

POWDER MAN INJURES HAND

NORTH POWDER, Ore. (Special).—Wm. Hutchinson died at the misfortune to cut his hand the other day while cutting slab wood. In some way the ax slipped hitting his hand and making a large gash which took four stitches to sew up. Mr. Hutchinson is under the care of Dr. Tom Book and is getting along as well as could be expected but he will have a very sore hand for sometime.

W. M. Walk one of the early North Powder pioneers died at the home of his daughter Mrs. Sule Barnes who lives in Baker. Mr. Walk was old and his health had not been good for sometime. He was one of the early settlers in this section. He was at one time connected with the sheep business and owned a nice farm lying close to the town of North Powder. He lived at home just on the outskirts of town until a year ago when ill health compelled him to move to Baker so as to be taken care of in his old age. He left a wife and children to mourn his loss. He was laid to rest in the Baker cemetery on Nov. 4th.

Chas. J. Law, wife and children are visiting in Portland this week with friends.

Virginia Laughlin will go to Pocatello in a few days to study music. She will make her home with her uncle, Miss Virginia, a talented musician and will devote her time exclusively to that study.

The Leadbetter outfit finished up threshing on Monday and have pulled in for the winter. They report a good season and in most places a good yield of grain. The Pearson outfit have pulled in their machine for the winter and report a good season.

The Dickerson family have moved into the town to school their children. Will Pearson lost his milk cow several days ago and has not been able to find her, although he has made inquiry everywhere. The cow was in the Dougherty pasture and in some way got out. It is thought that she may have been stolen.

Mike Correll found his horses which were lost for some weeks. He was very glad to get them as they were gone so long that he almost gave them up for lost.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allen's, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed the Red Cross Drug Co., to dispense Allen's with the understanding that if the first bottle does not show the way to complete recovery, he will gladly return your money without comment.

PHYSICAL FITNESS UP TO FOOD, CLAIM

WICHITA, Kan., (INS).—We can't be fatter than our food. With this battle-cries Paul O. Sampson, widely known dietitian, has invaded Wichita in an effort to prevent Kansas from meeting a fate similar to Napoleon's.

Napoleon was vanquished by his appetite, according to Sampson, else he would have expired on the throne of France. Napoleon had a reasonable appetite," Sampson said, "the story of his assassination by ground glass is untrue; he poisoned himself long before St. Helena. He was not vanquished at Waterloo, but on the table."

Get the grease and acid out of your brain, the food expert urges, explaining that good thinking cannot come

KANSAS PAPER PUBLISHES TESTAMENT

TOPEKA, Kan., (AP).—A test of more than a year having proven the popularity of publishing the New Testament in serial form as a weekly feature, The Topeka State Journal, among the few if not the first newspaper in the United States to attempt such an innovation, has announced its plan to continue the series by printing the entire Bible in a "continued story" form.

The compilation has been prepared by Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, widely known Topeka minister and author, and editor of the Christian Herald of New York. It was on Dr. Sheldon's suggestion that the New Testament serial was started by The Journal.

The new serial will be known as "The Everyday Bible." It is a condensed form, all passages of a controversial nature or such as might be considered objectional for public reading being eliminated. The main historical data and teachings remain.

"The form of the Bible is designed for the newspaper reader who has not the time nor perhaps the inclination to read the Bible in its entirety," said Arthur J. Carruth, Jr., manager of The Journal. "It is really a busy man's Bible, told in interesting story form."

"The printing of the New Testament in serial form has aroused interest all over the English speaking world. We have letters from every state in the Union; from many parts of Canada, from Australia and from England. Several British newspapers not only inquired about the success of the undertaking but indicated their intention of adopting a like plan. A number of newspapers in the United States took up the serial."

"Our publication of the New Testament will be completed next month. We have used a 'newspaper English' version and are convinced that our readers have taken a tremendous interest in the plan."

PIPING HOT TOAST!

served right on the breakfast table as fast and furiously as you want it! That's what an electric toaster means to you! And think of the convenience and the time saved to say nothing of the added "tastiness" that toast made on an electric toaster always seems to have. It may be used for heating water or milk for the invalid, too, or for a dozen other purposes. No housekeeper can get along without one—at least should not be obliged to!
