

SOCIAL NEWS FROM UNION

UNION (Special) — What was probably the most successful social affair of the local Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges was held Saturday evening at the K. P. Hall, when Union was host to Baker and Cove. A delegation of both Odd Fellows and Rebekahs drove over from both towns and were guests of Union Lodge No. 25 and Mountain Gem Rebekah Lodge for the evening. A committee of ladies had charge of the eat, and about nine o'clock the visitors sat down to a chicken pie dinner. Chicken, pie, salad, fruit, coffee and cake were served. After the banquet a four piece orchestra furnished music and a couple of hours were spent in dancing. Previous to the dinner the visitors listened to the following program: A reading from Robert Service by Agnes Paddock, two solos, "Smiling Through" and "That Old Irish Mother of Mine" by Miss Emma Baxter, accompanied by Mrs. John Wortman; Reading, "When Will Odd Fellowship Die" by Miss Ina Hillier; "Yankee Doodle Drill" by Ruth Connor and Katherine Kleiblock and "Back in Sunnyside" by Agnes Paddock. The numbers were interspersed with short talks by Ed York, Grant Dalton, and C. McMahon of Baker and Dr. Little of Cove. About midnight the visiting members started home, all declaring they had been royally entertained. The Union Rebekahs deserve much praise for their aid in entertaining the visitors.

The Commercial Club was responsible for the concert and dance held Saturday evening at the gymnasium, and report that although the concert was not so well attended, the dance was well patronized, in spite of the fact that many Union people were at the Odd Fellows social. The club had guaranteed the price of the attraction and came out on top financially.

As was reported last week, the week of Chautauqua festival has been dropped as an annual attraction in Union after being enjoyed here for several years. Five nights all together were not what the people wanted, and many are now signing up with Ellison-White for a livecom course for next season. Miss Gladys Sargent is still in Union soliciting names for the contract.

Rev. Quinn of the Methodist Church lectured at the Sunday evening service hour on the subject "The Path of the Nazarene." The lecture was illustrated with slides.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hummel have gone to Montana to spend the winter. They left Union last Tuesday.

Miss Zelpha Beech, who has been in Portland attending a business college, is out of school for measles.

The Carnation Club met at the home of Mrs. Carmen Conner in north Union Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Vehrs was an out of town guest. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Conner served a three course luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Webb, proprietors of the Cozy movie theatre are leaving today for an extended auto trip through the middle west and south. They will go as far east as Chicago, then visit at Mr. Webb's old home in Iowa, this being his first trip back in 25 years. Coming home they will take the southern route and stop over in El Paso, Arizona to see Mrs. Webb's sister, then on to Los Angeles and other California cities before returning to Union.

Frank Bartlett and family came over from La Grande Saturday and attended the Odd Fellows social. Mrs. Bartlett and son Marvin remained over Sunday visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hoots.

Ladies of the Episcopal and Methodist churches held bazzars here last week. Good sales were reported.

Uncle Andy Wilkinson, father of Mrs. Jim Webb, went to Vader Washington to spend the winter. While in Vader he will visit at the home of his son, Edward Wilkinson, who is superintendent of the Vader schools.

RESIDENTS OF HAINES HURT. AUTO WRECK

HOT LAKE (Special)—Three Haines residents are patients in the Hot Lake Sanatorium hospital as the result of an auto accident which occurred two miles east of here on the Old Oregon trail Saturday evening. They are

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hogg, farmers, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alfred Hogg.

The trio, with Frank Hogg, were driving home from La Grande, when the lights of the car suddenly went out. As Hogg applied the brakes the car skidded over the embankment, throwing all occupants except J. P. Hogg out and pinning him in eighteen inches of mud and water.

Leo Hansen, of La Grande, discovered the accident a few minutes later, succeeded in getting the car off from Hogg and brought all four to Hot Lake.

Although Mrs. Alfred Hogg, whose wrist was fractured, was the only one to suffer any broken bones, both Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hogg, received several minor injuries. Frank Hogg was not hurt.

THE LUCKY YOUTH

FORTUNATUS had only to don his enchanted cap and make a wish to obtain anything his heart desired. It is not given to ordinary mortals to have so simple and direct a mode of filling their wants.

But have you ever considered what a boon advertising has become? Everything you need or wish is displayed for your benefit in the advertising columns. Merchants and manufacturers use advertising to lay before you their most attractive wares. You have only to choose at your ease the things you care most about before actually going to see them in the stores.

Advertising is continually making the world better dressed, better fed and better housed. It is increasing the world's capacity for things that elevate, improve and idealize the important business of living. It is a big, vital force in fostering convenient, comfortable and useful lives.

Empty your home of all advertised things and see the hole you make!
