Can't Fool 'Em, By Cranley

The western section of the grand old United States tried to get the A. A. U. to accept a record of Charles Paddock made in one of his hurried 100-yard dashes whereby clockers found that apparently no time had elapsed. "Can't be done," said the officials. "Only scared colored people can run anything in nothing flat!"

'Tis Better Thus.
Burrheads—"I asked you for a loan of $10. This is only five."
Lenders—"I know it is, but that's the fairest way—you lose five and I lose five."—Denver Post.

HELP FROM THE FIELDS AND FORESTS!
Many years ago Dr. Pierce, a skilful physician, who realized the value of herbs, knew that the Indian women used decoctions made of certain herbs and that they usually passed painlessly through the ordeal of motherhood. He used the same herbs and roots to prepare an improved and more palatable remedy for women's ills and called it Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has been a great favorite for fifty years and still is a real help to women suffering from ills peculiar to their sex. Nervousness, too, soon disappears. Ask your neighbor!

Are They That Bad?
A Frenchman's definition of a bathing suit in a recent court case was: "Something that begins nowhere and ends at once."

Personally, we'd say that he's about right. Some bathing suits are hardly a substitute for the 's's leaf.

No girl burles her nose in a book so deeply she can't get at it with a powder puff.

Puretest No. 6 Disinfectant drives off dirt and disease. Certain death to germy pests that infect houses, cellars or stables. Essential for wounds, toilet use and sick room. Ten times more powerful than carbolic acid. Safe, quick, inexpensive. One of 200 Puretest preparations for health and hygiene. Every item the best that skill and conscience can produce.

A Point Well Taken
Of all sad words
Of tongue or pen,
The saddest are these:
"Please lend me ten."

There are sadder words,
And they are plenty.
For instance, these:
"If you lend me twenty."

Then there is the simp husband who is proud of his wife because she attracts so much attention
from the other men.

In ten little years,
Prohibition will thrive
Undisputed.
The lecturer said.

Those who shun the bad liquor
Will still be alive—
And those
Who do not will be dead.

AGGIES ARE READY FOR WEBFOOTERS

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE Corvallis. (Special)—With but one more day before the grand mix the Oregon Webfooters, Coach H. H. Huntington has his men in the best possible state of efficiency and readiness. They will take a hard workout Friday afternoon and journey to the University city Saturday to meet their traditional rivals.

A spirit of optimism and confidence is the most striking feature around the Beaver training quarters these days and is possessed by everyone—coaches and players alike. Even the head coach, always looking at the pessimistic side of the situation, is shaking with the best of them and telling what will be done to Oregon Saturday.

OREGON TO RELY UPON FIGHT IN GAME SATURDAY

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, (Special)—The University's Homecoming slogan, "Unite to fight for Oregon," will be interpreted literally by the varsity football aggregation when they meet the Aggies on Hayward field, in Eugene, next Saturday.

WIDOW CRIES FOR JOY

"I couldn't eat anything but raw eggs and sweet milk and was so weak I could hardly walk across the room. I would have been in my grave today if I hadn't taken May's Wonderful Remedy when I did. When I think of how I have suffered with my stomach and how good I feel now I cry for joy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.
