breaks and don't know where they are going to get money for the next meal."

Speaking about the moral conditions of Hollywood, Mr. Russell said that conditions were not at all as terrible as the average American believed. Merely as an example of what film stars really are he pointed that Milton Sills, Tully Marshall and Jack Holt were all ordained ministers of the gospel and occupied their pulpits quite often. "And when they preach their churches are filled with movie folk," he asserted.

Wife Capture Is Step In Civilization

Mr. Russell touched briefly upon the Bill Hart incident, which occupied so much space in the press a short time ago. "Bill Hart is innocent and has proved it," he stated. "We movie folk at the time knew that he wasn't guilty and we were later upheld. Bill Hart is innocent and that's all there is to it."

Jack Russell is no longer in the movies—but he has been. At the present time he is looking for a job. He left Hollywood a short time ago because he expected a change shortly which is even now rumormongering that will serve to reduce the pay of movie actors and actresses. "The powers that be are going to attempt to economize which means that wage cuts will be frequent," he stated.

Extra parts were played by Mr. Russell in the "Covered Wagon," "Roughed Up," "Cecil De Mille's Saturday Night" and the "Poor House of the Apocalypse." "Not only did he serve as a 'matinee' in the above mentioned screen masterpieces but he has appeared in several other pictures in the past but 'These days are gone forever' and now he's looking for a normal occupation."

JUDGE DRIVER TO COVER BY A FRENCH BEAUTY

NICE, (AP)—Ten years ago Mademoiselle Callmon was the most beautiful girl in southern France. While her popularity was at its height because of her having won first prize in a beauty contest, a Nice merchant proposed marriage to her and was accepted. He was drafted into the army before their marriage, and went to Morocco in military service for four years. His affection cooled at the end of his military service, and he sought to have the engagement cancelled. Mademoiselle Callmon, however, regarded his affection and lived happily for six years in the thought that she would one day marry the merchant, but the tenth anniversary of their betrothal the declared the engagement null.

Mademoiselle Callmon then brought suit for 100,000 francs damages. In the court she displayed the pictures of the girl whose beauty had been the cause of the divorce, and declared her faithful suitor had made it impossible for her to think of another man.

"But why?" the judge asked. "Would you take a girl who was engaged for ten years to another man, and then jilted by him?" the woman questioned.

"At once," the judge replied. "Well, here I am, judge," she countered.

"Oh, I am married already," the embarrassed judge replied.

The court then proceeded to award Mademoiselle Callmon 8,000 francs damages and cautioned the defendant not to prolong another engagement for ten years.

Our morning service will be held in honor of our ex-service men. The pastor has prepared a special message for this occasion. Mrs. P. S. Jester, director of music, has arranged for special music. The evening service will bring the old but ever new gospel to a hungry world. There is no salvation except through faith in the Son of God. "There is no name given under heaven whereby men must be saved except the name Jesus." It is not enough to be a good man. If so we would need no Saviour, Christ. "God with us" or Emmanuel was the name given him by Isaiah, 7:14. If you doubt the Virgin Birth you doubt the Scripture. If God could not do that He could not resurrect the dead. If there be no resurrection of the dead we have no hope. Pastor (teaches the miracles). Mrs. P. S. Jester reports the following program of music: Miss Marion Lovett will sing a solo at Sunday School. Mrs. D. C. French and Miss Lydia Hug will sing a duet at the morning service. Miss La Nina Gaselli will sing a solo accompanied by her sister, Miss William Gaselli at the evening service. — A. R.
