Charming Dancing Party

One of the most charming social affairs of the New Year took place last evening, when Misses Miriam Ann and Jane Stange entertained approximately one hundred and ten guests with a delightful dancing party at Honan Hall. The hall was beautifully decorated with pink rose leaves and artificial snow the color scheme being pink and white, the color effect corresponding.

Dancing was the feature of the evening with excellent music furnished by Loney's four piece orchestra. During the evening a favor dance took place, in which each guest received a favor. Another clever feature was the distribution to each one of paper serpentine confetti, which was thrown among the dancers shortly before the close of the event.

During the evening a delicious luncheon was served by the St. Peters Guild ladies in the basement of the building, everyone enjoying a good time and plenty to eat.

The patronesses were Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mrs. T. J. Scroggin, Mrs. H. M. Bay, Mrs. F. B. Hayes, Mrs. G. L. Larison and Mrs. A. J. Stange.

Library Chats

Why not make as a New Year's resolution that you will read something different? That you will read at least two worth while books every month. For most persons, Sunday is the one day of comparative leisure when they have more command of their time than on other days.

Why not make this day a chance for a little reading off the beaten path? Wouldn't it be the best New Year's resolution you ever made to resolve to give a few minutes every Sunday, or oftener if you can find the time, to learning something new about the world you live in—to read some book on economics, history, or art, or music, or a good poem or essay.

Would you be interested in the following at the Public Library:

Ellis—"Dance of Life."

Fosdick—"Christianity and Progress."

Gregory — "Irish Folk History Plays."

Modern paintings described by great writers.

Morley—"The Power of Sympathy."

Gene Stratton Porter, the famous novelist and writer, says "make a compulsory reading list for 1923 one of your New Year resolutions." She picks the following books as the most worth while books to be read during the coming year: How many have you read?

Outline of History, by H. G. Wells.

Maria Chapdelaine, by Louis Hemon.

Certain People of Importance, by Kathleen Norris.

The Life and Letters of Walter Page.

Within These Walls, by Rupert Hughes.

Queen Victoria, by Strachey.

The Bible.

Poems by Masefield, Lindsay and Millay.

With one or two exceptions the library has all of these; the others will be included on the next book order.

The following books will be added to the library, Saturday evening, January 5 at six o'clock:

Bowen—Applied Anatomy and Kinesiology.

Bradford—American Portrails.

Burton — Notable Women of Modern China.

Cullum—Luck of the Kid.

Hungerford—Planning a Trip Abroad.

Learock—Over the Footlights.

Lorand—Old Age Deferred.

Overton—American Nights Entertainment.

Shay—Treasury of Plays for Women.

Williams—Family.

Wilson—The Able McLaughlins.

Wilson—Oh! Doctor!

Hope Given Up For Missing Man

GRANTS PASS, Or. — No trace has yet been found of William Brown, aged resident of the Slate creek section, who wandered away from the Adam Cart home. His relatives have given up hope of finding him alive, but the search was being continued in an endeavor to locate the body.

Road Campaign Starts.

NORTH BEND, Or.—West Dailey, chairman of the board of supervisors of Del Norte county, California, and Colonel B. K. Lawson of Wedderburn were guests of the North Bend chamber of commerce at noon. They came in the interest of the Roosevelt highway between Crescent City, Cal., and North Bend. Some active campaigning is being done by the Curry County Good Roads club, which Mr. Lawson represents.

The North Bend chamber voted membership in the club and appropriated $25 to pay dues. Vernon Gorst was elected to membership in the club for the current year.

Paroled to Father

EUGENE, — Steve Edwards, Springfield youth involved in three burglaries, committed by a band of young housebreakers, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary and paroled to his father by Judge G. F. Skipworth Wednesday. The lad comes of excellent family and fervently promised to reform. C. M. Goodlin of Junction City, who pleaded guilty to passing several bad checks, was given the same sentence and paroled to the Junction City post of the American Legion, of which he is a member. Perhaps you have not tried him, well then you are missing much of the joy of partnership with the Highest. The churches of La Grande will be glad to help you in this year if you will give them a chance. The First Methodist Episcopal church desires to extend its helpfulness to any who will accept the opportunity.

Checks and Plaids

In addition to her winter coat for dress wear every well-dressed woman now feels she must have a top coat. These coats are loose, swagger, practical affairs that go on over a suit or heavy dress or knitted costume. They have convertible collars and long loose sleeves.

Blouses Longer

All the well dressed young women have cornered the supply of buttons to trim their trim new frocks. Buttons all the way down the front or all the way down the back—depending on the suppleness of your arms. These frocks are usually made of wool jersey, serge, tricotine, twill or flannel.

School Dresses

These are little dresses that a skillful needlewoman can make for her young daughter from the half-yards and remnants that accumulate. Wool plaid and plain serge are used for the straightline school frock with short sleeves. Figured silk and plain wool crepe are combined in the high-yoked, long-sleeved dress. The third model with the deep yoke is of two shades of wool jersey and has a touch of hand embroidery.

Lumber Shipped

ASTORIA.—Cargo lumber shipments from the Columbia river in 1923 totaled 959,149,044 feet with a value of nearly $30,000,000. Lower river mills shipped 430,069,574 feet while 529,148,470 feet was sent out from upper river plants.

POLICE DOG IS FINDER OF MAN THOUGHT KILLER

DRESDEN. (AP)—Elga, a famous police dog of Weimar which has become known throughout the German republic for her ability to track criminals, has just furnished evidence in a murder of which Oscar Nicht, of Dittersbach, Bohemia, was suspected.

Nicht, in prison here for theft, has been suspected of two murders in Bohemia, although courts were unwilling to accept the evidence against him as conclusive.

A year and a half ago an innkeeper in a little Bohemian town was killed and the hat of the murderer was found at the scene of the crime. Nicht crossed into Bavaria after the crime. The Czechoslovakian police officials believed him guilty and have been working constantly on the case.

A few days ago Nicht was led into the courtyard of the Dresden prison with 20 other criminals and a number of detectives in plain clothes. Elga had been allowed to smell the hat found at the scene of the murder in Czechoslovakia, and immediately rushed to Nicht and announced with a loud howl that he was the owner of the hat.

Mr. Pierce Is To Talk.

OREGON CITY, Or.—Governor Walter M. Pierce will speak to the poultry breeders at the three-day session of the Clackamas and Marion county show, to be held at the armory hall, Timberd. The governor's talk will deal with boy's and girl's club work, and he will outline some definite plans by which the work of the state may be carried out. He will also present the governor's silver cup to the winner of the contest.

Help Kidneys By Drinking More Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Help Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Begin drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which may quickly relieve your bladder irritation. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.
