Priscilla De an Takes Leading Role in "White Tiger" at Star.

A beautiful queen of the underworld, but not the sordid underworld of today's fiction, rather the highest strata of international crookdom, is the heroine of "White Tiger," the Universal-Jewel special which opened yesterday at the Star theatre. And Priscilla Dean, the fiery beauty of "Outside the Law," one of the greatest of all crook film plays, "The Flame of Life" and other famous successes, plays the role.

Supporting Miss Dean are Wallace Beery of "The Flame of Life" and "Robin Hood," Matt Moore of "The Storm" and Raymond Griffith. Dean, Beery and Griffith are the trio of international lightweight transfer artists in the dramatic story.

"White Tiger" is a complete reverse of Miss Dean's last vehicle, "The Flame of Life." It carries the spectator to squalid places of London, then to America, where diamonds on the necks of society matrons lure the continental crooks to a rich harvest. Sooner or later all European crime artists wend their way to the fertile field of American society.

"White Tiger" and a Buster Keaton comedy will be the attraction at the Star theatre today and Friday.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE By Condo

Sherrys Showing Bill Hart in Western Picture Saturday.

Pictorially, there is much of interest in the latest photodrama starring Wm. S. Hart, which will be presented at the Sherry theatre Saturday. The story, which is one of the pioneer days in California, is centered in the Yosemite country the wonderland of the western states. The most dramatic episodes take place in and among the towering redwoods of the primeval forests.

Hart and his company spent several weeks in this wild territory, and the cameraman has recorded the drama's setting in a scenic panorama. In one episode he shows the giant trees from their huge bases to their incredible summits. Seen from a distance they look as slim and straight as Norwegian pines, and yet Hart, to elude a posse of Vigilantes, who are hot on his trail, base of one of these mammoths, climbs up in the hollow trunk and through an aperture peers down upon his pursurers many feet below.

"Courtship of Myles Standish" Showing At Arcade Today.

There is a wonderful picture treat in store for every movie fan in La Grande who goes to the Arcade theatre today, Friday or Saturday and sees Charles Ray in his newest and biggest of productions, "The Courtship of Myles Standish," which opened its local presentation today. The picture comes up to all expectation, in fact there are a number of scenes that are the most thrilling and expertly yet done by the camera.

The storm, which almost wrecks the Mayflower with its celebrated band of Pilgrims aboard, terrorized by a villianous crew of pirates and bloodthirsty "roughnecks," is alone worthy of the price of admission.

"If Winter Comes" Showing at Arcade Theater Soon.

"It's coming soon—"If Winter Comes," the William Fox screen version of A. S. M. Hutchinson's novel of that name, which will appear at the Arcade Theatre starting Monday.

East Prussia to Enact Laws To Protect Amber Industry

KOENIGSBERG, (AP) — New laws are being formulated that will give East Prussia complete control of the amber output within its borders. The laws, designed to protect the amber industry, will deny to tourists the privileges they have enjoyed for many years of hunting amber along the Baltic beaches. All nearby countries bordering on the Baltic sea have laws protecting the amber industry.

The East Prussian amber output last year from beaches and mines operated by the government amounted to 800,000 pounds.

Dane to Sell Coin Collection.

LONDON. (AP)—The world famous coin collection of the Danish merchant, M. Bruuns, is to be broken up and offered for sale. The English and Irish collection which contain many coins manufactured by the Danish Vikings in England have been acquired for the Royal Coin and Medal collection.

The other sections, it is understood, will be offered for sale at public auction.

Bulgarian Women Make Demands.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, (AP)—The women of Bulgaria have asked parliament for general suffrage, complete equality with men before the law, and the right to practice before the courts.

The premier is in favor of their voting for school boards and in municipal elections, but the minister of the interior is inclined to give the women all they seek.

Field Mice Ignore Rules and Ruin Fields of Wheat.

VARNA, Bulgaria, (AP)—Temperatures of September prevailed in this latitude up to the end of December and as a result field mice kept on foraging for food long after they normally quit and dig in for their winter's sleep. Being hungry, the little rodents have eaten up so much of the seed in the areas given over to late wheat that farmers declare the spring crop has been ruined.

Mid-November generally sees the mice well under ground and hibernating. This year the fields were full of them up to Christmas time.

Income Tax Tips

Taxpayers who discovered a debt to be worthless in 1923 and have in that year charged the account off their books may claim the amount as a deduction in their income tax returns for that year. Bad debts may be treated in one of two ways: (1) By a deduction of the amount of the bad debts from gross income; (2) by a deduction from income of an addition to a reserve for bad debts.

Taxpayers who adopted for the year 1921 either method must continue the use of the same method, unless permission to change is obtained from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Permission to adopt the reserve method is restricted to taxpayers having a large number of accounts, where credit is extended over a considerable period, and is not granted for the purpose of handling one specific bad debt.

Bad debts may be deducted in whole or in part. When deducted in part, the taxpayer must be able to show with a reasonable degree of certainty the amount uncollectable. Partial deductions are allowed with respect to specific debts only. To be allowed as a deduction a debt must be charged off in the year in which its worthlessness was discovered. The taxpayer should attach to his return a statement showing the propriety of any deduction claimed for a debt. Where the surrounding circumstances indicate that a debt is uncollectable and that legal action in all probability would not avail, proof of these facts is sufficient evidence of its worthlessness.

A valid debt proved to be worthless is not always a proper deduction. For example, unpaid amounts representing wages, salaries, rentals, or similar items of taxable income, are not allowed as deductions unless the amounts claimed as deductions have been included as income in the creditor's return for the year in which the deduction is sought or previous years.

Unpaid loans made to needy relatives or friends with little or no expectation of their repayment are not deductible, but are regarded as gifts.

Boy Is Struck By Auto

ASTORIA, Or.,—Slippery pavements were responsible for a series of automobile accidents which occurred on the Columbia river highway. Several cars were smashed, but no one was seriously injured.

The nearest approach to this happened a short distance from Clatskanie, when a lad ran in front of a car driven by Henry Larson of this city, and was knocked down. He was dragged by the machine until it went into the ditch as the driver attempted to stop. The boy then jumped up and ran away.
