

Local News In Brief

Home to Portland—

Mrs. F. E. Moore, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carr, left Saturday evening for Portland.

Returns to Pendleton—

J. R. Bowler, of the First National Bank of Pendleton, returned to his home, after spending a short time as guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson, of La Grande.

Here For Holiday—

Clifford Horstman, who has been in Portland for some time, returned to La Grande Saturday and will remain here over the holiday season. He plans to enroll at O. A. C. on January 2.

Bags Turkey—

Commander Isaac Paul, who recently achieved the distinction of being the oldest U. S. R. veteran at the Union Armistice Day celebration, yesterday competed in a turkey shoot near La Grande and returned to his home with a fine turkey, considered one of the best birds given away during the day.

To visit in California—

C. J. Eaton, of La Grande, will leave tonight on No. 19 for California, where he will visit his sister for a month. On his return he will visit in Payson, Washington, and Portland. He expects to be gone about six weeks.

Is Initiated—

Waldo Stoddard, of La Grande, junior in commerce, was formally initiated into Beta Alpha Psi, national honorary fraternity in accounting, recently. Stoddard is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, national honorary fraternity in commerce, and Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

La Grande Boy Pledged—

Edward Lyman of La Grande is pledged to Sigma Beta and Beta, national honorary military fraternity. The pledging ceremony was performed before the entire regiment of cadets of the Reserve Officers Training Corps. Lyman is a junior in the school of commerce and a member of the Omega Psi Chi fraternity at O. A. C.

Radio Club to Meet—

The La Grande Radio club will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the city hall building for their second session. Organization was effected last week and regular meetings are to be held in the future.

Driving 'Round the Country—

Guy Byrthell, formerly a resident of La Grande and connected with the George Palmer Lumber company at that time, came in Saturday to visit friends. He drove in from Los Angeles where he had been for a week visiting his mother. Before that time he had been driving the entire western coast observing conditions. He left yesterday for his home in Meridian, Idaho.

Went to Lewiston—

Although Jay Dobbins could almost take a steam field glass and from his largest backyard in Walla Walla county see the town of Lewiston, he finds it necessary to come through La Grande and then around by Pendleton, and Walla Walla when he wants to transact business in the Idaho city. He was here last evening on his way over to Lewiston.

Going to Idaho—

Fred Paley was in the city last evening while on his way to Southern Idaho where he went to look after land and sheep. Mr. Paley is now operating the large Cunningham ranch which he bought from the estate of N. J. Burgess in Lincoln county. He continues to run a few bands of sheep in Walla Walla county, and also has large holdings in Montana and Idaho.

Christmas Buying Heavy—

H. E. Williams, of La Grande, who spent a portion of last week in Portland, has returned to this city and announces that, as in this section, Christmas buying is very heavy in the Home City. "Especially in this department in electrical appliances," Mr. Williams stated. "Wholesale houses in Portland are swamped with orders from the retailers to cover their Christmas-time demands and throughout the watchword is 'Be your Christmas shopping early' and as an alternative in this branch, unless one orders early there is the possibility that the demand will prove greater than the supply."

FINE NUMBERS TO BE GIVEN

Drew Loney Jr., director, presented a program of excellent numbers, the proceeds of the concert to be used for the purchase of a piano for the new Presbyterian church. The "Sextette from Lucia" by Andrew Loney Jr. and five other members of the band, will furnish band accompaniment, as a great number and will be thoroughly enjoyed by all lovers of music.

Mrs. A. L. Dickinson, coloratura soprano, will render as one of her leading numbers, "Palomares" from Mignon, by Thomas. Her many friends are looking forward with pleasure to the rendition of this selection.

A violin quartet, composed of Mrs. Carr, Edward Lindsey, Mrs. A. E. Kinnear and Kenneth Giddler will play without accompaniment and the fact that all members of the quartet are splendid musicians insures the audience some excellent numbers.

The Municipal band will be heard in several selections, one of the most popular being "The Bohemian Girl." The band will accompany Mrs. Richardson in some of her numbers.

Mrs. W. W. Berry is the piano accompanist for the entire program.

At 8:20 o'clock the evening's program will begin.

Chamber of Commerce to Gather at Christmas Luncheon Tomorrow.

After tomorrow's chamber of commerce luncheon, to be held at the L. O. O. F. hall at 12:05 o'clock, the organization will adjourn until January 2, Wednesday, when the regular weekly luncheons will be resumed. Due to the fact that New Year's day falls on Tuesday the luncheon will be held Wednesday the first week of 1924 but after that date, the regular Tuesday programs will be resumed.

Tomorrow's luncheon will assume a Yuletide atmosphere. Dr. E. P. Mossman will preside and a Christmas program, with several songs listed, will be held. The luncheon, to be served by Mrs. Will Clark and Mrs. Walter Parker, Chamber caterers, will feature chicken and is expected to be one of the best of the season.

use during the holidays—strong ones so that Santa might display the gifts on them without breaking the boughs.

To estimate how many trees were brought in yesterday is too much to ask of anyone, but the writer's guess is that the number was between 150 and 200. Anybody else might guess a lot nearer to the actual number but at any rate plenty of the trees were brought home.

Show Windows Trimmed.

Show windows, in all their glory are arrayed throughout the business section in holiday trimmings, displaying gifts for each and every member of the family, from dad to the baby. Especially in the evening when the lights are on, the windows present their array of attractiveness to the public.

Despite admonishments to the contrary, the public continues to do their Christmas shopping late. The stores dealing in Christmas goods are now being swamped with gift seekers and the postoffice is just getting started on its greatest period of activity that will last until a day or so after Christmas. Extra services are being employed in practically every establishment that is included in the Christmas spirit of business.

Some time this week the La Grande U. S. O. E. tree for the holidays will be erected at the intersection of Depot and Washington streets and by the time the Christmas effect will be practically complete.

From outward indications the Yuletide season in La Grande will be one that should outrank other Christmas-times during the past decade.

If Everyone in the Family Gave Him Shirts He Wouldn't Have Too Many.

We get this information from knowing men. We have yet to see a man have too many shirts—and we have never known a Holiday when the store was closed that somebody wasn't short a shirt.

At $1.95 this display holds a wonderful lot of neat dress patterns and if you want to make a gift de lux—give three of his size.

Or at $2.45 to $9.45 come the silks and silk stripes that are so beautiful that one makes a gift that the one who receives it will be won by the one who sent it.

The men need shirts—and you need look no longer.
