Sabatini Hailed by Critics as "Modern Dumas"—His Play O. K.

It is a fact that the author of "Scaramouche," which in its screen form, as produced by Rex Ingram at the Metro, at the Sherry Theatre, is one of the outstanding literary achievements of the year, "The modern Dumas," as critics have called him, is a man who succeeded by doing the wrong thing. Sabatini perched himself in the public eye, disturbed by the war, wanted nothing more than to be a publisher of modern fiction.

Then Rex Ingram saw the possibilities of "Scaramouche." He bought the film rights and started work with the same principal actors who had appeared in Metro's "The Prisoner of Zenda"—Alice Terry, Lewis Stone and Ramon Novarro.

The outcome of this move is now known. The film version of "Scaramouche" is perhaps the biggest success of the season, and Sabatini has the added joy of seeing his novel in its celluloid form reach thousands beyond even the wildest of his fluent dreams.

SOCIAL NEWS FROM UNION

UNION, Ore.—(Special)—Washington's birthday anniversary was fittingly observed in Union by the closing of the bank, post office and other public places, and a half holiday in the public schools. Appropriate Washington exercises were held in the grades, consisting of songs, recitations, dialogues, and drills. In the high school, Attorney L. Z. Terrill gave a talk to the students.

As their February special number the M. L. A. of the Mormon church put on a play "Thursday evening at the church, entitled "The Old Lady Homestead," a rural comedy in three acts. The following members of the society were in the cast: J. W. Baxter, O. W. Olson, O. Olson, E. P. Gerbison, J. H. Olson, Irene Kohler, Mary Atkinson, Wilmerth Ward and Emma Baxter. Standing room was at a premium for the performance, which was followed by a couple of hours of dancing.

Lawrence Wiggins who has had charge of the Eastern Oregon Light and Power station here for the past year, will leave Union this week for Baker where he has been promoted to the engineering department in this company's employ. Mr. Wiggins' place here will be filled by W. D. Hutchinson, who comes to Union from Bourne, Oregon.

First sign of spring: several games of horseshoe were indulged in Sunday by men and boys.

The Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Esther Purcell last Thursday afternoon. The regular program and lunch were in order.

After it was believed that the scarlet fever had been stamped out with the first cases, another occasion for putting up the red flag was called to the city's attention Sunday. The George Baxter home is under quarantine.

Several auto loads of stock show workers are planning to make the trip to Hot Lake, Wednesday evening in response to Mr. Phyl's invitation to hold one regular meeting at the lake. The cars will leave the city hall at 7:30 o'clock. Some members are expected from La Grande and other places in the valley.

After June, were visitors at the home of E. O. Briggs Sunday.

Homer Bloomer, of Pendleton, is spending a few weeks in Starkey.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thornburg, business visitors in La Grande this week. They have purchased the J. C. Briggs ranch and will be moving on it in a few days.

E. O. Briggs and family are moving to the valley. They have lived on the J. C. Briggs ranch for the past two and one half years.

Sheriff's Berth Sought

PENDLETON, OR.—J. T. Brown, at present coroner of Umatilla county, has indicated that he probably will be a candidate for nomination as sheriff on the republican ticket in the May primaries. Other republicans who have announced publicly that they will run for the nomination include the incumbent, Zoeth Houser, and Lew Wamock, deputy sheriff at Echo, A. G. Hall, at present superintendent of the county farm, has been mentioned frequently as a candidate.

There can be nothing simpler than taking a convenient little tablet, four times each day until your weight is reduced to normal. That's all—just purchase a box of Marmola Prescription Tablets from your druggist for one dollar, the same price the world over. Follow directions—no starvation dieting or tireless exercising. Eat substantial food—be as lazy as you like and keep on getting slimmer. And the best part of Marmola Prescription is they are harmless. That is your absolute safeguard. I presume that from your druggist, or send direct to Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.—Adv.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE By Condo

DO YOU DRIVE A CAR BEARING THE NUMBER 11323? AND WHEN YOU PARK THE CAR AT THE CURB DO YOU LEAVE A BIG HOUND IN THE SEAT TO GUARD THE OUTFIT?

BECAUSE YESTERDAY AS I PASSED CLOSE TO YOUR CAR, THIS HOUND, WITH A BLOOD-CURDLING BARK, MADE A LUNGE AT MY FACE AND FRIGHTENED FIVE YEARS OF LIFE OUT OF ME!! MY FIRST IMPULSE WAS TO BRAIN HIM, BUT ON SECOND THOUGHT I REFLECTED THAT THIS WOULD SUFFER FROM A SHORTAGE OF BRAINS SO I DECIDED TO HUNT UP THE OWNER!!!!
