"Bright Lights of Broadway" Coming Soon.

The Sherry Theatre will present the latest photoplay which has for its theme the struggles and temptations encountered by a young girl who aspires to see her name in electric lights on New York's Great White Way. It is produced by the management that in this production they have an offering far out of the beaten path of pictures of this type. "Bright Lights of Broadway" is its attractive title and it is the latest R. F. Zeldman production. It comes here Sunday and Monday.

Heading what is truly an all star cast are Lowell Sherman, Doris Kenyon and Harrison Ford, and other players include Edmund Brown, Tyrone Power, Effie Shannon and Charles Murray. Special numbers are introduced in the nature of scenes by the sixteen "Tutor Girls" from the "Ziegfeld Follies" and the entire Beauty Chorus from the New York Hippodrome. The production has been most lavishly staged by the director, Webster Campbell.

"Hunchback of Notre Dame" Coming to Arcade Thursday.

Lon Chaney, famous character actor, and star of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," Universal's Super-Jewel production of Victor Hugo's classic of medieval Paris, coming to the Arcade for three days commencing Thursday, February 22nd, is the picture of the week.

In it is Edmund Cobb, better known to his admirers as "Two-Fisted Ed," one of the best known horsemen in the ranks of movie stars.

In "The Sting of the Scorpion" Cobb demonstrates, to the complete satisfaction of the most doubting Thomas, his ability to master the wildest terrors of the stage. He gives an exhibition of horsemanship which we feel sure is saying has seldom been equaled and never surpassed.

"The Sting of the Scorpion" is a story of the real West and as such is bound to be of intense interest and value to the American and the entire Beauty Chorus from the New York Hippodrome. The story of a young rancher, falsely accused of murder, who fights his way through apparently insurmountable obstacles, eventually establishing his innocence and winning the girl of his heart's desire. Comedy showing, "Master Hunk."

Joseph Lanoville, Worth $75,000,000, Likes Lamb Stew Like He Cooks It

(By Steve Hannagan) COVINGTON, N. J. (NEA)—Stirring a pan of lamb stew, Joseph Lanoville, 54-year-old heir to a $75,000,000 legacy in France, seemed to be little concerned with his new-found fortune. "I'll give most of it to the poor," he said, "not through recognized organizations, but to the people I find in need as I travel about."

36 minutes by trolley off the beaten path of the world's mad rush. $10,000,000 Fortune Grew. The French barometer assured Lanoville that his claim to the fortune is well founded. For five generations—174 years—the $10,000,000 estate bequeathed by Count Lanoville to his only son has been doubling and tripling in value as the interest was compounded and the search for the heir went on. Count Lanoville's son was kidnapped, brought to America and later married an Indian girl. Now, after five generations Joseph Lanoville is believed to be the eldest living heir. To him goes the fortune. He leaves for France to collect the legacy as soon as the weather breaks. "I'm in no hurry," he said, "I got along without it before I knew about it, and I'll live in comfort if I never get it."

Wife Helps Him. Lanoville has been known by the Christian name of Louis, said to be the name of the sea-going aunt who kidnapped Count Lanoville's son, of public life—but his personal papers, bank books and the like, have always been made out in the name of Lanoville, he exhibited. He is one of a family of 14 children and the father of 14 children.

Balmoral Kilties Head Vaudeville Bill At Arcade Sunday.

Every offering has been carefully selected to assure a well-balanced, complete bill at the Arcade Theatre on Sunday.

The feature of this bill is The Balmoral Kilties, who have an offering that cannot help but please as they sing, dance and play instruments and there is always a breath of old Scotland permeating the atmosphere. They finish their number with a Scotch Band of Bagpipes, violin, banjo, piano and drums.

Murray and Harris present a comedy singing and talking act. Carter and Baird in "How's Your Mother," a comedy drawing, singing and dancing act with a neat little plot that proves a laughing hit.

Willie Twist, a master in thrills and comedy acrobatics, is also a clever pantomime and the offering is full of good comedy.

Phone Rate Cut Loans SALESMAN, Ore.—Deliberations concerning rechartering of the rate of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company have been completed by the public service commission, and a formal order probably will be drafted within a few days. This was announced.

The case involving the rates of the telephone corporation organized three years ago and was featured by a series of hearings in Portland and other parts of the state. The order of the commission, drafted at the close of the hearings, increased the rates for

Drugs Excite the Kidneys, Drink Water Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking lots of good soft water, and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.
