SHERRY'S
TODAY AND TOMORROW

"The Man Next Door"

By Emerson Hough

A girl reared like a boy on a ranch in the boundless prairie, suddenly flung into the luxuries of a great city! Her struggle to find love! Picturized from the novel by Emerson Hough, author of "The Covered Wagon," and other virile stories of the great west.

Happy New Year to Kodakers.
Richardson, "The Art Man" which is the Kodaker's happy new year, and with it a wish for better pictures. Take your negatives to him for enlarging and tinting for that is his specialty. He gives your picture the same careful attention that he does his own, making them not only attractive and as clear as can be done. Through the coming year, when you think of enlarging and tinting, you think of Richardson's Art & Gift Shop. 12-26-23

JURY DUTY DISTASTEFUL
T O SOME IRISH WOMEN

DUBLIN (AP).—Women are now liable to serve on juries in the Free State, but they do not like their new responsibility. They say it interferes with their domestic duties, and is especially objectionable when it involves the trial of unpleasant sexual cases.
The sheriff of Dublin, Dr. Lorcan Sherlock, suggests that a bill be passed making optional the service of women on juries, only those serving who have notified the authorities of their desire to do so.

FAKE REMEDIES DEFEAT END OF
HEALTH SEEKER

By Jack Carberry,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK.—Americans have no occasion to laugh at the African Voodoo doctor or the Indian's Medicine Man.

"Every day, in every American city, men and women are using remedies compared to which the concoctions of the tom-tom beaters are scientific," said Dr. S. D.
Hubbard, director of New York City's Bureau of Public Health.

A year's laboratory study shows:
"The American people want to take a short cut to health.
"They buy patent medicines. I do not wish to give the impression that all such medicines are dangerous. Some are harmless; others contain properties of value.
But every person using patent medicine is tinkering with the most valuable asset in the world—health."

Dr. Hubbard told of some of his discoveries.
1. Anti-fat remedy. The laboratory test showed it was a coating of gelatin around the head of a tapeworm. The tapeworm grows a

LADIES' FINE BOLIVIA COATS AT A YEAR-END SAVING. SEE THESE GREAT VALUES

$19.75, $21.50, $24.75 AND $27.50

Above Prices Are Exceptionally Low

Ladies' Fine Bolivia Coats in blues, black and many different shades of browns. Some are made with fur collar and cuffs, while others are in the stock collar, with wide fancy cuffs.

Many of these coats have fancy braid and button-trimmed collar and cuffs. Made up in both the loose back and belted models, with the long straight line effects so popular at this time.

Ladies who are anticipating a new coat late in the season should see these wonderful values.

new body when the head is intact.
Users get this all right—but at a cost of life itself.

2. Another anti-fat solution, Plain Epsom salts. Epsom salts, in small doses, do no harm. But taken constantly they destroy the red blood corpuscles, and the patient dies of chemical starvation —pernicious anemia.

3. The rejuvenator compound has come into great favor. Often it is Epsom salts and white vinegar.
The ingredients are worth 25 cents.
The price is $15 a bottle.

4. Cancer sufferers are among the most pitiful victims of quick cures. One remedy found by Dr.

Hubbard consists of the ashes of snails and clam shells. Another was nothing but yellow clay.

5. Indigestion cures are, in the main, alcohol—a cheap grade of whiskey, more dangerous than the boasting stuff. A clergyman friend of Dr. Hubbard refused to believe this. He ended in a hospital in the throes of delirium tremens.

6. The so-called syring and rectal tong corollas are in many cases "baby killers"—water, sweetened and flavored, containing an opiate.

"Pay more money for good milk, and soothing syrup will not be necessary for the baby," Dr. Hubbard advises.

7. The electric-belt cure—a strip of iron and copper wrapped in red leather. Perspiration from the body causes a prickling sensation.
The victim thinks it is magnetic force.

"There is no short cut to health," Dr. Hubbard declares.
"The orthodox way to recovery may seem long, but it is better to improve an inch a day than mark time to the tune of false hopes."
