only leading to complete destruction of the measure, but to the destruction of the income tax law itself." He charged the measure was being made an instrument of politics, adding that "instead of bringing relief for the taxpayers it is going to harass them."

Representative Wingo, Democrat, Arkansas, in reply denied that amendments thus far adopted had done more than bring revenue, and declared he would "rather be charged with political motives than personal interest in trailing a revenue bill."

The Republican stand served to defeat an amendment offered by Representative Moore, Democrat, Virginia, which would have opened personal as well as corporation returns to state officers. It was lost 122 to 73.

Other Changes Sought—Additional changes in the measure were tentatively agreed to at a meeting of some members of both parties of the ways and means committee. These would increase the estate or inheritance tax and impose a gift tax. What rates will be proposed was not determined, although the schedule advanced recently by Representative Ramseyer, Republican, Iowa, to make the maximum rate on the estate tax 40 per cent, apply to the amount by which the net estate of a decedent exceeds $10,000,000 was favored by a number of those who conferred.

The pastor will give a brief history of their composition and an interpretation of two of the great hymns of the church, after which the congregation, led by the choir, will join in singing them.

Dr. Lovejoy will address the adult section of the church school at ten o'clock in the auditorium under the auspices of the Men's Forum and will preach at eleven o'clock. Dr. Keith will conduct the services of the day.

The community church at La Grande, City, with their pastor the Reverend Hal Kellough Wallis, will worship at the Methodist church here Sunday morning.
