pay approximately $15,000 into the court for the purpose of taking up the mortgage held by Mrs. Honan on the property, that the floating debt will be paid, and that the Y. M. C. A. association will be given ample time to get their house in order and redeem the property.

Some time ago when indebtedness threatened the institution Mr. Stange advanced $7,500 for the lot adjoining the Y building. It was thought at that time that a lot of affairs would come and members of the board expected better financial conditions for the work. These failed to show, and now it is quite plain that the Y. M. C. A. will make its final effort during the next three months to become a permanent institution in La Grande and should it fail again no one will feel like continuing hopeless task.

Sherwood Named Head Of 1924 L. H. S. Eleven

Two-Year All-Star East Oregon Halfback Receives Honor of Captaincy.

Cecil Sherwood, unanimous choice for the All-Eastern Oregon halfback selection in 1922 and 1923 was last evening elected captain of next year's L. H. S. football team at the banquet given the squad by the "fifth down" in the high school building. Sherwood, whose selection has been a matter of the success of local teams for two years and this year's Tiger team is a Junior this year and will graduate next year.

In 1922 Sherwood, playing halfback, was first choice on every All-Eastern Oregon selection, scoring nearly 175 points. This year, although Sherwood carried the ball enough to get at least that many points in practice, demonstrating his ability to shoulder injuries, the season was over before he could perform the regular halfback duties but also did a large share of the punting, getting off some very creditable boots during the season.

Lettermen Named

During the banquet it was announced that 18 members of the football team had earned their letters this year. The honors will be presented this week some time during an assembly.

Those who earned letters this season are: Captain Sherwood, Sherwood, Darby, Kerr, Emmanuel, Williams, Leach, Price, Stagers, Hughes, Coker, Bethke, Glass and Jacobson.

Of this number about a fair percentage will be available for the team next year although a goodly share will graduate in the spring.

O. A. C. TO PLAY WHITMAN TEAM AT PENDLETON

PENDLETON—Pendleton is to have another "big league" football game next year, according to the schedule made up by the North-west conference and given to the press last night. According to the schedule the seven state Oregon agricultural college will tangle and the stout Whitman eleven. Whitman will play at Pendleton October 13, 1924. While many local fans had hoped to see Washington State or Idaho drawn into the ring as a contender for one of the big Oregon schools the Whitman-O. A. C. battle will likely prove a good drawing card as Whitman always makes a good showing against the Corvallis aggregation.

Oregon Hoop Prospects Are Bright for Year

Several Lettermen on the Squad at the University This Year.

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Basketball prospects at the University of Oregon look bright this year with seven lettermen in school, and an intensive practice schedule has been underway.

The seven veterans are Robinson-trained men, and this year they are expected to develop into a formidable machine. George Hunter who resigned as coach last year, spent two years in training this squad, and his system is believed to be very effective. This year William Hunsaker, who learned the rudiments of the game in 1920 under Bohler, will coach, and he is expected to follow out the general program. Hugh Latham, '23, of Silverton, Oregon, is the only member of the famous 1920 squad left, and he is expected to be a great help in organizing the five this season. He was the unanimous choice of all critics for the all-coast position of center.

Oregon faces a hard Harmon schedule this year, of which will be played in Eugene. The complete schedule for this season is as follows: February 22nd 5, Washington at Eugene; February 23 and 2, O. A. C. at Eugene; February 15, Idaho at Eugene; February 25 Whitman at Walla Walla; February 28, Idaho at Moscow; February 25 and 26, Washington at Seattle, and February 23 and March 1, O. A. C. at Corvallis.

In addition to this schedule, Coach Hayhart will take his squad on a "barnstorming" tour during the Christmas holidays, and they also tangle with several amateur teams in different sections of the state. This will give the men some valuable experience, and also give the coach a chance to get a line on the ability of his men, it was reported.

Allies, French definition: Persons who stand and yield while one Guilmet the job.

Christmas Morning in the Thoughtful Home

Secret closets and drawers have given up their mysterious packages. Days and weeks of plotting, and planning for each others happiness have reached their climax. In the glow of the lighted tree the excited youngsters exclaim their happiness at each new discovery. There are candy and nuts and toys of course, but the children, as well as the grown ups, will be most delighted with the thoughtful, useful, practical, lasting gifts that Santa Claus brought. For such are the gifts that convey the consideration for each other that makes the Thoughtful Family ideal.
