

WOMEN'S INTEREST

NEWS of SOCIETY

The Clio club was delightfully entertained last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Norman Fries. The time was spent at a table of bridge with the club prize going to Mrs. H. A. Zurbick and the guest prize going to Mrs. Chas. H. Reynolds. Mrs. Lawrence Dutton won the consolation prize.

The room was exquisitely decorated in beautiful pink carnations and before adjournment a delicious luncheon was served by the charming hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stange and daughter, Miss Ann and Jane of La Grande, left last evening en route for Merrill, Wisconsin, where they will celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stange. They will return by way of California in approximately four weeks.

The opening evening service in the new Presbyterian church last Sunday evening was in the nature of a pageant depicting the place of the young people in the church life. It was the marking of the forty-third anniversary of the establishment of Christian Endeavor in the church world and pictured the challenge which comes to young people from church for a life of service. The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church also held in this connection a birthday party last Friday evening in the social quarters of the church, with a regular birthday cake in honor of the anniversary.

The Westminster Guild had an unusually interesting meeting last evening, when they met at the home of Mrs. I. C. Boyer, with Mrs. H. G. Avery as leader and Mrs. L. B. Moe in charge of the devotional. The Guild is studying Patina's "Life of Christ," and making it very interesting for those who wish to attend.

FACE POWDER IS HARD HIT

Before adjournment delicious refreshments were served by the charming hostess and a delightful social hour spent.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson will entertain the Alpha club Wednesday evening, at their home on Cedar street.

Adj. and Mrs. Peterson and small daughter, Marjorie Helen are leaving tomorrow morning for San Francisco, where they have been called to attend a conference. They will go by way of Los Angeles stopping there to visit friends and expect to be gone about two weeks. The local officers will be in charge of the services, which will be carried on as usual.

The Wednesday Afternoon club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. A. C. Hampton as hostess.

The Girls' Friendly Society will meet tomorrow evening at Honor hall at 7:30 o'clock, for their regular meeting. A good attendance is desired.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the church. All members are requested to come and any new ones are cordially invited.

The Riverside Ladies Aid Society will meet at the Chapel Wednesday afternoon, February 6, at 2:30 o'clock.

The two divisions of the Methodist Ladies Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon, February 6, at 2:30 o'clock. The first division meets with Mrs. Augusta Bingham at 1212 Adams avenue, over Silverthorne-Wright's Family Drug store and the second division meets with Mrs. Dorothy Smith, 805 Pennsylvania avenue.

ever, in order more clearly to reflect income, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may permit the deduction of a loss in a year other than that which actually sustained. The taxpayer, in his return or an amended return, may deduct a loss only for the year in which sustained. If he desires to account for his loss as of another period, he must attach to his return for that year a request for consideration of the case by the commissioner, together with a complete statement of the facts. Allowance of deduction for a loss other than in the year in which sustained is entirely within the discretion of the commissioner and is allowed only in exceptional cases.

Lawn Converted Into Ballroom
Used by Royalty for Dance

STANHOPE, Eng. (AP)—A king, a queen, four princes, two princesses and a royal duchess danced with 400 other guests on the lawn of Beryck House recently. The ballroom by placing parquet flooring on it and the erecting of canvas wall and roof, decorated in the same way as an old Georgian mansion.

The occasion was the ball given by the West Norfolk Hunt, at the home of the master, Lieutenant Colonel C. D. Seymour, whose mansion had no dancing accommodations for such a number of guests. The guests thoroughly enjoyed the novelty. The king and queen of Norway came over from Sandringham with the Prince of Wales and other members of the royal family.

Fashion Notes

Blues, Greens for Spring.
Paris.—All indications are that the soft blues and greens of spring will be translated into the season's clothes. These tones will be varied by the paler shades of yellow.

Modifies Severe Lines.
Paris.—A hat of tricorne inspiration, rising sharply off the face, shown here today, has some mitigation of this severe line. The mitigation takes the shape of a sheer veil falling from the peak of the hat to the tip of the nose, and floating in cape-like folds down the back.

Thick Fur Girdle.
London.—One style which slender women are sponsoring today is that of a thick fur girdle. This band of fur, very wide, is placed at the hip line on tiny gowns of chiffon.

Mobilizing Jewels.
London.—The pearls and crystals with which many frocks are being trimmed do not, as formerly occupied first place in every society woman's boudoir.

Fanciful Shades in Hosiery.
New York.—Exquisite shades of pale brown, sometimes with a gray tinge but more often with a hint of rose, are seen in the new hosiery. The fanciful names indicate the shades: wood thrush, snowbird, hazel, alreidale and the ruddy blush.

Lapis in Again.
New York.—Lapis is in again as a fashionable stone. Long necklaces of lapis variegated with crystals and gold are effective, as are also a few necklaces in which lapis is combined with carnelian.

Printed Taffetas.
New York.—Printed taffetas are once more with us today. They are lovelier than ever, with their flowered patterns; either in demure little nosegays or scattered buds.

Alligator Wrist Bags.
New York.—Alligator skin wrist bags in pouch form are lighter in shade now than heretofore. They are more of a sand tint, and have gorgeous carved amethyst or jade ornaments with which to fasten them.

Military Ball Arranged.
COVALLIS, — The annual military ball will be given in the men's gymnasium February 21. It was announced. Flags will form the principal decorations. Each unit of the U. O. T. C. will be represented by its insignia. A parade on Washington's birthday by the cadets will be the opening feature of the educational exposition.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD
Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.
Instant relief—no waiting. You clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, sneezing, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.
Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.
It's just fine. Don't stuff up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

Income Tax Tips
Claims for deductions for losses on what is known as "wash sales"—sale and immediate repurchase of securities—are expressly disallowed by the revenue act of 1921. Under prior acts there was no provision which prohibited an owner of stocks or bonds from selling his securities at a price less than that for which they were purchased and deduction such loss, even though they were repurchased immediately.

Under the present statute no deduction is allowed where it appears that within 30 days before or after such sale or disposition the taxpayer has acquired (other than by bequest or inheritance) substantially identical property and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or disposition.

Owners of stock and bonds can not deduct from gross income amounts claimed as losses on account of shrinkage of values in such securities through fluctuations in the market or otherwise. The foregoing applies only to owners and investors and not to dealers in securities, who, by means of the inventory, are given the benefit of shrinkage of securities in which they deal.

As a general rule deductions for losses are allowed for the year in which they are sustained. How-

Booth Sees Evil in Dole to Unemployed
LONDON. (AP)—In a report on the social work of the Salvation Army, General Booth refers to the effects of the "dole" on the unemployed.

"I am led sometimes," he says, "to wonder whether what is called the dole—the indiscriminate distribution of money for which no labor is required in return—is not almost, if not quite, as great a misfortune as unemployment."

Speaking of moral decline, the mischievous influence, over all alike which springs from the evil of this thing, he added: "For once at least we see how a remedy may be far worse than a disease. The steady receipt of money for which no equivalent in work is rendered, makes against everything that is good in the receiver's life. The innate ill of idleness are increased. That which is more or less a material misfortune is turned into a moral disaster. I do not hesitate to say that tens of thousands of people in these islands have learned, or are learning at this very time, to live without work and for the young people especially, this is a most disastrous experience."

Rate Hearing Desired.
SALEM, Or. — The Tillamook Dairymen's association, through Carl Haberlach, manager, today appealed to the public service commission for a hearing on the question of an additional freight rate on hay charged by the railroads when the hay, en route to the coast from points east, is stopped in Portland for inspection or diverted to another line.

The recent order of the public service commission in the hay rate case required the railroads to publish maximum through rates regardless of whether the movement is over one or more lines.

Library Circulation Large.
ST. HELENS, Ore. — During the year 1923 the St. Helens public library loaned 13,360 books and 1559 magazines bring the total circulation for January, 1924, was the largest in the history of the library, 1783 books and magazines having been loaned.

Site To Be Purchased.
SALEM, Or. — Governor Pierce and Sam A. Koser, secretary of state, will hold a conference within the next two or three days to purchase a site for the proposed state training school for boys.

More than 40 prospective sites have been inspected by the officials, practically all of which are located within a radius of 10 miles of Salem.

Approximately $280,000 is available for the erection of the plant, purchase of the site and necessary equipment. It was estimated that the site will cost $55,000.

Kilm Drying Taught.
BEND, Or. — The most approved methods of kiln drying western pine lumber were thoroughly outlined in a week's course conducted at the Shively-Hixon company's plant by Albert Harman, authority on pine seasoning for the Western Pine Manufacturers' association. The course, which has just been finished, was attended by representatives of seven saw milling companies, including the two at Bend. These mills are only those sawing western pine. Those manufacturing other varieties of timber are holding their kiln drying schools at other times and places.
