

Local News In Brief

COMING EVENTS
February 28, 29-Mar. 1—Basketball championship tournament (District No. 1—six counties) at Union.

Here from Elgin—
William Roulet, of the firm of Finch and Roulet, was called to act as jurymen in a civil case to be tried in circuit court here.

Elgin Lawyer Here—
Jesse Crum, an attorney of Elgin, was over last evening attending to several cases which he has pending in the circuit court.

To Visit in Middle West—
Mrs. M. V. Courtney and Mrs. D. W. Magee of Lostine, Ore., passed through La Grande last evening en route for Missouri, where they will visit relatives for some time.

Mr. Denham in City—
L. Denham, a practicing attorney of Elgin, spent last evening in La Grande so that he could be here today to take care of legal business.

Up from Albany—
Frank E. Stillwell came up from Albany, Oregon, yesterday, where he is employed on one of the newspapers in that city. He was here attending to private business.

Bull Call Next Tuesday—
The annual roll call of Rebelkai Lodge No. 59, and the L. O. O. F. Lodge No. 15, will be held jointly in the Odd Fellows' hall on February 26, followed by a chicken supper with all trimmings, according to an announcement today.

Social to be Held—
The Ladies Parish and Mission Society of the Zion Lutheran church have completed the plans for a social at Lane chapel Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a short program followed by games and refreshments, cafeteria style. They invite the public.

Elect Baseball Captain—
The Blue Mountain boys, of this city, held a short business meeting recently and elected a baseball captain for the coming season and attended to other minor business. The organization was formed in Giving Every Man More Than He Expects Is Better Than Expecting More Men— In Vain!

When times are good or bad, the store that looks out for its customers never has to look far for business.

Camels—Al Jolson—Woolworths—The Saturday Evening Post—all play to packed houses—and the policy that builds sky scrapers is good enough for us.

If a $35 suit can be priced at $31.50—out it goes at $31.50.

If we squeeze a $2.50 shirt down to $2.00 it gives us more thrills than it does a Boy Scout to help a Veteran across the street.

Remember this about us.

- Fitform Suits $31.85 to $65.00
Michaels-Stern Value First Suits $25.00 to $51.85
Collar Attached Shirts $2.45 to $4.45
Arrow Band Shirts $1.95 to $9.85

Clint's Clothery
A Store with a Conscience

January, 1923, by W. Albert Burns, who took a leading part in the organizing of the Troutman grange, and since that time has been quite successful.

Building Permit Issued—
Two building permits were issued from the city office yesterday.

Mr. Cochran was born in Union county, Oregon, educated in the public schools of the state, and graduated from Stanford University in 1907.

Cattle Recovery Seen—
The judgment of William Polman of Baker, Ore., is considered sound in the stock business, whether cattle or sheep are under discussion.

Mr. Polman has been in Portland since the latter part of 1922 and since then he has been in the middle west for a couple of months.

Mr. Polman is a man of high character and is well known to the farmers in that section as well as to the farmers in Oregon.

G. COCHRAN THROWS HAT INTO RING

(Continued from page 1)

up Fourth to O and then to Mr. Cochran's house. A detouring rain failed to dampen the enthusiasm of his supporters who gave the parade the aspect of an old-fashioned political parade.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

river, and a fair appraisal of the lands of our irrigation projects, and the operating costs that such lands can bear.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

TOY YOUNG TO REDEEM PROPERTY

(Continued from page 1)

action would be taken to secure a municipal tourist park for La Grande.

Mr. Perkins appeared in person and asked that the petition that something could be started at once.

The above program was voted by Mr. Cochran during his acceptance of the candidacy urged by his friends.

Mr. Cochran was born in Union county, Oregon, educated in the public schools of the state, and graduated from Stanford University in 1907.

He spent three and a half years in the government service in the Philippine Islands, just following the Spanish-American war.

He was for twelve years a member of the State Water board of Oregon and while in that office determined the water rights for about a million acres of land.

His work carried him into every county of the second Congressional district and gave him special opportunity to learn and know the conditions existing among the people of the district.

Mr. Cochran received many telegrams pledging support to his campaign.

Among those received were one from J. M. Martin, representing The Public, E. D. Bys, Madras; E. W. Langer and 18 others from Lostine, Levi White and five others from Hood River, M. E. Brink, chairman of the Republican county central committee for Crook county, E. D. Gibson and four others from Bend, and J. A. Leech, and 16 others from Klamath Falls, Ore.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

struction of a water system to bring the summerville water to La Grande, to build an electric generating plant on the site...

Mr. Perkins appeared in person and asked that the petition that something could be started at once.

The above program was voted by Mr. Cochran during his acceptance of the candidacy urged by his friends.

Mr. Cochran was born in Union county, Oregon, educated in the public schools of the state, and graduated from Stanford University in 1907.

He spent three and a half years in the government service in the Philippine Islands, just following the Spanish-American war.

He was for twelve years a member of the State Water board of Oregon and while in that office determined the water rights for about a million acres of land.

His work carried him into every county of the second Congressional district and gave him special opportunity to learn and know the conditions existing among the people of the district.

Mr. Cochran received many telegrams pledging support to his campaign.

Among those received were one from J. M. Martin, representing The Public, E. D. Bys, Madras; E. W. Langer and 18 others from Lostine, Levi White and five others from Hood River, M. E. Brink, chairman of the Republican county central committee for Crook county, E. D. Gibson and four others from Bend, and J. A. Leech, and 16 others from Klamath Falls, Ore.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Children Reading Better Books Now

(Continued from page 1)

Another interesting thing is that girls from the age of twelve seem to insist upon mystery stories, although some girls read almost anything.

The modern boy from the age of ten years is reading such excellent things as are written by Mark Twain, Dickens, Kipling and Booth Tarkington.

Mr. Perkins appeared in person and asked that the petition that something could be started at once.

The above program was voted by Mr. Cochran during his acceptance of the candidacy urged by his friends.

Mr. Cochran was born in Union county, Oregon, educated in the public schools of the state, and graduated from Stanford University in 1907.

He spent three and a half years in the government service in the Philippine Islands, just following the Spanish-American war.

He was for twelve years a member of the State Water board of Oregon and while in that office determined the water rights for about a million acres of land.

His work carried him into every county of the second Congressional district and gave him special opportunity to learn and know the conditions existing among the people of the district.

Mr. Cochran received many telegrams pledging support to his campaign.

Among those received were one from J. M. Martin, representing The Public, E. D. Bys, Madras; E. W. Langer and 18 others from Lostine, Levi White and five others from Hood River, M. E. Brink, chairman of the Republican county central committee for Crook county, E. D. Gibson and four others from Bend, and J. A. Leech, and 16 others from Klamath Falls, Ore.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

and girls today are demanding facts, which, I suppose, goes with the age.

Another interesting thing is that girls from the age of twelve seem to insist upon mystery stories, although some girls read almost anything.

The modern boy from the age of ten years is reading such excellent things as are written by Mark Twain, Dickens, Kipling and Booth Tarkington.

Mr. Perkins appeared in person and asked that the petition that something could be started at once.

The above program was voted by Mr. Cochran during his acceptance of the candidacy urged by his friends.

Mr. Cochran was born in Union county, Oregon, educated in the public schools of the state, and graduated from Stanford University in 1907.

He spent three and a half years in the government service in the Philippine Islands, just following the Spanish-American war.

He was for twelve years a member of the State Water board of Oregon and while in that office determined the water rights for about a million acres of land.

His work carried him into every county of the second Congressional district and gave him special opportunity to learn and know the conditions existing among the people of the district.

Mr. Cochran received many telegrams pledging support to his campaign.

Among those received were one from J. M. Martin, representing The Public, E. D. Bys, Madras; E. W. Langer and 18 others from Lostine, Levi White and five others from Hood River, M. E. Brink, chairman of the Republican county central committee for Crook county, E. D. Gibson and four others from Bend, and J. A. Leech, and 16 others from Klamath Falls, Ore.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a masterpiece of oratory and was well received by the audience.

Mr. Cochran's speech was a