New Mary Pickford Picture Now Showing At Sherrys.

Seldom has there been shown such pronounced interest in any photoplay yet presented at the Sherrys as in "Tommy." This "United Artists" attraction is attracting more discussion and bringing a most diversified patronage.

It is perhaps the combination of a favorite star in an entirely different role which is making this screen event so notable, but it is also the fact that Miss Pickford's portrayal of a young woman has already advanced her triumphant histrionic ability.

Europe's foremost director, Ernest Lubitsch, was brought to this country to direct this magnificent production, while a superb cast of stars enact the supporting roles including such well known names as Holbrook Blinn, Irene Rich, George Walsh, Charles Belden, Frank Leigh, Mino Mathilda, Conrad, George Brown, Bert Spotts, Solta Edwards, Miss De Bodamere, Phillippe de Laey, Donald McAlpin, Dorcas Turpe.

"Silent Command" Coming to Star Friday—Spy Story.

The relentless determination with which a band of international spies seek to gain possession of important plans belonging to the United States Government is one of the engrossing elements in the William Fox spectacular feature "The Silent Command," which will be shown at the Star Theatre starting Friday.

The picture contains many scenes of absorbing interest and is a drama of love, intrigue and the high seas.

Income Tax Tips

No. 12.

In computing net income taxpayers are allowed to deduct from gross income deductions for losses incurred not only in the taxpayer's business but losses sustained in any transaction entered into for profit, or if arising from "fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty." Deductions for losses are allowed only to the extent that they are not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

Claims for losses should conform closely to the wording of the statute. While a taxpayer may feel certain that property owned by him is worth less than the purchase price, he is not allowed a deduction until the loss is made absolute by the sale or other disposition of the property.

Frequent claims are made for deductions for losses in the sale of residence property. A loss sustained in the sale of a residence which at the time of purchase was bought without intention of selling, is not a deductible item because it was not a transaction entered into for profit. For the same reason, a loss sustained in the sale of an automobile purchased for personal use may not be deducted. The intent to make a profit must have existed at the beginning of the venture.

A manufacturer compelled to scrap machinery because it has gradually become obsolete may de-

Merchant Financial Wreck

"I am a financial wreck because of the expense of doctors and medicine for my wife. She has been a chronic sufferer for 18 years. Some pronounced it gall stones, some malaria and some intestinal inflammation. I happened to read an ad of May's Wonderful Remedy and from the first dose my wife has steadily improved. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the actual causes from the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists. Adv.

Branding Scene in "The Cheat" Is One Of Thrills.

One of the most strenuous scenes of her career! This was the opinion of all who witnessed the branding episode in "The Cheat," starring Pola Negri, produced by George Fitzmaurice and which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre Thursday Friday and Saturday. Jack Holt has a featured role and Charles de Roche heads the supporting cast.

The episode shows de Roche in the role of a crook parading as a Hindu prince, branding the beautiful star on the shoulder with a hot iron's brand—branding that she is his property. This is after she has become financially in debt to him and then tries to pay with money. He calls her a "cheat" and brands her. Later this brand saves her husband and her own pearls of mind; after she has shot the Hindu, and the burden of guilt is assumed by the husband, played by Mr. Holt.

Nevada Resident Is Attacked by Bats in a Cave

IMLAY, Nev. (U.S.S.)—Attacked by a colony of bats, his clothing torn to shreds and his body a mass of scratches, Joseph Moransky, station agent, attributes his escape from death to the fact that he pulled his heavy cap down over his face.

Travelling over the country near here a few days ago, Moransky discovered a natural cave and investigated. After following a tunnel-like passageway for a hundred feet, he found that it terminated in a sheer drop of some twenty feet. Curiosity-stricken, he secured a rope, fastened one end around a limb and then tried to pay with money. He calls her a "cheat" and brands her. Later this brand saves her husband and her own pearls of mind; after she has shot the Hindu, and the burden of guilt is assumed by the husband, played by Mr. Holt.

Moransky declares the cave was literally alive with the ferocious little animals. Hundreds hung to his body and clawed and bit him. He doesn't remember how long he was in the cave, but a party of rescuers, who had become alarmed at his long absence, found him staggering from the cave entrance.

OREGON IS FAMOUS FOR ITS BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

Salem, Ore.—"Last year I became in an extremely run-down condition, my appetite failed, and I became very nervous. A friend advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as a tonic and I was very thankful to her for her good advice. One bottle of it made me feel like a new person—strengthened and built me up into a perfect state of health, my appetite returned and all nervousness disappeared. I have no hesitancy in saying that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the very best tonic I have ever taken and I am glad to have my testimonial published if it will be of benefit to others who have become run-down and weak."—Mrs. Eva Ferraer, 444 Water St.

Obtain the Discovery in tablets or liquid from your druggist or send 10c for trial pkg. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.
