The many friends of Miss Mildred Lovett of La Grande, who has entered the Oregon Normal School at Monmouth, Oregon, will be pleased to hear of her advancement as a musical student of that place. Her past experience as a music teacher has excused her from taking the fundamentals of music and her great ability has enabled her to teach music methods in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades in the training school.

Miss Lovett is a graduate of the Sacred Heart Academy of this city, having gone as far in music as possible at that place, and also attended the local high school. She has been giving piano lessons in La Grande and vicinity for the past year, until she entered the Normal School the first of January.

GRIMM ALFALFA HELD BEST FOR EASTERN OREGON

More than 43,000 pounds of Grimm alfalfa seed was planted in Baker, Crook, Deschutes, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Union, Umatilla, and Wasco counties last year, reports county agricultural agents. This variety has been found by the college experiment stations to outyield common alfalfa virtually without exception and is advocated as the standard in eastern Oregon alfalfa districts.

The first experiment station field of Grimm was sowed on the Union station many years ago. It is even now productive, but common alfalfa sowed at the same time has long since been frozen out. On the Burns station, Grimm has demonstrated its superiority over other varieties in yield and ability to withstand cold weather.

Of the 32,000 acres of alfalfa in Baker county, only the crops of 19 farmers were known to be Grimm prior to 1923. In that year 10 growers bought 6351 pounds of Grimm seed from local dealers. In Klamath county 19,000 pounds of Grimm was purchased last year to 1800 pounds of common. Crook county farmers used 9221 pounds of Grimm last year as against 719 pounds of common.

On the farm of Fred Zauner, Union county, a seven year old field of Grimm is still in a thrifty, healthy condition and of the same age is weedy and thin. In Wasco county Grimm outside common about a half-ton to the acre on the average.

In Josephine and Lake counties from 50 to 100 per cent of Peruvian alfalfa killed out by freezing in from one to four years, but Grimm stood firm under the same conditions.

Sources of pure Grimm seed have been located by county agents who advance purchases by samples that have been tested for purity and germination at the experiment station seed laboratory.

Construction work at the new plant at Manchester is well under way. The site, covering four and a half acres, is admirably situated on the south harbor of Copenhagen. The building is being erected so that ocean freighters coming up the North Sea can dock on two sides of it, permitting direct delivery of assembly material from the Manchester plant and from Detroit, via New York. Railroad service also will be direct to the property.

The new building is 400 feet long by 200 feet wide. The outer sides of it, permitting direct delivery of assembly material from the Manchester plant and from Detroit, via New York. Railroad service also will be direct to the property.

The chassis assembly line, which will be on the same continuous production system as that employed in all American plants of the Company, will be on the first floor. A large power plant adjoins the main building. The new plant and property represents an investment of more than $450,000.

This action was decided upon recently at the annual church meeting and $4150 was subscribed toward the project. BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK
Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur
Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy, troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small price.
Don't stay gray! Try it. No one can possibly tell when you darkened your hair, and it does it so naturally and gently. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.
