Oh Boy, for a Good Old-Fashioned Snow!!!

Many sections of the country are as yet untouched by winter, even at this time of year. Snow is almost a stranger, and there have been no heavy falls to speak of. So, lest you forget what they look like, take a glimpse at the winter resort, Murrens, Switzerland. Photographed after a snowfall lasting 12 days and nights. Oh boy?

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION ON WEDNESDAY EVENING

Leonard Towle will open a garage in Cove in the near future. The regular meetings of the Cove Missionary society have resumed, meeting with Mrs. A. A. Antles on Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Kohman, who has been ill for some time left Wednesday for Stock Springs, Wyo., for medical attention. An Epworth league party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McDaniel Thursday evening of last week.

BAKER PLAYS HERE TONIGHT

Haines, and in the entire season played to date has lost but one game, that with Pendleton at Pendleton last week. And that game merely went to prove the strength of the Queen City quintette inasmuch as Pendleton won only by a one-point margin. Coach "Dad" King is expecting his team to put up a fine record in the district championship and with plenty of veteran material, has formulated a formidable team. Just how formidable they actually are will be demonstrated tonight when the Blue and White cagers line up against them.

Garly's removal from the team does not necessarily weaken the body to a marked extent, Metcalf guard, will probably take his place and Metcalf, although not the finished product that his predecessor was, has shown ability that should prove no drawback to the performance of his team mates. Metcalf played in the Wallowa, Joseph and Enterprise games and in a total of about 50 minutes actual playing, both at forward and guard positions, scored 12 points, 10 coming from free field baskets. He has had enough experience to work in with the team work of his mates, Hummel, Cooker, Lynch and Captain Price to advantage.

Eamena, of Lostine, who refereed the Enterprise and Joseph games last week, will officiate. Reserved seats are on sale today at Glass Drugs, Inc., not only for the contest tonight but also for the game to be played tomorrow evening here with Wallowa high. The game tonight begins promptly at 7:30 o'clock although the Wallowa game will commence at eight o'clock on the following night.

The La Grande high school students are planning on occupying one side of the gymnasium and are expecting to "raise the roof" with a number of yells that were given a thoroughly going over during the past few weeks.

Coach MacTavish is hopeful of a victory tonight but considering the strength of the visiting team, is expecting one of the sternest struggles of the year.

Correct this sentence: "Yes, it's wonderful," said the woman, "but I'd rather have our own five-room bungalow."

ARGENTINA SEEKS EXPERTS ADVICE ON AGRICULTURE

BUENOS AIRES.—(AP)—The ministry of agriculture has engaged the services of two American cotton experts and one Canadian tobacco expert to supervise the official activities of the Argentine government in fostering and improving cultivation methods of these crops in Argentina. L. E. Tutt, chief of the textile section of the United States department of commerce and N. E. Winters, of Cornell University, will aid Argentina in cotton production during two and three years respectively, while F. Charlan, of the tobacco section of the Dominion of Canada, has been engaged under a five year contract.

Rancher Sees Beauties Of His Home at Last

CHICAGO.—(AP)—Not until the picture of his product stood before him on canvass in all the color of its native surroundings was a veteran cowman and rancher of Wyoming brought to appreciate the beauty of the home and soil which nurtured his industry. For years this rancher had come to Chicago, usually with loads of cattle for market. The Stock Yards he understood, but not the large building on Michigan Avenue guarded by huge bronze lions. He learned it was the Chicago Art Institute and it being a free day with time hanging heavy upon him, he entered. He came upon a painting of a cow and was amazed at the wonderful likeness. It touched ground upon which he was familiar, and he inquired for the galleries housing paintings of ranch and farm themes.

When this rancher went back home he began to perceive interesting things about him that he had never noticed before. There was color in everything. The alfalfa patch of blue-green, the bold yellow of the straw stubble, the tender green of young oats, the shifting light of cloud shadows on the meadows, the tottering coats of his animals, all began to reveal their beauty to him. Most of his idle time in Chicago now is spent in the Institute's atmosphere.

This is one of many stories told by officials of the institution, who have watched the effect of its exhibits. In recent years these instances have grown in number, they say, which leads them to believe there is an awakening in understanding and appreciation in the beautiful things of life and nature.

Women Open World Headquarters LONDON, (AP)—A position has been erected in the grounds of the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley by the International Council of Women. It will be the headquarters of the world of women. Millions of organized women will be represented in the building and from week to week feminine hopes, aspirations and ideas for the solution of the world's most difficult problems will be considered.

Guests at German Parties Using Their Refreshments

LEIPZIG, (AP)—"Bring your own refreshments" parties, popular in Russia during the famine, have become quite the fad among the German middle classes who do not feel able to serve food and drink whenever friends have been invited to their homes for an evening of entertainment. The housewife adopted the practice of requesting guests to bring their own sandwiches when food became so expensive some time ago, and assert that the Russian system has worked splendidly, that everyone has a good time and that if a guest does not get enough to eat, it is his own fault.
