Not Due to Sex Alone

La Grande Women Have Learned the Cause of Many Mysterious Pains and Aches.

Many women have come to know that sex isn't the reason for all backaches, dizzy headaches and urinary disorders. Men have these troubles, too, and often they come from kidney weakness. To live simply, eat sparingly, take better care of one's self and to use Doan's Kidney Pills, is bound to help bad kidneys get better. There is no other remedy so well recommended by La Grande people. Ask your neighbor, Mrs. Bettie Kohr, 2011 First street, La Grande, says: "A few years ago my kidneys were out of order and I had dull backaches. I felt dull and languid and my kidneys acted irregularly. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and used them as directed. They soon cured me of all signs of the trouble and I have had no return of it."

Price Six, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kohr had. Foster-McBurn Co., Mrs. Buffalo, N. Y.

"ASK THE ENVELOPE" AND KNOW THE TRUTH ABOUT SOUTHARD & SHINN'S USED CARS

To uncover the weak spot in a football team a wise general of the opposing team will hurl play after play—line backs—end runs—forward passes and kicks until his relentless drive shows up the "hole." Through this opening he will attempt to make his greatest gains. The Used Car has been the "hole" in the automobile business. We have built up a defense in this department that will withstand the fiercest onslaught. We have brought good used cars—newly overhauled and thoroughly repaired—have made it possible for the public to know as much about these cars as we ourselves know. Fair dealing—honest merchandise—has especially liked by the smart Parisienne. It is rather more than ankle length and has three fuzzy ruffles of soft fur between ankle and knee.

New Coarsage Idea.
Paris.—The coarsage with a bias fold of silk in a color strikingly different from the rest of the gown is an idea effectively used recently. A white velvet gown with a bias half-burlesque effect in scarlet, or a jade green with a bias fold of gold, proves startling and beautiful.

Thistle Blue.
London.—Thistle blue, the color worn by Princess Maud's bridesmaids, has become very popular. It is a soft shade, varying on halotone, and becoming to most people.

Serpent Anklet.
London.—A flexible anklet in the form of a green serpent is one of the Egyptian ornaments affected by the younger set at present. The serpent is the more realistic for having a movable head.

Back Bow for Cloche.
New York.—A very big bow at the back of the hat is among the newer trimmings for the cloche. In many cases the bow is outlined with a narrow rim of rhinestones.

No Ornament on Shoes.
New York.—There is no ornament of any kind, not even alliterary patterns, on one type of new shoes now on exhibit here. These shoes depend for their effect on a glove-fitting effect and on three or four narrow straps.

Geni Vogue Spreads.
New York.—The vogue for genu scattered all over an evening gown has continued today to get itself translated into street wear. Some of the early winter veils have gowns of different sorts worn lavishly through the mesh.

Handbags More Gorgeous.
New York.—Handbags, sharing in the general trend today toward the gorgeous, have a large amount of embroidery in gold thread upon a dark more black ground. The tendency is to mass the embroidery in the middle

Famous French Recipes

Navarin Aux Pommes.
Paris. (I.N.S.)—"Navarin aux pommes" is for the Frenchman what Irish stew is for the Englishman on a winter day. It is the aristocratic form of the popular old dish called "rôtie."

Free from the excess fat and hard skin about two and one-half pounds of mutton neck. Cut into small pieces and brown in three spoonfuls of clarified fat. Season well with salt and pepper and add a pinch of nutmeg to assure a good color.

When the meat is well browned remove about three-fourths of the fat and powder with butter. Add brown and molasses with water or a little white wine. Add three spoonfuls of tomato puree, a bit of mashed garlic and a bouquet of seasoning. Cover and cook for an hour.

Separate the meat from the juice making sure to free from all small bones. Cover the mutton with a dozen small onions browned in butter and about twenty potatoes. Pour over all this the sauce well strained and free from fat. Boil a few minutes on the top of the stove, cover and bake in the oven for another hour. Serve in a large shallow tureen.

Troubles of Paris Newlyweds Begins With Apartment Hunting

PARIS. (AP)—The lodging crisis is far from having passed in France. All newly married couples find it difficult to discover an apartment to suit them, even if they are prepared to pay a good price. Doctors and dentists are also among the sufferers as landlords having the possibility of choosing their tenants bar those who are bound professionally to cause annoyance to the janitors by having a number of visitors.

This advertisement in an evening paper shows to what extent a young doctor may be driven to find a place to carry on his practice.

"Young doctor, unmarried, in possession of a car, seeks one or two rooms in a family apartment in the district. Would say a high price."

Lace for Afternoon Wear

Sketches here are afternoon tees which show just how lovely lace may be when it goes out to afternoon tea. Black lace is the whole material of one frock made over a colored silk slip. Lace forms the yoke and plated panels of another. Brown lace and brown silk are used for the third model. The laces are all-over patterns, Spanish or Chantilly, soft and silky in texture. They are used in all colors though black and brown are most popular.

Oregon Team Practicing Behind Locked Doors

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene. (Special)—Coach "Shy" Huntington is hard at work behind closed gates rounding his football team into shape for Oregon's Homecoming game with O. A. C., the football classic of the state, to be played on Hayward field in Eugene on November 24.

"There isn't a man on this line that's got a job cinched. We're going to start all over again on fundamentals," Earl Spellman, varsity coach told his line aspirants when they turned out for the first practice after the Stanford game. "I don't care if a man weighs 100 or 200 pounds he's got to be able to block and block and fight if he makes this team," declared the coach.

Hart's idea of fundamentals, if the last two nights at workout, is in proceedure he zigged around and tells them in simple, one syllable words, exactly how poor they are.

One of his favorite diversions is to give a hunky player the ball, place another good man in it ten yard square, and force the man with the ball to charge through the square guarded by the wearer of the maulskin.

Things are going well in the backfield, punting and forward passing being their most strenuous form of practice since Saturday's battle. Coach Huntington is giving his battered warriors a chance to recover from the
