NEWS of SOCIETY

Chapter I. P. E. O. had an unusually interesting meeting yesterday afternoon, when they met at the home of Mrs. A. L. Richardson, with Mrs. Lucy Stanchfield in charge of the program. Mrs. Stanchfield very ably handled her subject "Scientific Research," and all present enjoyed a very entertaining afternoon.

An atmosphere of springtime prevailed in Mrs. Richardson's home, beautiful sweet peas and pussy willow being used as decoration, and during the afternoon approximately twenty ladies were seated around a dining table, with an exquisite centerpiece of sweet peas, and served to a dainty two course luncheon.

Everyone present spent a very enjoyable time last evening when the Kaffee Klatch club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Theisen, with Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews assisting as host and hostess. The feature of the evening was bridge and seven tables were in play with high honors going to Mrs. Carl Helm and M. B. Donohue. Besides the members of the club a few guests were present and before adjournment a delicious luncheon was served by the charming hostesses.

The K. of P. hall was the scene of a delightful Valentine party last evening, when the Pythian Sisters entertained the Knights of Pythias and their wives. A large crowd was in attendance and during the evening various games were played and a pleasant social time spent. One enjoyable feature of the evening was the writing of valentine verses, which caused much merriment, and another clever feature was an old-fashioned spelling match.

The hall was cleverly decorated to represent St. Valentine, red hearts being used, and before adjournment a delicious luncheon was served.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. George Vehrs, 1504 Seventh street, Monday evening, February 18. This is the annual meeting of the guild and election of officers will be held. All members are urged to be present.

Along with many other social affairs of the valentine season Miss Hulda Anderson's Sunday School class, of the Presbyterian church, gave a party with Miss Elma Owsley and her committee in charge.

The community room of the church was beautifully decorated in accordance with the event, a delightful color scheme of red and white being used and before adjournment delicious refreshments were served to the twenty-five young people present.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft held their regular monthly meeting last Wednesday evening. Team work was displayed and a large number of new members initiated. Many visitors were present and before adjournment delicious refreshments were served, which corresponded with the decorations representing St. Valentine.

Mrs. Ed Ford and Mrs. B. Zweifel have returned from Portland, where they visited for the past few days with Mrs. G. M. Ritchey and Mrs. W. J. Church.

A delightful birthday surprise party was given Hubert McCrary last evening, when fourteen friends came in and spent the evening in dancing and games, after which a delicious luncheon was served. The young man is thirteen years old today.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS

Ceremonial Held.

A campfire ceremonial meeting was held at the home of Miss Margaret Baker on Washington Avenue recently. The candle lighting ceremony was used and Eleanor Cleaver and Adelaide Clark were given the rank of wood gatherer. Fern Wells and Margaret Ellis were initiated into the Wetamachie Camp fire as members, Shirley White of Wallowa, of the Campfire Girls Association of Wallowa has been transferred to the campfire of La Grande and plans for the future were discussed. Bessie McMillan gave the credo of the campfire during the meeting and Phyllis Scranton gave the "Ode to the Fire."

Following the meeting delicious refreshments were served.

The girls are planning a hike to Island City Monday evening after school.

A hick town is one where there is less picking of pockets and more picking of teeth on Main street.

Inland towns are unsuitable for conventions, though it isn't so much the heat as the aridity.

HUSBAND TOLD TO APPRECIATE WIFE'S MERITS

(By George T. Hook)

PHILADELPHIA. (INS)— The man who qualifies as a good husband is one with a good memory, and one who is appreciative, honorable, generous and a good provider.

This is the answer of the Rev. Christian G. Koppel, noted local pastor, to the question "What Sort of Man Makes a Good Husband?" Recently he answered the question "What Sort of a Woman Makes the Best Wife?"

Dr. Koppel condoned flattery in the make-up of a husband.

"Tell your wife how beautiful she is," was his advice to Benedicts. 'It may be stretching the truth, but God will not hold it against you.

"It is a poor sort of husband," he continued, "who invariably notices the fetching gown of another woman, but is blind to his own wife's efforts to make herself attractive. Appreciation makes a man a good husband. The life of the average woman is a life sentence of hard work. It means endless sacrifice and one never-ending round of cooking, washing cleaning, sewing, sick nursing and baby tending, and the only thing that makes it worth while is for the husband to show he appreciates her."

Memory is another asset, Dr. Koppel said. It is a fickle thing especially among married men. He advised husbands to simulate premarriage blindness if they have wives and to give them a few of the kind words they were liberal with in courting days.

"A good husband also must have honor and be liberal," according to the pastor. "A man ought to be as particular in keeping his marriage vows as he is in keeping his business contracts. A man comes to the sacred altar without having read the marriage ceremony, gives his word in a most solemn promise to abide and keep the martial vows, who would never dream of signing a business contract without first carefully considering the terms.

"Every husband should make his wife a partner in spending the weekly income. A good husband must qualify as a good father. It takes more than a woman to make a home. But many a man thinks his contribution to homemaking is done when he buys the food and pays the rent."

PUTMAN'S

GIRL WILL TRY CHANNEL SWIM

Lillian G. Harrison Will Attempt to Negotiate the English Channel.

BUENOS AIRES. (AP) — Miss Lillian G. Harrison, the 20 years-old Anglo-Argentine girl who swam across the River Plate December 22, the first person to accomplish the feat, hopes to set another record by being the first of her sex to swim the English Channel. She is planning, with the backing of the Argentine Athletic Federation to leave for England in May and attempt the crossing during the English summer.

Enrique Tiraboschi,, the Italian-Argentine swimmer who swam the channel last summer and who accompanied Miss Harrison a part of the distance across the Plate, believes she will succeed in her new venture. The distance she had to swim across the big South American rive rwas 26½ miles ina direct line, somewhat less than the channel swim, and, according to Tiraboschi, the channel currents are no more difficult to master than the Plate currents, though somewhat colder. Tiraboschi himself, in an unsuccessful attempt to traverse the Plate about two years ago, was foiled by them.

Miss Harrison won cash prizes of 7,000 pesos, two cups and a gold medal for her feat. She accomplished the distance in 24 hours 19 1-2 minutes, which is claimed to be t heworld's record for permanence in the water by a woman swimmer, as well as for distance. She started in the morning from Colonia, on the Uruguyan side, and lander the next morning near La Plata, east of Buenos Aires. Her father accompanied her in a launch, while relays of men swimmers escorted her in the water. She kept a pace of 27 strokes a minute, except when stronger currents compelled her to increase it to 30, and her course was approximately direct.

For food Miss Harrison took black coffee, orange juice and a vegetable concentrate, tossed to her from time to time in nursing bottles. When she touched bottom in the broad shallows on the Argentine side are fulfilled without any seeming difficulty, a condition that to win her prize she must wade until she reached entirely dry land.

The young woman scarcely even rested after her exploit going the same afternoon to attend a girl's athletic meet as blithe and vivacious as if she had only returned from an ordinary swim. She did not seek sleep until her usual bedtime hour.

"I did not train for this event by swimming much," Miss Harrison told an interviewer. "I trained for it by taking Swedish drill three times a week for several months. What I wanted was endurance, for I know how to swim. But I did not let my muscles get too hard. I left off the drill a month before the date for crossing the river. A year ago I swam for 21 hours downstream, but I was more exhausted that time than this. I believe my muscles were then too hard."

England Urged to Collect.

Subjects at La Grande Churches Tomorrow

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH—At five o'clock tomorrow will be shown the sixth and last series of pictures and the last illustrated sermon to be delivered in the list of sermons in "The Romance of Saul of Tarsus." The sub-title being "I must see Rome." The interest and attendance when the pictures have been thrown on the screen the Sunday Vespers have steadily grown as manifested by the fact that each evening the attendance has been larger than the previous evening. The pastor will take for his theme at 11:00 a. m. "The Stewardship of Life." This opens the "Stewardship Educational Campaign" being put on by the church. The campaign will close on March 18th. In addition to the pastor's sermon each Sunday morning for the next five Sundays, a "Minute Man" will speak for a few minutes on some phase of Stewardship. R. A. Wilkerson is the speaker for this Sunday. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Sherwood Williams will render an Anthem written by Novello entitled "Incline Thine Ear." The church school under the direction of Mrs. Vera Wattenburg will convene promptly at 10:00 a. m. At the same time the Men's Forum, which steadily grows in numbers and interest will study for the hour, under the direction of the pastor "The Acts of the Ascended Lord and of the Holy Spirit." All men not engaged in church services elsewhere during the hour are welcomed to our Forum. While the Forum and the Main School is in session, Mrs. Landis will convene her class in the gallery of the auditorium, and Miss Alice H. Marquad, the health nurse will address the class on the theme "Protecting the Children." Every minute of the entire day's services will be worth while and the public who desire to worship in this church will be warmly welcomed. Our Vesper hour will leave you free to attend one of the other churches in the evening, where you will be welcomed and will receive good.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—An ordination service for the recently elected Board of Deacons will be held this Sunday morning in connection with the eleven o'clock morning worship hour. This will be the first time in the history of our church when a Board of Deacons composed of women will be set apart for this most important office. The entire congregation should be in attendance upon this ordinance. The quartette will sing the anthem "Unfold, Ye Portals," from "The Redemption" by Gounod with organ and violin accompaniment, while the offertory will be in the nature of a violin solo. Our musical leaders are adding greatly to the spirit of worship in our morning service. The Sunday School at 9:45 with classes and teachers for all under the revised program with an increasing attendance each week. The Guild class has started will with every promise of success. The Christian Endeavor meets at 6:15 and the study class "The Debt Eternal" follows at 7:30. As you face the Lord's Day with all its opportunities may you realize that our good music will inspire you, our good fellowship will cheer you and our "Good News" will help solve your problems. We especially invite those without a church home to unite with us in our new sanctuary, and to call upon us for any service in the Kingdom.—Wm. Crosby Ross, Minister.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTISTS—Corner of First and Washington. Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock.

Subject: "Soul."

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8:00 o'clock Reading room open to the public every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday from two to four. All are invited.

ZION ENGLISH LUTHERAN CHURCH—Avenue opposite high school. Rev. Wm. P. Holl, pastor. Sunday school 9:45, instead of 10 a. m. Services 11:00 a. m. Choir practice Wednesday at 8:00 p. m. Sermon, "An Invitation Card from God." Anthem by choir "The Place of Prayer," by M. L. McPhail. Pastor's remarks. There is no doubt in the minds of the community what a drawing power a Roman Catholic is to the City of La Grande for it is the largest Christian church on earth and draws people from all nations under the sun. But there is a doubt in the minds of some why we have an English Lutheran church when there are so many other Protestant churches. But our Lutheran church is also a drawing power, and also draws from all nations and from all climes. Now, suppose that we had just one representative Protestant church in La Grande and one truly representative Lutheran church. Question, which of these two should be the larger? Answer: Undoubtedly the Lutheran church, for the Lutheran church is as large as all the other combined Protestant churches of the world.

METHODIST CHURCH, SOUTH—Sunday school 10:00 a. m. The pastor will lead the worship at the usual hours, both morning and evening. Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m. "Church Night," Wednesday evening, 7:30. Lesson study I. Cor. 4th chapter.—N. D. Wood, Pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH—Sunday School at 10 a. m. Mrs. C. F. Happersett superintendent. Subject "Joshua and the Conquest of Canaan." "The Plan of Salvation," will be the subject of the morning sermon. Mrs. Geddes will sing. Miss Ruth Bramwell will be her accompanist. The subject for the evening service will be "Some reasons why we should be members of the Church." The chorus will sing at both services. Mrs. F. S. Jester, director of music; Mrs. Happersett, pianist. We are cooperating with all the churches in a church soul-winning program, looking forward to the reception of members of Easter Sunday. Each member of the church should try to help some one to accept Christ as a personal Saviour.—A. R. Sitton, Pastor.

ISLAND CITY COMMUNITY CHURCH — "Invitations" will be the sermon topic for next Sunday morning; "Youth and Religion" will be the topic for the evening at 7:30. The Epworth League meets at 6:30 and will be led by Harold Schroeder. These are great days for opportunity in service. We believe in every individual doing his best for the good of all. Which means the uplift of the community and the building of God's Kingdom. We want to meet you all at church Sunday and here are some of our sentiments:

Worker, tell us of the day—
Does it lead to visions bright,
Does it show the higher way,
Does it bring the greater light?
Worker, shall our wanderings
cease—
Ever on, our pathway lead?
Christian, Yes. The Prince of Peace
Always leads us on, indeed.

Toiler, tell us of the day—
Where its fields of service are,
Where it leads from self way,
How it calls to lands afar.
Toiler shall the sin decrease
And the truth be multiplied?
Christian! See our strength increase;
Yes, our hopes are justified.

Servant, tell us of the day—
Must we offer self and gold,
Shall we sacrifices lay
At His altars, wealth untold?
Servants, shall our efforts true,
Bring the Christ to all the World-
Christian, Yes. In all we do
For we serve our God and Lord.
—See Methodist Hymnal
Tune 636.
—H. K. Wallis, Pastor.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH — Holy communion at 8 a. m. Sunday School 9:45. Morning prayer 11. Evening service 7:30.—Rev. S. W. Creasey, rector.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH — Our Home Force Revival meeting goes strongly on. It is reaching out and many are enjoying the services. Live singing, straight preaching, persistent praying is winning a victory. Sunday will be a great day from the beginning of the Bible School at 9:45 to the close of the evangelistic service Sunday evening. The evening sermon will answer the greatest of all questions: "What Must I Do?" Has God Told Us? What and Where is the answer? Special song numbers at each service. If you want to sit in the auditorium at the evening service, come early.—O. W. Jones, Minister.

State Body Will Meet.

SALEM, Or.—Members of the state irrigation securities commission will meet here this week and pass on the application of the Teal irrigation district for the certification of bonds for approximately $1,250,000. These bonds, if certified, will absorb a block of securities for $329,000 previously issued but not redeemed because of financial reverses.

The Teal district is located in Umatilla county, and includes some of the best land in eastern Oregon. The cost of the land under irrigation, as calculated by engineers, will be $120 an acre.

RICHARDSONS LEAVE ELGIN

ELGIN (Special) — Elgin and community regret the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Earle Richardson are leaving the town. They have become very highly thought of and liked by everyone during their residence here of over a year. The Elgin Recorder, under their control and management has been improved and is held in high esteem in other towns as well as in Elgin. They plan to leave this week to make their home in the Western part of the state. First they will go to McMinnville where Mrs. Richardson's parents live and will remain in that locality until a definite decision is reached between several locations they have in mind.

The Recorder is to be taken over by Mr. Cummins, who comes here from Arlington. He has been in town over a week and will soon be joined by his family. Mr. Richardson still keeps an interest in the local newspaper, although they expect to make their permanent home in the Willamette Valley. They will make the trip by car, leaving this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sommers and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sommers were business visitors in La Grande Wednesday.

Several new cases of measles have been reported in town. One of the latest is that of Wayne McMullen. His father was called from one of the Bowman-Hicks logging camps but found the young man's condition not serious so returned to his work last Monday.

Miss Thelma Choate, of La Grande, spent a few days in Elgin last week as the guest of Miss Myrtle Hoyt, a teacher in our school.

Luther Geiger, of Indian Creek was a La Grande visitor this week.

The local order of Knights of Pythias are preparing for the caucus to be held in Wallowa next Wednesday. At the last regular meeting members of the Imbler lodge came to Elgin and on Wednesday night the men from Elgin drove to Imbler for practice. On Tuesday, February 19, the local lodge will hold its annual roll call in connection with the Pythian sisters and the wives of K. of P. members who do not belong to the Pythian Order.

Where Your Credit Is Good

My Mother told me

The recommendation of friend to friend and of generation to generation is largely responsible for the enormous patronage that Foley's Honey and Tar Compound enjoys. These people know that it is pleasant to take and brings quick relief. It is free from all harmful drugs—cannabis indica, chloroform or any other.

E. Boggess of Pomona, California says: "I am very well pleased with the wonderful relief that Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has brought me. I was bothered with coughing, and my mother told me about your wonderful medicine so I decided to give it a trial. I have tried many other medicines but none are as relieving as Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I have told my friends and they say there is nothing better."
