Everyone came to represent hard times and after a very enjoyable evening at various games and other entertainment, luncheon was served, which also was a representation of hard times. Before adjournment each one present expressed that the event was an absolute success.

ake Pie Crust.

naterials cold and keep ntil the pie is in the ortning into the flour or a biscuit cutter. Use nough water to make a dough that can be rolled. A rather dry crumbly dough makes a tenderer crust than one that is too wet. Do not handle it any more than is necessary.

Roll the dough out lightly on a floured board. Avoid pressing down on the rolling pin. Be careful not to let the dough stick to the board.

The oven should be very hot. After the first ten minutes or so, if the filling needs to be cooked, the temperature of the oven should be lowered.

A fruit pie that is made with raw fruit, such as apples, needs fairly long slow cooking after the first 10 minutes. For the pie with a filling that is already cooked, the oven should be kept hot. A pie shell, without filling will bake in 10 to 12 minutes in a hot oven.

Quantity for a Two-Crust Pie.

1½ cup bread flour or
1¼ cup pastry flour
½ cup shortening, cold
½ tsp. salt, about
1-3 cup cold water

Sift the flour once before measuring. Mix in the salt. Cut the fat into the flour. Add the cold water slowly, using as little as possible. Divide the dough in half. Roll out on floured board.

If the dough starts to stick, lift it up with a knife and spread a little more flour over the board. Use the rolling pin very lightly. When the crust is the proper size and thickness fold it in half and slip it on the tin. Trim the edges and pierce the crust with a knife or fork. Put in the filling, roll out the top crust and put it in place. Press the edges down so that the two crusts will stick together. Pierce the upper crust so that steam can escape.

Bake in a pretty hot oven (450 degrees F) for 10 to 15 minutes and then lower the temperature to about (350 degree) and bake until the crust is a golden brown and the inside is cooked. This will require different amounts of time, according to the kind of filling.

Fruit Pies.

Sweeten the fruit to taste. If the fruit is very sweet or if it lacks tartness add lemon juice. For apples, add cinnamon and a little nutmeg. If the apples are not very juicy dot them over with bits of butter and squeeze on a little lemon juice. Cranberries, currants, gooseberries ,sour cherries and the like, require plenty of sugar. Prune and raisin pies are greatly improved by the addition of lemon juice, because they are rather rich and sweet without it.

Lemon Filling.

1 1-2 cups sugar
6 tbsp. flour (level)
¼ tsp salt
1 cup hot water
4 egg yolks
1 tbsp. butter
1 lg. lemon (juice, rind)

Mix the sugar, flour and salt together; add half the water. Make a smooth paste and add the rest of the water. Cook 15 minutes in a double boiler; add the beaten yolks. Cook five minutes, remove, add the lemon juice and cool. Pour this filling into the baked pie shell.

The Meringue.

3 egg whites
3 tbsp. powdered sugar.

Beat the egg whites until they are stiff. Fold in the sugar and mix thoroughly. Spread on the top of the pie and bake about 12 minutes in a very slow oven (300 degrees F).

EPISCOPAL CHURCH — Holy Communion, 8: 00 a. m. Sermon, 11:00 a. m. Sunday School, 9:45 a. m. Evening service, 7.30 p. m. The reader of this notice is particularly invited to the services.—Rev. S. W. Creasey, Rector.

ISLAND CITY COMMUNITY CHURCH—Sermon text for next Sunday morning: "And the Word was made Flesh and dwelt among us and we beheld His Glory." In the evening at 7:30 the sermon theme will be "John Baptist—a Character Study." The Epworth League meets at 6:30, Mr. Thompson being the leader. The subject: "Youth and Employment." The increasing attendance and interest in church work for the last few weeks has been very encouraging. The adjective "good" may be a fine word, but how about "better" and "best?" If you can help to bring the church up to its best, it will aid in bringing best things to you.—Hall K. Wallis, pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH — Young people's work in the church will be fittingly portrayed on Sunday evening at 7:30 at which time our Christian Endeavor society will present a pageant that will tell this story. The public is invited to enjoy this presentation and to see the new church with its cove lighting system. Our Sunday School at 9:45 will start promptly with a true educational program. Classes for all and all in a class. The morning worship hour, which is proving so popular, will again have something of value to the community. Our quartette, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp, Jr., Lawrence Dutton an E. D. Towler, will sing the anthem: "The Light of the World," by Gray, with Mrs. W. W. Berry and L. J. Lindsay at the organ and violin. "It is not the leap at the start but the steady going on that gets there," said John Wanamaker with a true appreciation of day by day religion. One month of the New year has passed and we have entered into the routine of 1924. May this spirit of persistence be especially along spiritual lines.—Wm. Crosby Ross, Minister.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH—On last Sunday morning our Bible School had the largest attendance of the winter. We believe it will be larger this Sunday. Our Men's Bible Class" that has been held up for some time on account of lack of room, has made arrangements for a suitable place and will hold its own class meet this Sunday. Every man has an invitation to attend. We believe it is going to be a real Men's Bible Class. Morning worship at 11:00. Sermon :"God's Way." Chorus: "Hallelujah, Praise Jehovah." Sunday evening marks the beginning of our Home Force Revival meetings. There will be a great chorus of the young people of the Senior and Intermediate C. E. societies, a special duet number, "I Am Happy in Him," by Mr. Jones and Caldwell, and the sermon by the pastor, "Getting Started Right." This "Home Force" idea is taking hold even greater than we expected and prospects are fine for the meeting. To the last member, we hope to make it a real Home Force task.

ZION ENGLISH LUTHERAN CHURCH—M Ave., opposite high school. Rev. Wm. F. Holl, pastor, 902 M Ave. Sunday School 10:00 a. m. Services 11:00 a. m. Sermon theme: "The Lord of Nature." Church council meeting, Monday evening at the parsonage.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH — Sunday School at 10 a. m. Mrs. C. E. Happersett, supt. Every member of the school should try to get at least one new pupil at once. This alone will double the enrollment. Rev. Mark Noble of Portland will preach again at the morning hour. He is in his eighty-ninth year. It is unusual to hear a man preach at that age. "Brother Noble was for many years pastor of various churches in both Oregon and Washington. He is a product of Spurgeon's school and a remarkable sweet-spirited servant of the Master." So says Dr. L. W. Riley, president of Linfield college, in last week's Baptist, our National paper. He returns to Portland next Wednesday. Don't miss hearing him Sunday morning. The pastor will speak Sunday evening at 7:30. Miss Fox will sing a solo. The church choir will furnish music for both services. Mrs. F. S. Jester, director of music; Mrs. C. E. Happersett, pianist.—A. R. Sitton, pastor.
