

WOMEN'S INTEREST

NEWS of SOCIETY

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season will be the Elks' Fraternity Ball to be given at the Elks' home in La Grande this evening. All Elks and ladies are invited and with excellent music a good time is anticipated.

The annual ball and banquet to be given by the Elks lodge on Washington's birthday is fast taking shape and there is every indication that it will be a repetition of the olden elaborate occasion which La Grande society enjoyed. The general committee held a meeting Wednesday evening and all sub-committees were named. Active Elks were picked for each place and good judgment was used in fitting members to the tasks assigned. Invitations will be out in a few days and from the echo following the first announcement of the event in Elkhorn the attendance will be large.

Miss Gladys E. Miller presented the following pupils in a piano recital at her studio in the Sommer building, Wednesday evening, February sixth: David Stoddard, Mary Hantz, Mildred Tolley, Pauline McCoury, William Miller, Mildred Smith, Edna Mae Wilson, Marcia Tolley, Frances Thierbeck, Shirley White and Elizabeth Payton.

Medford Springs. (Special) — The "500" club was delightfully entertained last Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Grace Johnson, with Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. E. R. Dooly as hostesses. A pleasant time was spent at cards with high honors going to Mrs. J. E. Kennedy and Geo. South and the consolation prizes going to Mrs. C. Fleming and Cy Turner. Before adjournment delicious refreshments were served in the Dutch style, which added greatly to the evening, after which the guests departed reporting a splendid time.

Cove. (Special) — The ladies of the Eastern Star lodge gave a delightful party at the lodge rooms on Tuesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Alva Murphy, Mrs. R. P. Munsick and Mrs. P. M. Ellis. A pleasant social time was spent after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. R. J. Green will be hostess to the Clio club tomorrow afternoon.

The Business Women's club will have a banquet Thursday, February 14, at the Sommer Hotel dining room.

The Lucky Thirteen club will meet Thursday afternoon, February 14, with Mrs. William Bolton as hostess.

ESSAY CONTEST TO BE HELD IN OREGON SCHOOLS

EUGENE. (Special) — Every high school and secondary school student in Oregon is eligible to compete in the prize essay contest of the American Chemical Society, according to word received by Prof. Orin F. Stafford, of the University of Oregon department of chemistry. The contest is to be country-wide.

Each contestant may submit one essay, not to exceed 2500 words, which must be confined to the following six subjects: The Relation of Chemistry to Health and Disease, to the Enrichment of Life, to Agriculture and Forestry, to National Defense, to the Home, to the Development of the Industries and Resources of Each State—the contestants to write on their own state industries and resources.

The best essay on each of these subjects in each state will be awarded $25, and six best essays will be selected by the national committee of judges from among the state winners. The writers of the winning essays in the national contest will be awarded four-year scholarships to Yale University or Vassar college, each scholarship to carry with it $500 a year in addition to tuition fees.

Seismologists Say Quakes May Become More Violent

LONDON. (AP)—The earth is in a continual state of unrest, internally as well as on the surface, says Professor H. H. Turner of the London Training college. In a recent lecture he declared that almost every day an earthquake occurred somewhere, and often three or four each place. These quakes seemed to be getting more frequent and it is still a question with experts whether the worst had been passed or is still to come.

Commenting on the accuracy in our times of the science of seismology, the professor said that modern methods of recording had proved that what has hitherto been written on the seismographs as interior disturbances are in reality earthquakes so far down in the earth that the crust is not broken or disturbed.

Flounces Follow Line of Silhouette

With so much emphasis on the "pencil" silhouette, designers are featuring gowns with flat trimming that does not break the silhouette outline. Instead of being shirred, neck pieces are simply straight neck.

Portland Lady Gains 5 Lbs. On Each Bottle

"Tanlac built me up twenty-seven pounds, and brought me splendid health two years ago and I have continued to feel fine ever since." is the remarkable statement made recently by Mrs. Fred Weston, 322 East 54th St., North Portland, Oregon.

"Stomach trouble had almost completely wrecked my health. I had absolutely no energy and nothing seemed worth while to me. I would eat and then wish I hadn't, as I suffered so terribly from indigestion. The pain, bloating, heart palpitation and nervous-

East and West Are in Lasting Romance Now

SAN FRANCISCO. (INS)—Despite Kipling's famous lines the East and West sometimes do meet, as was shown here recently by the arrival from the Orient of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Baumfield, an official of the South Manchurian Railway, was married six years ago to a pretty young Japanese girl.

"We are very happy," said Baumfield.

"Intermarriage between the races is like marriage between any two persons—the success of the venture depending entirely upon the individual."

While her husband talked, Mrs. Baumfield, whose Japanese name is Kanako, hastily tucked in a stray wisp of blue-black hair, as she arranged to pose for photographers.

Baumfield was born in Vienna and has lived in Japan for more than 16 years. He is studying economics and doing research work for the Manchurian Railway.

Irish Names Rife County Down

DUBLIN. (AP)—While the Free State government is making the teaching of the Irish language compulsory in the schools, and using it on an equality with English in all public proceedings and documents, the government of North East Ulster has instituted a prosecution against a farmer in County Down for having a name in Irish on his cart.

CHICAGO MATRONS CARRY REVOLVERS

CHICAGO. (I.N.S.)—The Alliance of Chicago do not pack six-guns around with them so much as simple folks over in Regent street and sauce manufacturers in Worcester believe. But it's getting to have quite a vogue among the city's women.

Mrs. Frank Townley Brown and her daughter, Mrs. Gerald Grube, who live out along the exclusive North Shore, are the proof.

Mrs. Brown paused, as she was about to enter her motor car on the way to attend a concert by John McCormick, and showed an interviewer her weapon.

"It's just a little .38-calibre six-gun," she said with an air of "Well, what of it?" She said she had heard that it was quite the thing for Chicago's society woman to pack guns around with them.

She and her daughter have the permission of the Chief of Police to go armed. The servants, too, in the Townley home carry weapons.

Mrs. Townley owns a farm near Chicago. On dull afternoons she spins out three and improves her eye jipping tomato cans off the fence with her six-gun.
