Gladys Walton Plays Part of Reporter in "The Wild Party"

The English libel law of "the greater the truth, the greater the libel" would put a tremendous cramp in the style of the average American newspaper reporter, especially Gladys Walton, in the latest Universal attraction, "The Wild Party," coming to the Arcade theatre, Tuesday only.

When an American reporter writes a story about a minister running away with the wife of the corner grocer, all his paper has to consider is the correct statement of the facts in the case. "If it's true it isn't libelous. But it must be accurate!"

"The Wild Party" was written especially for Miss Walton by Marion Orth of the Universal scenario department and the continuity, or working script, was written by Hugh Hoffman.

A 1926 reel comedy will also be shown.

Jackie Coogan Coming To Sherrys in "Long Live the King."

The long heralded Metro production, "Long Live the King," starring Jackie Coogan, will come to the Sherry theatre. Particular interest is attached to this latest film of the young star as it is his first production under the $1,000,000 contract which was given him recently in addition to a half million dollar bonus by Metro Pictures Corporation.

"Long Live the King" was only recently completed at Hollywood and its engagement at the Sherry theatre is among the early dates allotted to a few houses throughout the country. From various sources the information was current that a huge sum of money was being spent in the making of this film and recent reports definitely fix the sum as $250,000. Of this huge amount nearly two-thirds was spent on the construction of the magnificent sets which furnish the atmosphere of "Long Live the King" and which surround Jackie with regal splendor.

Income Tax Tips

No. 7.

In the income-tax returns of married couples must be included the income from their earnings of dependent minor children. The parents are allowed, however, a credit of $400 for each such child under eighteen years of age.

For example, John Smith, an artisan, had a net income for 1923 of $2,000, his wife earned $1,596 as a clerk, and two sons, 15 and 17 years of age earned $600 each as messengers. From the total family income of $4,796 the parents are allowed to deduct a personal exemption of $2,500 plus a $400 credit for each son, leaving a taxable net income of $1,496. If husband and wife file separate returns, the one furnishing the chief support may claim the credit for dependents.

Frequently a minor is "emancipated," or released from parental power. In such event a return is required of a minor (or his guardian) if the minor's net income was $1,000 or more, or $2,500 or more, according to his marital status, or if his gross income was $5,000 or more.

Emancipation does not necessarily involve a breaking of family ties, nor need it be evidenced by a formal act. It may be expressed or implied, general or limited, in writing or oral. When a son supports himself and pays his board at home, there is an implied emancipation; also if a child is in business for himself and the parents exercise no control over his earnings. In the absence of proof to the contrary it is assumed that a parent has a legal right to the earnings of a minor child.

Reorganization Planned.

ROSEBURG—A mass meeting of prune growers will be held in Roseburg at the city hall, to discuss the plan of reorganizing the Oregon Growers' Cooperative association into a state prune exchange. There has been much demand for a selling organization to handle prunes alone, and the board or directors of the Oregon growers have been working on a plan which will be presented to the growers for their approval. Kenneth C. Miller, president of the board, will outline the new plan, and M. J. Newhouse of the Oregon growers will discuss the prune situation.

Body Found On Beach

MARSHFIELD, Or. — A body found a short distance south of Karvis landing, on the north shore of Coos bay, may be identified as one of the victims of the C. A. Smith wreck. Nels Peterson, patrolman, who has been scouring the beaches since the wreck, found the body. Peterson found the first two bodies, all that have been recovered from the wreck and identified.

IRELAND PLANS LIQUIDATING ALL SINN FEIN BONDS

DUBLIN, (AP) — Arrangements are now complete for liquidating the republican bonds that were floated to support the Sinn Fein movement resulting in the treaty, and the establishment of the Free State. The minister of finance is authorized to borrow any sum up to $6,250,000 for the purpose, and may create and issue interest bearing securities subject to such conditions as to repayment and redemption as he thinks fit.

The minister may at any time issue to every subscriber to the external loans, mostly in the United States, a stock certificate for the sum subscribed by him, but the issue of these certificates may be postponed till the minister is satisfied that all moneys subscribed and not duly accounted for have been paid over to the exchequer, and the minister may at any time redeem the stock certificates by paying their nominal amount with five per cent interest or purchase the certificate at such price as the minister thinks proper.

Legal Tangle Forced.

ASTORIA, Or.—A peculiar situation exists in connection with the circuit court case against Amone and Sam Skoja.

On an appeal from the municipal court, the defendants were found guilty by a circuit court jury of operating a hotel with having secured a license from the city as is required by ordinance. The men have not yet been sentenced but since their conviction Circuit Judge Campbell has held in another case that the ordinance they were accused of violating is void, as the city under its charter has no authority to impose a license on a hotel.

In other words, the defendants stand convicted of violating an ordinance which, according to Judge Campbell's ruling, has no legal existence.
