To Stay Good Looking

Your shoes must start with something more than smart style. Your foot shape must be built in—to stay to the end. Each Bostonian style is built for a different type of foot. That is why Bostonians are famous as the good-looking shoes that fit.

WOMEN SCARED BY STRANGE NOISES; OWL WAS INVADER

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Strange thumping noises heard apparently from the walls of the house kept two women, Mrs. Ellen Butler and Mrs. Cary Leager, in a state of fear for two days here recently, until the mystery was solved. A huge owl had elected to take up its abode in the chimney of the house. When first heard, the queer sounds were the cause of many conferences between the two women, as to whether a man should be called in. After a time the thumpings began to emanate from the stovepipe of a parlor heater. Summoning his neighbor, the women turned the heater and an object went tumbling and scratching down into the stove, in which there was no fire. The bright eyes gleamed out when the stove top was lifted. A neighbor removed the fright-stool visitor.

HOW CAN A POOR MAN GET AHEAD?

TRUE STORIES OF WAGE EARNERS AND SALARIED MEN AND WOMEN WHO HAVE FOUND THE ROAD TO FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE.

(By Samuel O. Rice, Educational Director Investment Bankers Association of America).

That 298-million-dollar cash balance Henry Ford is said to carry, and how he got it, that's interesting reading. It's instructive to read how John D. Rockefeller, Charles M. Schwab, George F. Baker, John G. Shedd and a score of other "millionaires" came up by their own, sheer, unaided ability. Maybe another Rockefeller or a Schwab or a Baker can read it and find the way to go and do likewise. But it doesn't apply to millions of men and women, everyday folks who haven't Rockefeller ability and who can't ask themselves, "How can I get ahead, give more to my family, own a home, have an assured income for old age?" To answer those questions I have gone to wage earners and small married men and women, mail carriers, teachers, ministers, clerks, a washer woman, and I have found a surprising number who have accumulated enough money to be wholly or partly financially independent. The way of getting ahead is doubtless more practical for the average person than that of Ford or Rockefeller. Every instance related herein is absolutely true. The names are changed, naturally, in deference to the wishes of those whose average everyday folks who have got ahead or are well on the road. I give first the postman's story. He has never earned more than $1,500 a year, yet he and his wife could afford, and took, a 7-months vacation tour of Europe. The postman's story: "You don't get something for nothing," said the postman. "That's the first big thing I learned in trying to get ahead. I was an orphan at six weeks and a newsboy at six years. I found out terribly early that you've got to put something by for your future. I got $400 a year when I entered the postal service. I regularly put by at least 10 percent every pay day. Put it in a savings account. When I'd get a few hundred dollars I'd put it in safe bonds. "How'd I know what securities to buy? I didn't and don't. But I can read the newspapers, can't I? I've never forgotten that you don't get something for nothing. I know there are sharks waiting for uninitiated investors like me—read of fake oil promotions and bucketshops in the papers. I simply looked and asked for reliable investment security dealers until I was sure I had a good dealer. He picks my investment securities. I didn't pick my investments. I picked men who made a business of picking investments, and who I was dead sure were honest and knew their business. That's all there is to it. "How old am I? Oh, not so old—I was in the navy during the war. That was the first time we ever used any of our interest. My wife lived very comfortably on it while I was getting $20 a month in the navy. Before that, every interest payment went into savings and then into more bonds. The second time we spent all that money was when we went to Europe after the war. We were in France, England, Italy, Denmark, Germany and Sweden for seven months. My investments yield around 8 per cent. I never tried to get big interest. You don't get something for nothing. I never bought stock on margin. I've never lost a penny in my investments. I made it a rule to get good, honest investment advice from some one who knew. That's all there is to it."

Books Going to Guam. CHICAGO, (AP)—The island of Guam is to have a public library established by the Junior Red Cross, co-operating with the American Library Association here. An initial contribution of 400 books for children has been collected and shipped to the island. A few of the natives of Guam, except the school children can read English, children's books and a few elementary technical books are the chief need at present.
