THEATERS
Sherrys Showing Mabel Normand On Screen in "Head Over Heels."

A well known favorite of La Grande is scheduled to reappear on the screen next week when Mabel Normand makes her entrance in the new Goldwyn photoplay, "Head Over Heels," which will remain in town for five days, commencing today.

Mabel Normand has her full share of attention to perform in her new picture and she is presented as an Italian neeroh who has been given a contract to "star" in America. The theatrical agent, having seen her only in costume, could not dream that the middle-aged girl who came to America to fulfill her contract was the charming neeroh he had engaged. In attempting to repudiate the contract, the agent realized that he has temperament to deal with. Consequently he temporizes with the girl to the extent of sending her to a beauty parlor. When the undaunted "star" returns, she is the star indeed on much more, in fact, that various other offers are made to her. How she receives them and what she does to those making the proposals furnish the romantic intonation to this most amusing photoplay.

The picture was directed by Victor Schoderstrom and Paul Bern.

Bogus Royalty Finds It Easy to "Pull the Wool" Over Germans
BERLIN (AP).—Democracy Germany has not ceased to work at the throne of royalty and because of the bogus princes with unexplained and unimpeachable names often furnish the German public.

A multi-believe prince with a name of ancient and noble origin, recently received a high honor recently from a prince in a number of German cities at the expense of expensive hotels and garages which were in the highest by assisting the title Prince Hohenzollern von Heimbach-Ilberstein. His name varied from time to time.

In North Germany he posed as Count von Krosigk and Count of the East. Sometimes he paid his bills in gold checks when expenditures were not made in cash.

Mrs. Della Severson and Edward Krambeck have donated nearly $2,000 as a nucleus for a foundation fund of $10,000 for the same.

It is planned to raise that sum during the next year and to erect a sanitarium, cottages and other buildings where aged members of the church may be cared for. A mass raising was held at the local church to discuss the campaign.

HOME FOR AGED PLANNED
BERGEN, Ore.—Plans for a Lutheran home for aged in Eugene are being made. It was announced here by Rev. O. Skibsted, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church of this city.
