"Hunchback of Notre Dame" Is a Great Movie—On at Arcade.

A faithful replica of the great cathedral of Notre Dame, with its mammoth spires, its corridors and towers the twisted, cobbled streets of old Paris, is the setting.

Lon Chaney, master of the art of presenting grotesque and misshapen bodies, Errol Tarrance, with his flair for depicting unusual characters; Patsy Ruth Miller and Norman Kerry, who couple good looks with good acting, these are the principals in the cast.

Small wonder, then, that the "Hunchback of Notre Dame," now showing at the Arcade theatre, is a picture which makes an audience marvel. There, on the screen is the majesty of the old cathedral with its intricate carvings and its vaulted passages; there are its bells, and there, too, is Quasimodo.

Wally Van Scores Hit In "Drivin' Fool" At Sherrys.

Wally Van scored a decided triumph last night at the Sherry theatre when he opened a two days run in his new Hodgkinson picture, "The Drivin' Fool," which is a screen adaptation of W. P. Strick's story of the same name.

The "Drivin' Fool" brings Van back to the screen in a role especially suited to his talents and introduces an exceptional cast which is destined to make this picture one of the finest bits of entertainment seen on the Sherry screen in some time.

Zane Grey's Novel "Lone Star Ranger" At Star Tonight.

"The Lone Star Ranger," the famous best-seller by Zane Grey which has been made into a motion picture by William Fox with Tom Mix in the starring role, has been read by more than ten million people since its publication in 1915, according to Harper Brothers, publishers.

The noted author's work has been through more than seventeen editions and from the demand that still exists it is likely that it will pass through many more before it is finally shelved.

The book has been translated in many foreign languages and found fertile soil in the readers of those countries. The film will be shown at the Star theatre beginning Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The total pack of canned salmon for British Columbia in 1922 will give the pickers of that province more than $10,000,000 if all cases are marketed at the ruling prices.

Income Tax Tips

Changes wrought by birth, death and marriages during the last year affect materially federal income tax returns for millions of taxpayers who are family citizens. For each, the parents, in addition to the personal exemptions allowed married couples, are entitled to a $400 credit for a dependent.

Boys and girls who became self-supporting, and whose parents allow them the use of their earnings without restriction, form a new class of taxpayers. Each must file an income tax return and pay a tax on his or her net income, if such income was in excess of $1000.

Widows and widowers who lost their spouses during the year 1923 are especially affected. Unless remarried on or before December 31, 1923, or the head of a family, they are allowed only the $1000 exemption granted a single person.

Widows and widowers are not required to show on their individual returns the income of husband or wife up to the time of death. The income of a decedent is considered separately, and a return must be filed by the executor or administrator of the estate.

The executor or administrator who makes a return for a decedent is entitled to claim for him his full personal exemption, according to his status as a single or married person at the time of death.

In an individual return the taxpayer's status as of December 31, 1923, determines the amount of his exemptions and credits. If on that day the taxpayer was married and living with wife or husband, the exemption is $2,500 if the combined net income for 1923 was $5000 or less and $2,000 if the net income exceeded $5,000. If single, the exemption is $1,000.

If, on December 31, 1923, a single person, because of some moral or legal obligation, was supporting in his home one or more relatives over whom he exercised family control, he was the head of a family and is entitled to the same exemptions granted a married person. If his support of such relatives ceased during the year, he is entitled only to the $1,000 exemption, if a dependent.

BEAST REVEALS MONEY
OREGON CITY, Ore.—While engaged in blasting stumps on their land near Aurora and Wilsonville, Neaf brothers, prosperous farmers, found in the wreckage of two silver dollars, a careful search failed to reveal any more money, but it is believed some at least was destroyed in the blast. There is a general impression that the money was a part of the loot stolen from the Aurora bank. As a theory that the money was not all put in any place, stumps blowing will be a favorite pastime here for a while.
