

WOMEN'S INTEREST

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Green delightfully entertained the Clio club last evening at the Country club. Bridge was the main feature of the evening and the club prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp and the great prize went to Mrs. G. L. Larison and Walter Lohman. Mr. Larison won the consolation prize.

The rooms were exquisitely decorated in sweet peas and an atmosphere of spring prevailed. At the close of a very charming affair a delicious luncheon was served.

The Lucky Thirteen club were charmingly entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Ash. The time was spent at three tables of bridge, with Mrs. Grace Moller winning the club prize and Mrs. J. P. O'Connell winning the great prize. During the afternoon a delicious luncheon was served.

The paragonage of the Baptist church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Howard A. Anderson and Miss Nellie Mae Cartman were united in marriage with Rev. A. R. Sifton officiating. A number of intimate friends and relatives were present and the impressive ring ceremony was used.

Mr. Anderson is employed by the O. W. R. & Mrs. Anderson was formerly employed in this city. She is a member of the W. W. G.'s of the Baptist church and well and favorably known in La Grande. The young couple left for Portland Wednesday evening, where they will remain for about two weeks, after which they will be at home to their many friends in La Grande.

Mrs. Norman Freese will be hostess to the Clio club tomorrow afternoon.

A delightful affair of this week was a surprise party given at the Sprouts' home, 1905 East Oak street, the inspiration being the birthday of H. W. Sprouts and T. Harris. The evening was pleasantly spent at cards and a general good time at the close of which a delicious luncheon was served.

Another good time is in store for the members of the Crystal Rebekah lodge on next Tuesday evening, when four new members will come in by initiation. Refreshments will be served and a good time is anticipated.

Cove. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Conklin entertained a number of friends with a delightful bridge party last Saturday evening. After a very pleasant time delicious refreshments were served.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hefty, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Orton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. C. Herford, Miss Hess Kelly and P. B. Kelly.

The Girls Friendly Society will hold their next regular meeting Wednesday evening, February 6, at Honan hall. A good time is anticipated and a good attendance desired.

The Wednesday Afternoon club will meet Wednesday afternoon, February 6, with Mrs. A. C. Hampton as hostess.

The Mission band of the Presbyterian church will be entertained by Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Ross Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the new church. All members and friends are urged to be present.

Fashion Notes

Camouflaging Little Hats.
Paris.—The very little hat continues extremely popular. One attempt to camouflage it into a larger appearance involves a big, fluffy ostrich plume fastened on the right side of the crown and hanging half way to the waist.

How to Wear Fur Scarf.
Paris.—The separate fur scarf, which is coming more and more into vogue as spring approaches, is flung around the shoulders like a

Safe Fat Reduction

Reduce, reduce, reduce, is the slogan of all fat people. Get thin, be slim, is the cry of fashion and society. And the over-fat wrings their hands in mortification and helplessness, revelling in nauseating drugs, afraid of violent exercise, dreading the unwelcome and unsatisfying diet, until they hit upon the harmless Marmola Prescription and learn through it that they may safely reduce steadily and easily without one change in their mode of life, but harmlessly, secretly, and quickly reaching their ideal of figure, with a smoother skin, better appetite and health than they have ever known. And now comes Marmola Prescription Tablets from the same famous harmless formula as the Marmola Prescription. It behooves you to learn the satisfactory, beneficial effects of this great, safe, fat reducer by giving your druggist one dollar for a box, or sending a like amount to the Marmola Company, 4612 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich., with a request that they mail to you a box of Marmola Prescription Tablets.—Adv.

Remarkable Costume.

London.—A remarkable three-piece costume shown here today is in black, white and gold. The skirt is black velvet. Over this, extending nearly to the knee, is a peasant blouse of white velvet embroidered in gold. The long black velvet cape is trimmed with white fox.

Pockets Returning.
London.—Pockets are returning today, more as bits of ornamentation than as practical things. Even afternoon frocks are given those flat, large pockets on one hip, with a buttoned flap. Almost always the pocket is finished with a touchy silk tassel.

Colorful Corsets.
New York.—Corsets, like chameleons, are taking on the bright colors around them. The newest corset is a sumptuous wrap around of pale rose silk tulle and is inlaid with strips of silk in wide horizontal stripes of soft pastel colors; orchid, pink, green, yellow and white.

Coat of Arms or Monogram.
New York.—One variation of the monogram decoration in the coat of arms is in making little difference—used, for instance, on the coat of a tailleur.

Still Egyptian is Vogue.
New York.—A fine silk voile meant for Florida and California wear illustrates the renewed vogue today of things Egyptian. Against a sand background it has printed figures in green and black—rather large pyramids, oases, sphinxes and sphinxes.

CASE'S PREVIOUS RECORD IS HELD NOT TOO BRIGHT

CHICAGO (INS)—A statement that he would prove that the Rev. Carl D. Case of Oak Park left two previous church charges "under the same cloud of suspicion that now surrounds him" was the bomb tossed into court late Thursday afternoon by William Moss, attorney for Albert R. Leland. He moved that his divorce hearing be continued for two weeks to allow him to take depositions in Brooklyn and Buffalo, N. Y., to prove his statement. Judge Foell continued the hearing.

ing until February 19 to give Leland the opportunity to get the depositions.

It had been expected that Judge Foell would decide this afternoon whether Leland should be granted a divorce on the charges of immorality made against the minister and Mrs. Charlotte Leland, which the wife substantiated in her testimony.

Under cross-examination. Monday Dr. Case denied that he had ever had trouble in his Hanson Park Baptist church, Brooklyn, or the Delaware Avenue church in Buffalo. Moss stated that he had learned that evidence concerning Dr. Case's difficulties could be obtained from reputable persons.

Chicken Pox Holds Up London Social Wedding

LONDON (INS)—Chicken-pox—that disease which generally is only a mild annoyance for children—has brought grief to London society.

The society folk were all set for a gay wedding party at the marriage of Miss Jessie Carlos Clarke and Lord Arthur Boller, son of the Marquis and Marchioness of Ormonde, when chicken-pox fell to the lot of the bride to be.

Mrs. Carlos Clarke had to get busy at midnight, and she postponed the wedding, much to the disappointment of many who had stayed home from their night clubs in anticipation of a gay wedding party on the following day.

CONTRACTORS TO HOLD CAUCUS IN SPOKANE, WASH.

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Delegates from Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Washington are expected to be in attendance when the fifth annual convention of the Pacific northwest branch of the Associated General Contractors of America opens a two-day session here tomorrow, February 1 and 2.

Various phases of building, road construction and paving work will come up for general discussion. Problems commonly associated with the contractor, architect and engineer will also be stressed.

Frederick J. Crawford, who is a candidate for the next presidency of the national association, has identified his attention of attending the conference. It was stated here, and will be one of the principal speakers. Other speakers scheduled for the program include

Income Tax Tips

No. 15.
Whether or no, connected with his trade or business, a loss sustained by reason of fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty is a deductible item. The term "other casualty" within the meaning of the statute, is one which arises from the physical forces of nature; for example, a flood or frost. If a taxpayer's home or automobile is destroyed by fire, or if his summer bungalow is damaged by a storm, he may claim a deduction for the loss sustained. Allowance, of course, must be made for any insurance received.

In event of a collision between a truck and an automobile used for pleasure or convenience, the owner of the truck may claim a deduction for damages, provided at the time the truck was being used for business purposes. No deduction is allowed the owner of the automobile, because the car was not being used for business; neither is it a "casualty" as defined above. Amounts expended by owners of automobiles used for pleasure or convenience in repairing damages thereto caused by negligent operation do not constitute deductible losses.

Loss of property by theft or burglary is deductible, also a loss from embezzlement. Ordinarily a loss from embezzlement or theft occurring in one year and discovered in another is deductible for the year in which sustained. Losses in illegal transactions are not deductible.

MANY LA GRANDE PEOPLE ATTENDED WOOL CONVENTION

A. R. Hunter, Grover Grinnett, Tom Waininger, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dohbin, and County Agent H. G. Avery, attended the wool growers convention at Pendleton recently and heard Dr. Chas. J. Brand explain the sheep export bill.

This bill received a favorable resolution at the wool growers convention at Salt Lake last week and the wool growers at Pendleton expressed themselves in favor of such legislation.

William Dohbin, of Union, also attended the meeting and commented on the value of the tariff on wool which he said has largely been responsible for the recovery in sheep value. He thinks that sheep legislation would have the same effect.

Offender Fined $1000
MARSHFIELD, O.—J. C. Bryant, arrested a third time for liquor offenses, was fined $1000 and sentenced to 30 days in jail by Judge Joubert of this city. The man was found in possession of liquor and a still at Coonston. Sheriff Ellington and his deputies brought the prisoner to Marshfield. Residents of Coonston and the offense was uncovered by a federal agent.
