Seniors-Sophs Class Title Game Is Today

Freshmen and Juniors to Play for Cellular Championship: Line Beats Backfield Men.

The Senior class last night from the Ferguson quarters... The Junior class had not the usual Junior and Sophomore...

This evening the Senior and Junior classes will play for the Cellular Championship...

The class title.

Line Beats Backfield. Another game that aroused much interest was the annual game between the football team backfield and the line, played on the gymnasium floor Wednesday...

With the class games over the season, which now numbers about thirty athletes, will get down to intensive work starting Monday afternoon.

The basketball schedule is not yet completed but is rapidly forming.

"What is the aim of education?" asks a facilities writer, obviously if it isn't this one.

Hoopsters Are Out at Oregon U.

1924 football, welcome basketball, Oregon's hoopsters are now at work under the tutelage of Coach Bill Reinhardt and will play the season's opening game within a few weeks.

Reinhardt is neither optimistic or pessimistic over this season's prospects in basketball. "Average our look" was the way that he expressed it. "Oregon's chance lies in the development of a team that can excel at passing" is the opinion of the coach. At present he is training his hoopsters in the fundamentals of the game and announces that he will not put them through strenuous practice until the first of next week.

Oregon has five varsity letter-men who will be candidates for honors on this season's hoop organization. They are: Gowans, forward; Hokeby, forward; Altschuler, forward; Hunter, guard; Latham, center. Besides these there are twenty men from last season's freshman team who are seeking a place on this season's varsity squad and are turning out for daily practice. Reinhardt says that he has no "phenomenal material" among his contenders, and any laurels that the varsity may pick up will be the outcome of a lot of hard work. The schedule for the year follows: February 4, Washington at Eugene; February 5, Washington at Eugene; February 6, O. A. C. at Eugene; February 12, Illinois at Moscow; February 14, Washington State College at Pullman; February 22, Idaho at Eugene; February 25, Washington at Seattle; February 24, Washington at Seattle; February 25, O. A. C. at Corvallis; March 7, O. A. C. at Corvallis.

AGGIES RESTING FOR HAWAIIAN TRIP SHORTLY

CORVALLIS (Special)—Taking their first real rest since the start of the football season, Coach H. B. Rutherford's O. A. C. warriors are "laying off" for a few days before they start training for the Hawaiian invasion. The men are at the peak of physical perfection and the coach will try them just enough work to keep them there. All men on the injured list are expected back in uniform before the team takes off from Seattle Tuesday by 12.

The long-lacking offensive punch that was the big problem for the Aggie crew all season, has finally been solved. The four backfield axes, Price, Gill, Boyer, and Miller, upon a combination that nothing start of a first line halfback could hope to equal. With the backing he receives, Gill has been increasing the average length of his punts. Two games will be played over the holidays in Honolulu. The first with the University of Hawaii and the second with the Hawaiian all-stars.

It must be awful to be rich and have to wear light-colored silk instead of wool.

Who To Meet Herein. NEW YORK (AP)—Charley White, Chicago, welterweight, has been matched to box Bobby Barrett of Clifton Heights, Pa., in a 10-round decision contest at Philadelphia December 15. It was announced Thursday by the Morgan, White, manager.
