

Challenges Winner.
Paris. (AP)—Francois Descamps on behalf of Georges Carpentier, has called a challenge to the winner of the Gene Tunney-Harry Greb fight Monday night for the American light heavyweight championship. Should the match be arranged, Carpentier would leave France immediately after New Year's day and be ready to box in February.

POWDER MAN VISITS IDAHO

NORTH POWDER (Special)—Alex Johnson went to Idaho last week to look after the construction of a mining tunnel for H. C. Marshall, a mining man from Baker. Mr. Marshall thinks he has a good proposition and secured the services of Mr. Johnson, as Mr. Johnson has spent years in the mining business and is a well known authority on mining matters.

Frank Hogg, who was arrested in November for selling moonshine is sent to jail, after failing to give bond. His trial will be held in a few days. He pleaded guilty and was held giving him a second bond, at the expiration of the first.

The North Powder Cattle Association had their regular meeting last week. The attendance was small and owing to the fact no business was transacted. It was agreed to levy an assessment to clear up the business of the past year. Steak is so low in price that it does not pay to have an association to look after the matter for the stockmen. The expense is too high for the profits.

The "500" Club was entertained by Mrs. W. A. Hudson Thursday afternoon. There were four tables of the ladies with the high score going to Mrs. Floyd Walk and the consolation prize to Mrs. James Riege. A fine luncheon was served, which was enjoyed by all. Most of the club members were present.

The members of the Golden Itobah lodge had a social time after their lodge meeting the other evening. "Go" was played, Mrs. Grace winning high honors. A delicious luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buchanan and son, Vincent, Mrs. Florence Blevins and Mrs. Lillie Law were doing their Xmas shopping in Baker Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garrison returned last week from Oakland, where they have been visiting with Mr. Garrison's parents. The report a fine time.

Mrs. Ray and Misses Schmitt were doing their Xmas shopping in Baker Saturday.

Mrs. Andrew Wilks is getting better after an attack of stomach trouble. She will soon be around again.

W. B. Pearson has just completed his third artesian well with in the past six weeks. The wells were put down for William Keister, A. C. Hess, and Emmett Hill, and are producing water in large quantities. The Hill well has pressure enough to force a fourteen-foot flow.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Johnson left for Portland to spend a couple of months with their daughter, Miss Inez Johnson, who is attending school in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fisher were shopping in Baker Saturday. The grade school at North Powder is preparing a fine program for Christmas.

PROMISE HAS QUIET WEEK

PROMISE (Special)—Lewis Newby accompanied by William A. Rod returned Sunday from Ohio where they went several days ago to get Mr. Newby's saddle horse.

Harold, Theodore and Robert Carper motored to Wallowa Saturday and returned home Sunday evening. They attended the revival meeting which is being held in the Christian church by the evangelist minister, Mr. Zook.

Happy Jones returned to Wallowa Saturday after visiting a week at the home of John Carper. Chas. Bennett's family have moved to the Fred Thompson place, which Mr. Bennett has recently purchased.

Henry, Ed and Lora Carper, who have spent a few days at Wallowa returned home Monday. They were accompanied by their
