"The Bishop of The Ozarks" At Star Makes Big Hit.

Dugout mountain fastnesses, habited by lawless, ruthless men form the background for a large portion of the swift action of one of the most powerful motion picture dramas of the season—"The Bishop of The Ozarks," the Paramount, L. B. C. offering which is being shown at the Star, theatres today only. No small part of the picture's inescapably powerful appeal is due to the fact that much of its towering drama is set amidst the glorious life of one of the most picturesque in America—the heart of the Ozark Mountains.

Other scenes that add eye-filling splendor to soul-piercing drama are contained in those sequences showing the interior of a newly-made millionaire's bizarre Oriental Palace in the city, which is a Mecca for scores of European alien money-makers; thrilling realistic scenes behind the impenetrable strange evil influence over her, to which she succumbs despite her will; the other matter has an opposite effect. The climax is one of the strongest ever shown on the screen.

Strong Cast and Story in Picturized Success Now Showing at Sherrys.

One of the most entertaining plays ever written about the stage and its people is "Dr. Jack." A film version of this Broadway hit is being shown at the Sherry Theatre, with Brandon Tynan, the well known actor, in the role which he created on the stage several years ago.

The story is concerned with the life of Dr. Jack Carlson, a famous actor, who loses his prestige through dissipation. He refuses to accept either role, and he drifts apart from his family and friends. When he does put in an appearance, it is at a time when his presence counts for a great deal. A reconciliation with his wife and daughter takes place under unusual circumstances.

Mr. Tynan exerts the difficult part of Carlson with much sympathy and real understanding. He receives able support from the lovely Mary Astor as his daughter; from Naomi Childers as his wife; and from Dora Davidson as a lady manager. Others in that splendid cast are Lionel Adams, Stanley Hildes, Robert Lee, Kipling, Billy Quirk, Helen Macks and Gay Pendleton.

The photoplay, a Ralph Ince production, is presented by Murray W. Gordon and is released by Metro Pictures Corporation. It was written and adapted by Adeline Leitch and Theodore A. DeLaplante, Jr.

HARPER—A. S. Shockley was elected president of the Baker White Pine Lumber company at a meeting of stockholders and directors of the company held at its offices yesterday afternoon. Other officers chosen were E. E. Gurney, vice president; C. L.

secretary-treasurer, and Norris E. Gurney, general manager. The board of directors consists of Mr. Shockley, Mr. Gurney, Mr. Healy, S. K. Hunter of Prosser, Nebraska, and J. W. Stuebel, of this city.

Prosperous Bright.

That the prospects for a prosperous year in 1924 are very encouraging is the opinion expressed by the new officers. During the recent campaign for funds for the company in Baker, $25,000 was subscribed by employees of the company, $25,000 by the business men of Baker, and an additional $50,000 from Nebraska interests, was secured by Mr. Gurney and Mr. Stuebel, recently while in Prosser, Nebraska. It is believed, will be sufficient to place the company on a good financial footing.

1923 Best Year.

During the past year 1923 cars of lumber totalling approximately 47 million feet were shipped. The best previous year in the history of the company recorded 1411 cars shipped totalling about 31 million feet. Recently orders for 42 cars of lumber were received in one day setting the high mark for the best day in the company's history. Market conditions, according to officials of the company, are growing better daily and so far weather conditions have not hampered the company's winter work. Three hundred and eighty-five men are now on the company's payroll.

It's hard to keep from being bored when you visit strangers as all the gossip concerns people you don't know.

Any breaking out of the skin, even frosty itching eczema, can be quickly cured by applying a little Mentha-Sulphur, says a special skin specialist. Because of its rapid destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

If skin fails to yield to the treatment and discomfort, suffering from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles Mentha-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.
