Interesting Program Given

All members of the Neighborhood club who attended the meeting yesterday afternoon, at the club rooms are greatly indebted to Mrs. Harriet MacDonald for the lovely afternoon of Edgar A. Guest, a poet-author, who practically everyone is familiar with, being in the same school as James Whitecomb Hiley.

A very interesting program was opened by two fine selections on the piano by Miss Gladys Miller, entitled "The Lark," by Gloria Balakrew and "Love's Delight," by Kreutzer. These were followed by a personal description by Mrs. Harriet MacDonald, of Edgar A. Guest, the poet and the man Mrs. MacDonald, while on her trip to the east was fortunate enough to meet Mr. Guest, personally, and spend several hours in his presence, so she had a very good idea and was able to relate his life in a very interesting manner. She also had a personal letter from Mr. Guest to the Neighborhood club, in which he stated that on his trip to the coast, which he was planning in the very near future, he wished to stop in La Grande and meet the members of the Neighborhood club and talk with them personally. Mrs. MacDonald read several of Mr. Guest's poems, both humorous and serious.

Mrs. J. D. Smith very ably read

some selections from Mr. Guest's prose magazine articles, after which Captain Godsay, of Portland, appeared before the Neighborhood club with a proposition to put on "Handle the Messiah," in La Grande. He seemed very anxious to enlist a chorus of eighty or one hundred singers from this locality. "The Messiah" was given last year in Baker and he expects to give it there again this year. He hopes to give it here some time in March. A committee will be appointed to confer with a committee from the Chamber of Commerce relative to putting on "The Messiah."

The program was brought to close by two excellent vocal solos, "Roses of Picardy," by Hayden Wood, and "A Banjo Song," by Sidney Homer, sang by a well known vocalist, Ray Williams, after which appetizing refreshments were served.

The members of the Alpha club were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. M. Bay. The afternoon was spent at bridge, with the guest prize going to Mrs. A. J. Stange and the club prize to Mrs. Ernest Watkins. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

Fashion Notes

SILK STOCKINGS, NO FUR COATS IN MODEL WARDROBE

NEW YORK. (AP)—A $20 a week girl should spend 22 per cent of her income, or $22.80 a year, for her wardrobe, which should include lots of silk stockings, but no fur coats, according to an exhibit arranged by the Plymouth Church institute of Brooklyn.

There are wardrobes for $20, $35 and $50 a week salaries, complete from underwear to coats, from shoes to handkerchiefs. No fur coats are included, but even the $20 budget provides a fur-collared winter coat, a sport coat, three dresses, a skirt, a sweater, blouses and three hats. When one gets to $50, a suit is included and the underwear is silk.

The exhibit, which was originated by Mrs. Newell Dwight Hillis, wife of the pastor of the church, was planned with the modern business girl strictly in mind. The silk stocking allowance is especially large.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Cantrel of La Grande, motored to Summerville Sunday and spent the evening very pleasantly visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. L. Henderson of Elgin, is among the shoppers in this city today.

Dr. O. M. Hancock is down from Enterprise on a short business trip and is stopping at the Sommer.

H. W. Sinclair of Pendleton, was registered among the guests at the Sommer last evening.

Mrs. L. Henderson of Imbler, returned to her home after visiting the past week in Baker.

Mrs. Dave Sanderson and son, of Summerville, left for Stanfield, Oregon, where they will visit for a short time.

Mrs. E. Blaser of Portland, returned to her home after visiting for several days in Wallawa.

Mrs. C. O. Shurbert of Kamela, spent Tuesday in La Grande on business.

Mrs. H. J. Hartsman of Pleasant Valley, arrived in La Grande last evening to visit for a short time.

Mrs. T. O. Barnwell of Tolsonnet, arrived in La Grande last evening, where she will visit relatives.

J. Mowlin of Enterprise, passed through La Grande last evening on his way to Pendleton, where he will visit for a short time.

Carl Koeler and Sam Koeler of Freewater, were registered at the Sommer last evening. They are here on business.

F. J. Bauer of Portland, was registered at the Sommer last evening. He is on his way to Enterprise to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Mrs. Jay V. Shroat is down from Enterprise today visiting and shopping and is stopping at the Foley.

A. B. Oakes of Walla Walla, was among the out of town guests at the Foley last evening.

W. E. Truckman came in from Allced last evening on a short business trip and is registered at the Savoy.

Orrville Plass and Elmer Osborn are down from Wallawa today and are stopping at the Savoy.

Miss Georgia Childers left this morning for Louisa, where she will spend Thanksgiving with relatives. She is employed in this city.

Pendleton was represented among the guests at the Sommer last evening by O. H. McShane.

L. C. Henrod of Walla Walla, was registered at the Foley last evening.

For Winter

These are the two "extremes" of suit coats—both desirable—but beware of the unfashionable in between! The short coat may have either a long or rolling collar or a tailored notch collar. It is slightly shaped in at the waist and has long, tight-fitting sleeves. The other coat accompanies the handsome costume suit. It has a high collar or a long shawl collar and fastens on the side. It is usually fur trimmed.

Quaint Use for Feathers.

Paris.—Feathers have quaint uses just now. Some women are wearing a bracelet of ostrich tips, usually in black, just below the shoulder on the sleeveless arm of an evening frock.

Bridal Veils of Nottingham.

London.—Nottingham lace has had a good deal of a revival since a member of the nobility wore it as a bridal veil. It is very much in vogue now for decorating not only the veil, but also the bride's and bridesmaid's gowns.

Oriental or Florentine.

New York.—For the black velvet afternoon gown, the best sort of jewelry today is the Oriental or Florentine, which combines many colors on one large bead.

Changeable Silk Slip.

Paris.—The best liked of costume slips at present is the one of changeable silk. It is apt to have a plaited flounce, and some shirring to ensure fullness on the hips.

Fashion of Their Own.

New York.—College girls are unanimous in their refusal to wear long skirts. Their campus dresses are shorter by three or four inches than even the sports clothes seen at the Country club.

IMBLER LYCEUM IS BEING HELD

IMBLER. (Special)—Mrs. Dan Westenskow arrived from Manila, Utah, Monday, where she was called to the bedside of her father, who later passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCarty, of La Grande, were guests at the home of Mrs. Ella Walker Sunday.

Geo. Rogers was in Imbler the first of the week visiting friends.

Stages in Imbler are getting thicker than flies on a dog's back. They are going to have the highway worn out before anyone else gets a chance to use it.

Prof. Hammerly was a guest at dinner at Mrs. Walker's Sunday.

Mr. Payne has discontinued the restaurant business for the winter.

Geo. Rayhill was in town Tuesday on one of his business visits.

A number of Summerville people were over Tuesday on business.

Geo. Marshall was a La Grande visitor Tuesday, going over on the stage.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keeler were visiting friends in La Grande Saturday night. They also spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Piefer in Summerville.

Mrs. Lamotte has returned home from Enterprise, where she visited friends for a few days.

Keller Stringham and August Zaugg of Mt. Glenn, left Tuesday for California, where they expect to spend the winter. They went in their old Tin Lizzy, but expect to get there just the same.

These cold evenings there is not so many apples packed or not so much wood sawed, as usual, but there is a lot of trapping being done.

The Lyceum course, which was given in the Imbler amusement hall Wednesday, November 21, was well attended and everyone went away feeling they had their money's worth. The ladies were real entertainers and every number was received with much appreciation.

A movement was born Wednesday evening and grew to the extent that Imbler will also partake in the father and son movement. It was decided to hold the meeting and banquet during the week following Thanksgiving.

The Boy Scouts will entertain their fathers at a banquet in their hall Monday night. The fathers are looking forward to a real treat in the hands of the boys.

Ray and Mrs. Hirshey were called to Imbler Friday to conduct the funeral services of Mrs. Conklin.

Mrs. White, of La Grande, came down to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Conklin.

The Pythian Sisters held their meeting in the K. P. hall Thursday evening.

Mrs. Prior visited friends in La Grande over Sunday.

The cold storage plant that burned Wednesday has removed a great deal of work that the Imbler people rely upon during the winter months. The loss of 52 car loads of apples means the removal of three months of labor for at least 25 people. The fire diminished the storage capacity to a minimum, and unless the house is rebuilt the storage for another year will be very short. All the apple men who had apples in the warehouse was insured, with the exception of Ross Perry, who had not transferred his insurance from the Allced warehouse. The warehouse was built in the year 1912, and was the only frost proof house in the community. It had the capacity of 60,000 packed boxes and if the house is not rebuilt will curtail the storage as several cars had to move out that the rest might be taken care of.

William Byer came down from the wood camp Friday, returning again Saturday night.

E. H. Long returned from Everett, Washington, Sunday, where he has been transacting business. He expects to leave in a few days for Kansas where he will spend the winter with his brother.

L. A. Stringham has moved his family in town for the winter, where the children might attend school.

Curfew Sends Children to Books at 8 O'Clock

BROOKLINE, Mass. (INB)—A curfew has been established in Brookline, America's richest town requiring all school children to be in their homes at 5 p. m. each day ready to tackle their home lessons. Each week day afternoon a blow is struck on the fire alarm bell and school children are seen hurrying to their homes to get busy on their home work.

Ennion's Idea

TWENTY centuries ago a Sidonian craftsman inscribed on a drinking glass he had made, these words: "Made by Ennion, let the buyer remember."

This is said to be the first advertisement.

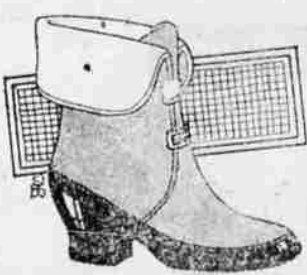

Today, every manufacturer who is really proud of his product, marks it, that all may know and identify his work. Then, by advertising, he throws on both product and mark the search-light of public attention.

Only good goods, fairly priced, can flourish in the light of advertising. The goods must be as advertised. Otherwise, they lose caste in the buyer's mind. And no business can thrive under the weight of public condemnation.

That is why a merchant or manufacturer places the reputation of his business at stake every time he advertises. He spends his money to invite your consideration of his wares, and then, perforce, must leave the final decision to you.

That is why it pays to buy advertised goods.

The Rainier Apple

The Apple to Plant for Profit

In our sincere judgment this is the finest dessert apple thus far developed. It has all the mild qualities of the Delicious, which commends it to the taste of those who cannot eat the more acid apples, and, in addition, it has a decidedly spicy flavor, will keep firm in ordinary storage for weeks without becoming mealy, and in cold storage the RAINIER keeps perfectly for a year.

Awarded Wilder Silver Medal 1922 American Pomological Society

UNCLE SAM'S VERDICT—"The keeping qualities of the RAINIER APPLE are unsurpassed by those of any other variety of the Pacific Northwest that has yet come to the attention of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Its ability to retain its firmness, brightness and quality with almost no decay or skin blemish, places it above even the Arkansas Black, Winesap and Yellow Newtown. In 32 degrees below zero, it keeps in prime condition into May or later, and instances are known where large numbers of boxes have been held in excellent condition into September of the following year."—Bulletin No. 287, United States Department of Agriculture, Page 28.
