LOUISIANA AT POLLS TODAY

NEW ORLEANS, (AP)—Louisiana Democrats go to the polls tomorrow to select candidates of all state and parish offices and the legislature. Interest in the campaign has centered about the race for the gubernatorial nomination and other contests virtually have been ignored by the voters. The candidates for governor are Hewitt Bonbrichard, of Baton Rouge, now Lieutenant-Governor, Henry L. Poyas, of Baton Rouge, for many years administrator of the state prison and Huey P. Long, of Shreveport, chairman of the state public service commission. The Ku Klux Klan has figured prominently in the campaign, and almost without exception candidates throughout the state have been forced to declare themselves for or against the organization.

Safe Fat Reduction

Reduce, reduce, reduce, in the opinion of all fat people. Get thin, to slim, is the cry of fashion and society. And the overall weight they gain in mortification and helplessness, resulting in nauseating drugs, afraid of violent results, drugging the unwelcome and unsatisfying diet, until they lie upon the hospital Marmola Prescription and learn through it that they may safely reduce steadily and easily without any change in their mode of life, but happiness, security, and quickly reaching their ideal of figure, with smoother skin, better appetite and health than they have ever known. And now comes Marmola Prescription Tablets. Food and fat, the family sustenance forming the Marmola Prescription, is believed you to have the satisfactory, beneficial effects of this great, safe, fat reducer by living to your druggist one dollar for a box, or sending a like amount to the Marmola Company, 421 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich., with a request that they mail to you a box of Marmola Prescription Tablets.—Adv.

FRANKLIN HARSH CRITIC OF WOMEN

By George T. Hook,
(L.N.S. Staff Correspondent)
PHILADELPHIA.—"When I reflect on the interest women take in each other's clothes I cannot conceive you to be human creatures, but a sort of species, hardly a degree above a monkey, who has more diverting tricks than any of you and is an animal less mischievous and expensive."

You won't believe it, but those words are attributed to none other than one Mr. Benjamin Franklin, philosopher, et al, and are a portion of his address to a young woman about to be married, the address forming a chapter in his book, "Reflections on Courtship and Marriage." The book was recently purchased at auction for $275 by Dr. Ann Don Dickinson, librarian at the University of Pennsylvania, in charge of the Franklin collection. The "Reflections" comprise a volume of less than 100 pages and were written in 1746, Franklin then being young and unfamiliar with society, according to Dr. Dickinson. The known copies number not more than three.

Continuing on courtship, Franklin writes: "That hedge-podge of nonsense which may call 'love-making' such as using frothy and intemperate sallies of fancy, as found in novels and romances, must be avoided. Instead, endeavor to inspire the young women with sentiments of esteem and steadfast friendship."

In his dissertation on marriage Franklin makes comments which perhaps are applicable even in these modern times. His list of reasons for unhappiness in marital enterprises includes: disorderly rooms, breaking of china; dinner not prepared on time and unimmaculate dress. Hardened husbands, of course, might exclude the last. "It is not proper, even for married people, to make love in public," Franklin also writes. "Leave this cooing of doves for ill-bred fools."

SHORT ORDER STILL IS NABBED BY 'DRY' FORCE

BARNESVILLE, O. (L.N.S.)—A "moonshine while you wait" plant was confiscated by dry rangers here recently. The plant consisted of a coffee pot, coil and gas burner, which in half an hour would produce a pint of booze. It is claimed.

When the stranger in a metropolitan searches vainly for a drink, it is little consolation to read that prohibition can't be enforced.
