"Success" Proved To Be a Thrilling Dramatic Photoplay—Now at Sherrys.

Another stage play which lends itself to unusually fine adaptation as a motion picture is "Success," which under the same title, was seen for the first time yesterday at the Sherry Theatre. The film was a dramatic story which is especially well acted, and it has humor and pathos combined in a splendid measure. In all, it has everything a good picture should have, and it deserves to rank with the best films shown this season.

To those who are interested in the world of the theatre, the photoplay affords a very intimate view of backstage scenes. Since the whole action centers about the life of an actor, almost everybody in the film and nearly all of the characters are of the stage. Scenic artists and types are especially well chosen, and a great deal of the fascination which is exerted by the film can be explained through this theatrical atmosphere.

Brandon Ryan, one of the most interesting personalities in the American theatre, is seen to advantage in the role he originated on the stage. As the celebrated actor, Harry Carter, Mr. Ryan presents a life-like and intensely human characterization. He is equally convincing as a young man and later as an aged and broken figure.

Excellent support is given by a favorite, Mary Astor in charming as the daughter of the actor, and displays unusually strong emotional ability. Dore Davidson and Naomi Childers are also prominently cast. Others in the cast are Lionel Adams, Stanley Hedges, Robert Lee Kelling, Billy Kunkel and others.

"Success" is a French film production, released by Metro Pictures Corporation. It is presented by Murray W. Garrison, Adeline Lettman and Theodore A. Lohber, Jr., are authors and adapters.

Comedy showing, "Ferdinand Mc"

Star to Show "Thundering Dawn" Three Days, Beginning Friday.

Local screen goers are promised an unusual film offering here in the near future when "Thundering Dawn," a strange and dramatic photoplay of the Java coast, comes to the La Grande Theatre on Friday for a three day run. It is a Universal Super Level production made by Alfray Garrison, and starring the popular J. Warren Kerrigan and Anna Q. Nilsson. Tom Fartohl, long a screen favorite, and Winifred Bryson, rated as the greatest "vamp" on the screen, play important roles in the picture.

The big punch in the picture is a realistic reproduction of a destructive typhoon followed by a tidal wave, which smashes and washes away the coast settlement in which the action of the story is laid. This reproduction is said to be the most striking and awe-inspiring catastrophe ever duplicated for motion pictures. Expert hydraulic and construction engineers were engaged to stage it and millions of gallons of water were impounded by a specially constructed dam, to provide the devastating floods. The project was one of great danger and several players and technicians narrowly escaped with their lives in the rush of water and debris.

"Thundering Dawn" is headed as a stirring melodramatic thriller filled with romance and the clash of human emotions. It is understood to be based on the strange situation of a white man who has succumbed to the lure of the tropics. This role, played by Kerrigan who did such excellent work in "The Covered Wagon" and "The Girl of the Golden West" is one said to call for the actor every ounce of his ability as a portrayal of human nature.

staged especially by the producer with ten hours and pictures from the Tinian track in Malaya; a magnificent cast scene in which hundreds of beautifully gowned women take part and in which were installed all of the high-pitched, gaiety, glamour and air of extravaganza known to mark the famous old Cafe de Paris, after which the set was copied and laid, but vitally important, a wedding scene that for beauty is said to surpass anything in the way of a nuptial celebration ever before attempted for the screen.

While these events add greatly to the interest value of the film, the production's real strength lies in the human interest element of the story. As he has demonstrated in such past successes as "One Clear Call," "The Child Thou Gavest Me," and "The Woman in His House," Mr. Stahl is a master when it comes to picturing the touching phases of real life, and in "The Dangerous Age," with a big dramatic theme for material, he has achieved the greatest triumph of his career.

"Six Cylinder Love," Stirling Drama, To Be at Arcade Theater Monday.

Consolences are much more efficient instruments when kind hearts are functioning smoothly.

We missed the Dempsey-Firep art fair, but we'll get to watch consoling.

"Six Cylinder Love" is a new play and La Grande people will get it right off the theatrical griddle. It is an up-to-the-minute farce, touching a theme that is vital in this age of motorcars. It preaches a powerful sermon against extravagance, and it will hit you right between the eyes, for everyone either owns an automobile, or would like very much to possess one. "Six Cylinder Love" is the hit of a decade, and everyone wishes to see it.

Reserved seats for this attraction will go on sale at Glass' Drug store Thursday. The low seats are $1.50, lower floor $1.00, and balcony 75c. 10c should be added for war tax.
