La Grande High Skedrougeest in District

Games at Ealoh. A return game will be played with Union and games with the Muddy Creek boys are expected to be set.
Up at Joseph, where they have been having out championship games for the past few years. Coach K. A. Fisher has contracted for seven games. They are: Ealoh at Joseph, January 4; Union at Joseph, January 11; Imbler at Joseph, January 12; Grande at Joseph, January 15; Joseph at Enterprise, January 25; Joseph at Imbler, January 21; Joseph at Union, February 1; Joseph at La Grande, February 2; Wallowa at Joseph, February 16; Enterprise at Joseph, February 22. Coach Pepper managed to get six of the eleven games at Imbler.

Imbler high school has arranged a large schedule for both the boys and girls teams. January 9 both boys and girls play Muddy Creek at Imbler; January 10, Imbler plays at Wallowa; January 11 they meet Enterprise and on January 12, Imbler finishes up their branching trip at Joseph. Both boys and girls teams will play January 13 and 14 at Haines and Muddy Creek, respectively. January 26 Wallowa plays at Imbler; January 31, Joseph goes to Imbler; February 2 both boys and girls teams meet Union at Imbler; Haines plays at Imbler, February 8 and on February 9 North Powder goes to Imbler; Imbler plays at home against Enterprise, February 15 and at North Powder, February 16.

Both boys and girls will play at Union, February 23. Imbler plans on arranging games with Ealoh if possible.
Union's schedule is large and calls for at least four double headers in which both boys and girls teams will participate. The contracted games follow: January 5, La Grande at Union; January 10, Union at Enterprise; January 11, Union at Joseph; January 12, Wallowa at Union; January 24, Wallowa at Union; January 25, Ealoh at Ealoh; February 1, Ealoh at Ealoh; February 2 (doubleheader), Imbler at Imbler; February 8, Baker at Baker; February 9, Muddy Creek at Muddy Creek; February 15, Baker at Union; February 16, Enterprise at Union; February 22, Haines (doubleheader) at Union; February 23, Imbler (doubleheader) at Union. Union defeated Muddy Creek last month.

La Grande's schedule: January 25, Joseph at Enterprise; February 1, La Grande at La Grande; February 2, Annual at Enterprise; February 8, Wallowa at Enterprise; February 9, Annual at Enterprise; February 15, Imbler at Imbler; February 16, Union at Union; February 22, Joseph at Joseph; February 23, Wallowa at Wallowa.
Added to the rest, La Grande high's schedule looks to be the toughest one of the bunch. La Grande plays Union, Ealoh, Wallowa, Enterprise, Joseph, Baker and Pendleton.

SELECTION OF A COACH MAY COME AT ANY TIME NOW

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Selection of a football coach for the University of Oregon to succeed "Rhy" Huntington, who resigned recently, may be made at any time now, according to an announcement by Virgil Earl, athletic director at the university.
Twelve men are being considered. Mr. Earl said, and it is highly probable one of these will be chosen.
Applications have been received from the following: R. O. Cartwright, coach at the University of Nevada; M. A. McArthur, former assistant coach at the University of Minnesota; J. H. Richards, head coach at the University of Wisconsin for six years, now a resident of Los Angeles; C. W. Reynolds, coach at Incheon; Norman C. Price, assistant to Alonzo Stagg at the University of Chicago, and Stanley Hoolahan, of North Dakota Agricultural college, a brother of Vincent Hoolahan of Whitman college.

"The melancholy days." What bunk? When pumpkin pie is all set, and lots of cider's drunk.
