

MAGNATES TO BAN HOLDOUTS

Regardless of Magnitude, Baseball Stars Will Lose Out If They Delay the Game.

By SAM CHAMBERLAIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK.—These baseball players who have been habitually backward in signing contracts with major league clubs, and others who may be regarded in that respect this year, will be given short shifts. They will be compelled to affix their signatures on the dotted line, in time to accompany their teams on the coming Spring training trips or incur the gross danger of being suspended for the entire season.

ers to report at training camp last Spring was such a serious detriment to many clubs that drastic means will be taken to avert the evil this year and probably forever. Several clubs too, all chance to figure with any degree of prominence in last season's pennant races by the failure of star players to report with their fellow to the Spring.

That there will be more players than ever holdouts this Spring is very likely. They should take warning and act accordingly. Unless they toe the scratch they will surely be placed in jeopardy, no matter how big their reputations may be.

Even players as popular as Babe Ruth, if that were possible, would not be allowed to linger beyond the time set as the limit. But Babe has a contract that assures him being a Yankee for two years more. He is, therefore, immune. Ruth was never a difficult man to induce to sign, according to Colonel Huston, who secured Babe's signature to his present contract that calls for $52,000 as his annual stipend. The colonel sent for Ruth to call at his office to "talk business."

"Well, Babe, what do you think you are worth?" asked the colonel. "What do you consider I am worth?" asked Babe. "One thousand dollars a week to the Yankees, year in, year out; and no more," replied the colonel. "That suits me, if it does you."

colored," replied Babe. "But hold on, Babe," said the Yankee owner; "you must keep yourself physically fit and cut out all excesses or be subject to a fine of $10,000. Here is the contract I have made out. Look it over carefully. I would suggest that you have your lawyer see it and advise you."

ROCKS BABIES; TRYS SUICIDE

ATLANTA, Ga. (I.N.S.)—Rocking her two little babies to sleep and safely tucking them away for the night with a kiss, Mrs. J. L. Hamilton, a 28-year-old mother of this city, one night recently attempted suicide by drinking a quantity of iodine.

When she took the poison in a room adjoining the one where her two little girls were sleeping she fell to the floor with a scream. Neighbors arrived, and she was rushed to a local hospital, where physicians fought a winning battle with the poison, and Mrs. Hamilton soon was joyously reunited with her two babies.

"I was so lonely and blue and despondent," she said. "My husband is out of town so much, and I just felt I couldn't stand it, but when I thought I was going to die—that it was too late—and that I would never see my two babies again I regretted what I had done, and I prayed to get well. I am, so glad, and never again will I do a thing like that!" she cried as she caressed her two laughing babies.

Chinese Clerks Can't Keep Warm. PEKING. (AP)—The "financial wretchedness of the ministry of education has reached the limit," according to a local newspaper, which avers that the ministry cannot even keep its employeas warm. It has stoves, but no money to repair them or buy fuel. The employeas are driven into smallest rooms of the building, where they not even keep its employeas warm. Even the consolation of hot tea is denied them, for the ministry servants no longer have money to buy this luxury.

Cable Ship Becomes Coal Boat. LONDON. (AP)—The cable steamer Parady, which since her launching in 1874 has been laying and repairing cables in all parts of the world, is to end her days at Algiers as a coal hulk. Her successor, also named Parady, launched this year is now carrying on the work of cable laying.

Jury Session Postponed. MEMPHIS, Or.—The session of the grand jury of Jackson county scheduled to begin Monday, has been postponed, owing to the fact that E. W. Johnson, a juror, is witness in a land fraud case on trial in federal court at Portland this week, and Circuit Judge Thomas is unable to fill the vacancy as he is holding court in Grants Pass this week. The petit jury session, recessed just before the holidays, will resume at the close of term of the Josephine county court.

"The Country Kid," starring Wesley Barry, opened for a two day run at Sherrys yesterday, and it does not take a great effort to see that this picture is a sterling entertainment.

What with three boys like Wesley Barry, "Spec" O'Donnell and "Baby" Bruce Guerin, we don't see how any picture could be anything else but a hit and "The Country Kid" is no exception.

There are many touching scenes that bring out new sentiments of industry and adventure in Alaska. "The Spoilers" made ten years ago by William Selig. It is safe to say that everyone who saw that picture will want to see Jesse D. Hampton's new screen version of it made at the Goldwyn studios under the direction of Lambert Hillier, and that everyone who did not see the first picturization will make certain of seeing the new one. It will be seen at the Star Theatre for three days beginning tomorrow.

COUNTRY CLUB DIRECTORS TO MEET MONDAY

The third annual meeting of the members of the La Grande Country Club will be held in the dining room of the club on Monday.

The modern home-keeper's time is too valuable to waste in doing unnecessary work. If you are depriving yourself of the benefits of such labor-saving devices as a Washing Machine, Electric Iron, or an Electric Motor for your Sewing Machine, you are evidently uninformed about the efficient and inexpensive time-saving servant.

Intense and Gripping Play Opens Run At Arcade.

Applied psychology hardly sounds dramatic—but it all depends on what the word "applied" means. As a case in point—there's "A Chapter in Her Life," the big Universal production now playing at the Arcade Theatre, and one of the outstanding features in picture drama today.

Clara Louise Burnham's celebrated novel, "Jewel," is the basis of the play, and from it Lala Weber has secured and directed a masterpiece. One critic said it was not a play at all—that it was "a slice of life transferred to the screen."

"A Chapter in Her Life" is a lesson in happiness. It tells the story of a simple child, placed in a home torn by family discord. How she not only overcomes an environment of hate, but through her own steadfast faith in idealism, succeeds in turning the hate to love, is told simply and humanly. Whimsical humor lights it—there are more laughs than tears.

Japanese Match Trade Suffers. OKAWA, Japan. (AP)—Japan's match export trade has been hard hit by the development of that industry in China, and the heavy import duty placed on matches by the Indian government. Many factories here and in Kobe have been forced to close down as a result.
