

WOMEN'S INTEREST

NEWS of SOCIETY

The Associated Girl Students of the La Grande high school enjoyed a pleasant time last evening, when they met in the gymnasium of the high school. Every girl came in costume, half of them representing girls and the other half boys, and a very entertaining program was given, two classes, the Seniors and the Sophomores, giving interesting stunts.

Following the program games were played and delicious refreshments served. The party lasted from eight until ten o'clock and everyone reported a good time.

The "Our Eight" club met at the home of Miss Eleanor Glass last Wednesday evening and were delightfully entertained at two tables of "500." At the close of the game dainty refreshments were served and those present reported a very enjoyable time.

Those present were Dorothy Fink, Margaret Baker, Mildred Pike and the hostess, Miss Glass. Thomas Russell, Thomas Bruce, Sam Cochran and Jack Hiatt.

The Crystal Rebekah Lodge will have a social meeting after the close of the business session next Tuesday evening. A short program will be given followed by refreshments. A large attendance of Rebekahs is expected.

Miss Betty Cochran is spending the week-end in The Dalles, where she is attending the Convocation of the Episcopal church. Miss Cochran left last Wednesday with Reverend and Mrs. Crosby, by auto and will return Monday.

The Monthly Country club party will be held Monday evening, January 28. Dancing will be the main feature of the evening with music furnished by Long's orchestra. A good time is anticipated.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. H. G. Avery, 2908 Oak street, Monday evening, January 21.

Mrs. J. T. Richardson is visiting her sister in Sacramento, California. Mrs. Richardson expects to remain in the south for several weeks.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. George W. Maaten Thursday. Much interest was taken in the plans laid for future work. One of the principal things which the local union wishes to accomplish is to raise their quota of funds for the children's Farm Home, located near Corvallis, Oregon. The purpose of this home is to care for Protestant orphan children of the state.

At the close of the meeting a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

The Rev. and Mrs. William Crosby have returned from a few days in Portland, where they were attending to the business of the Synod of Oregon.

Mrs. Ethel Grandy and children are visiting in Portland. They will remain there indefinitely.

Fashion Notes

Straw and Fur.
Paris.—The combination of straw and fur has immediately proved a popular one. Some smart afternoon frocks of black satin today are trimmed with straw roses and flowers, set in big turcocades.

Chic Walking Shoe.
Paris.—Among the new walking shoes is a chic model with patent leather toe and heel, a vamp of light suede and two smoked pearl buttons for fastenings. Straps are conspicuously absent.

Black Moire Hat Compulsory.
London.—A black moire hat is nearly compulsory now. The prototype is a soft, rolled brim affair, rather larger than the usual run of hats today. It is trimmed at one side with a large bow of brown ribbon.

Blouse Effect in Negligees.
London.—Negligees just now are being made with a long over blouse effect, reaching nearly to the knees. This is quite straight and plain, but usually made of broad-ecade. The skirt is gathered and often is of chiffon above an under-skirt of satin.

Skull Cap at Opera.
New York.—A skull cap of silver cloth was worn by one blonde at the opera recently. The cap had a wide border of emeralds from beneath which a few blonde locks were allowed to stray.

Flannel Suit.
New York.—The flannel suit, which is going to be much worn in the spring, is already here for wear beneath a top coat. You'd never guess how high-class flannel could be till you've seen the new, soft flannels in pastel tints.

Ireland to Adopt Radio.
DUBLIN, (AP)—Ireland is set without established radio broadcasting, and all listening is done against the prohibition of the government. But this condition soon will be changed, for the postmaster-general has decided upon a method of broadcasting control and a group of Irish firms have agreed to work the scheme together.

There is to be a main station at Dublin. Radio sets will be imported, and manufactured locally. The use of an amateur will cost $2,000; hotels and restaurants will pay $25.00. News, music and advertising will be distributed.

Cinema Pictures in Brazil Prove Distinct Aid to Pan-Americanism.

RIO DE JANEIRO, (AP)—American motion pictures reign supreme in Brazil. In spite of repeated efforts of the local theater owners to substitute European productions, which can be obtained at about one-half the cost, the public absolutely refuses to give up its American favorites who leaped into popularity here during the world war.

Statistics obtained from the official censorship show a steady increase in both the number and percentage of American films screened in the Brazilian theaters. In 1921 the total number of films imported was 1,295, of which 923 came from the United States. In 1922 the total was 1,341, of which the American share was 1,058. In the first six months of 1923 the total was 717, of which 588 came from the United States.

One of the most experienced motion picture men in Brazil told the Associated Press that American films have done more to create practical Pan-Americanism than all other factors combined. He said that the Brazilians now know more about the United States than they do about any other country or people, perhaps including their own, all due to the unconscious propaganda effect of the American films.

Motion picture men declare that one of the most attractive features of the American films in the eyes of the public is the fact that they tell a moral. The statistics show that in 1922 only 4 per cent of American films were altered by the censors, while 30 to 60 per cent of the films from some European sources were cut by the censors.

Prohibition Force Cut.
MEDFORD, Or.—The prohibition force for Jackson county, whose expenses have been running from $350 to $1500 a month, has been reduced by the county court to three men. They are S. B. Sanderfer, chief staff; Victor L. Chapman, and one man whose identity is not divulged.

CHURCH NEWS

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—One of the beautiful pictures in the life of the Saviour, is exemplified in one of our new church windows in "Christ Blessing the Little Children." In keeping with that memory the sacred rite of baptism will be administered this coming Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock worship hour. Parents desiring to have this rite performed will kindly notify the minister. Our new church was opened last Sunday with a splendid congregation, who admired the building in all its simplicity and beauty. We will look for another large number tomorrow at which time the quartet, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Mrs. W. H. Holmenkamp, Jr., Lawrence Dutton and Prof. E. D. Fowler will sing their special music, and the minister will bring the message. Sunday School meets at 9:45 with classes and teachers for all, with ample class room for each group. The Christian Endeavor study class meets at 6 to be followed by a missionary meeting of the society. Let us live the Lord's Day in fitting testimony to the reality of His resurrection and its promise of eternity.—Wm. Crosby Ross, Minister.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—The service at the morning hour will be of the intent to show the ideal of church organization as set forth in the New Testament and the revelation at the Straight Gate. Mr. Ray Williams will sing at one service. Mrs. F. S. Jester, director of music, reports a good choir practice Wednesday evening and expects a full attendance of the singers Sunday. Rev. Mark Noble gave us another good sermon Sunday morning and will assist in every service when present as long as his visit lasts. He has been a great blessing to all.—A. R. Sifton, Pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.—Sunday School at 10 a. m. Mrs. C. E. Happersett, superintendent. Lesson subject: "Moses and the Deliverance from Egyptian Bondage." The pastor will preach both morning and evening. The subject at the morning service will be "What can we do to help the world in which we now live?" The evening service will be devoted to "A Christianity that Produces Visible Results." We can and must be a blessing as we strive to enter in Schools to Exhibit at Fair.

JOHN DAY, Or.—Several schools are assembling unique displays of educational products in advance of the Grant County fair. Competition between the schools for place in the educational display is marked. Few changes perhaps will be made in the educational staff of the county. The entire staff of teachers in this section will be retained.

Damage Judgement Won.
PENDLETON, Or.—A judgement for damages of $6000 recently awarded Florence Lefloy against Mary Harmon in superior court at Walla Walla was concurred in by a jury that heard a record of the case here. The judgement was at the Straight Gate. Mr. Ray Williams will sing at one service. Mrs. F. S. Jester, director of music, reports a good choir practice Wednesday evening and expects a full attendance of the singers Sunday. Rev. Mark Noble gave us another good sermon Sunday morning and will assist in every service when present as long as his visit lasts. He has been a great blessing to all.—A. R. Sifton, Pastor.

Metal Lace

Webster in his dictionary says a negligee is an "easy, unceremonious attire." We don't think Webster has done it justice. This negligee is the most utterly comfortable and handiest thing one could put on. It is of figured metal cloth and has the bounce of metal lace. One must wear mules to match, of course.

lation of church officers to it. The newly elected officers of the congregation will sit in a body during the service. The "Burning Bush" will be the title of the sermon for the evening hour. Bible school under the direction of the new superintendent, H. G. Vorus, at 9:45. The superintendent says the school will "Run on Schedule." C. E. Societies meet at 6:30. Be ready to come next Thursday. Supper at 6:30, devotional at 7:15, Bible study and Teacher Training classes at 7:45.—O. W. Jones, Minister.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Mysticism and the Spiritual Life will be the subject discussed in the pastors sermon at 11:00 a. m. tomorrow. The choir will discourse beautiful and appropriate music.

The church school meeting at 10:00 o'clock holds interest in every department. Mrs. Waltonburg has the school in fine form. The Men's Forum will discuss outstanding points in the Pentecostal sermon by Peter, Acts II, chapter. A growing interest characterizes these men's Sunday morning sermon meetings. Mrs. Dr. Morrison will lecture to the young women's class taught by Mrs. Dr. Landis on "Life's Partnerships." The address by Mrs. Brown-Lewis on last Sunday morning to this group brought out a large attendance.

At five o'clock Vesper services there are to be pictures in the "Romance of Saul of Tarsus." There is a growing interest in these illustrated sermons at the Vesper hour. A treat of very unusual proportions await all who are present on this Sunday afternoon. Miss Ethel Moore of Portland, the state executive of the Camp Fire organization, who has been conducting a convention in the city since Friday will put on "A Sunday Council Fire" demonstration service during the Vesper. She will use about thirty of the members of the local camp. This will be a very beautiful and impressive service and will be the peak of the convention interest. The Pastor and Mrs. Keith witnessed one of these fine demonstrations given in a Portland park a year ago, on a Sunday afternoon, when more than 100 participated. The Vesper will open promptly at five o'clock. The general public are cordially invited to be present. We expect every sitting occupied when the organ announces the opening moment. Special music by the choir.

On the Side

Trimming this season are noted for their irregularity. Here are two ways in which side trimmings are featured. One is a flounce and the other is a drape—both are on the side. The bodice is slanted slightly toward one hip, another new feature. The other look with the dress skirt has the same waist that is slightly flared. A fold of the material may form the belt or else a flippant-studded chain may be used.
