

STETSON HATS

THERE is no hat worri- ment to the Stetson wearer—he is as sure of the style of his hat as he is of its quality.

Young men in the style centres of the world recog- nize Stetson leadership in style as well as quality.

A couple of minutes in our store with the new models will tell you what we mean.

U. OF O. OFFERING MORE JOURNALISTIC AWARDS, IS REPORT

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, (Special) — Five additional awards for proficiency in high school journalism, in addition to those announced several days ago, will be competed for by members of the Oregon High School Press Association. Winners of awards will be made known at the convention of the association to be held on the University campus jointly with the Association of High School Presidents and Secretaries, Jan. 11 and 12. Additional awards, which bring the total number to eleven, are: For the most adequate production of a mimeograph newspaper; for the best high school notes section in a Portland newspaper; for the best high school notes section in a state paper outside of Portland; for the best advertising and business management of a high school year book; for the best high school magazine, and for the best story in a high school magazine. High schools desiring to compete for one or more of the awards are urged to send their publications regularly to the University of Oregon school of Journalism. Committees will consider any one or several copies of any publication.

This is what H. B. Jones of Kansas City, Mo., says about Germaine and Oscar's hairdressing: "Silverthorn-Wright's Family Drug Store. Mail me two bottles of your wonderful Germaine and Oscar's hairdressing. About two years ago, through a friend of mine I heard of your preparation and ordered one bottle which saved my scalp of dandruff and falling out of my hair and grew a fine lot of new hair quickly. I have used it ever since for dandruff. I enclose $2.00 for two bottles. H. B. Jones, Kansas City, Mo." 11-9-1f
