. Those who prate about this feature of driving out industry either are insincere or misinformed;

That the time has come to think things over and look the future straight in the face. No one wants to injure the wealthy, no one wants to tax away the possessions of the rich, but at the same time there is a fairness and equity which the men of large incomes should assume along with their neighbors who own real estate and that can be done by adopting permanently the state income tax.

Vote for the income tax law tomorrow at the referendum election.

Beauty Of Women

The Vienna artist who was embarrassed by a multitude of aspirants in the selection of the 15 most beautiful women in America to be immortalized by his brush might have expected it. From the days of Paris till now the selection of beauties has been at risk of peace of mind and, in at least one instance, at risk of peace of nations.

Report has it that more than a hundred times the number of women wanted have filed information of their surpassing loveliness with the artist and have admitted that they are among America's fifteen most beautiful. Doubtless a thousand times that number would admit privately the superiority of their claims to selection. A woman can be counted on to know that she is beautiful, whether she is or not.

Love And Sanity

A western sociologist prophesies that within a score of years an intelligence test will be a prerequisite of marriage. Would such a requirement be fair to those about to wed? It is common knowledge that Cupid's victims—even those of highest intelligence—are often subject to lapses that would put a moron to shame. Through the ages love has induced something close akin to madness in those whom it has smitten.

Any observer can testify that lovers are insane. A high register of intelligence on the eve of wedding would be too much to expect of any couple. Nature has provided that they shall be crazy about each other.

Georgia searchers for General Oglethorpe's body have found it and he is still dead.

Too many persons are looking for opportunities to do others before they do them.

Some women are interested in old furniture, while others merely collect husbands.

Very few persons seem to get out of breath running in response to the call of duty.

Every man believes he could have a sound philosophy of life if he had plenty of money.

The world is cluttered up with persons always moving about who imagine they are busy.
