In fact, very much correct as far as fashion goes are these new Humming Bird Hosiery pattern—all the new Spring shades.

Gauntlet Gloves
The smartest gloves for Spring are the Gauntlets, and they are fancier and prettier than ever before. Don't forget, however, it is very chic to wear short gloves with long sleeves.

Yes, We Had No Alibi.
One of the most sensational finishes in local ring history served to illustrate the value of handwork to a fighter.
"Let me fight one round my own way," said Babe Herman to his seconds as he stepped lightly out to face Pepper Martin.
Less than a minute later they were dragging Herman out of there the victim of a left hook that landed flush on the "button."

Bedtime Story.
Once upon a time there was an actor who did not think he was as good as Henry Irving. He thought he was better than Henry Irving.
A stitch in time may save nine, but you can't prove it by the runner who gets one in his side.

The Paddock-Murphy War.
A year or so ago it was Mrs. Mallory and Miss Langdon who exchanged merry and quite reprehensible views on the other's lack of ability. The game is now being taken up by Charlie Paddock and Loren Murphy, leading American sprinters.
"A good man, yes," says Murphy of Paddock, "but hardly dangerous except at 200 yards."
"Murphy is almost unbeatable indoors, but that lets him out," was the gam total of Paddock's reply. Both of them know better.

We'll Bite, Mr. Bones.
Among the several local mysteries is a so-called Raymond syndicate which has been fit to announce that it has offered all of $500,000 for a Wills-Firpo bout in July. To date no one has been able to discover who, if any one, is the angel behind the proposition, yet the New York papers are taking Raymond very seriously, if one is to judge by the publicity he gets.
Firpo has been pleased to ignore Tex Rickard's offer of $200,000 to meet Wills and has been doing business with the alleged syndicate but a recent prediction by Rickard is significant.
"The first fight in New York this year will be for me," he declares.
The recent death of Tony Becket, regrettable in any case, was all the more unfortunate because it came at a time when the Boston Braves, of which he was a valued member, were making slices of ports to build up a new team. Becket was a first-class infielder and it just so happens that the Braves were in immediate need of that commodity, even before the accident that ended Becket's career. Now the need is almost dire in its extremity.

UNDERGROUND FIRE IS SLOWLY RUINING TOWN
LONDON, (I.N.S.)—Tipton, a small town in Staffordshire, is being slowly but systematically destroyed by a subterranean fire.
The fire is supposed to have originated some months ago by spontaneous combustion underneath some artificial wasteland near the town, and ever since it has been steadily gnawing its way toward the town.
Stables, houses and cottages have been destroyed, and whole rows of houses have been rendered uninhabitable through the walls cracking and steam issuing through the floors, while the whole town is pervaded by an overwhelming smell of coal-gas fumes.
"Chickens may be fed on the table scraps," And serve them right if they don't get home in time to eat with the family.
Some queer people even ask about the minor of a sport model.

FOOTBALL IS COMING BACK

BAKER IS TO JOIN THE LEAGUE

the league last year, but at that time the other towns turned the proposal down. It is understood, however, a number of the towns want Baker in this season.
There is a desire in Baker for better ball than has been the case for a number of seasons and a feeling that new faces would draw better crowds. Playing with the Idaho towns it is believed will bring better support for baseball in Baker.

REGENT.—(Special)—Under direction of Joe Madlach, newly elected football coach at the University of Oregon, spring football practice will begin Monday, March 3. Approximately seventy men have signified their intentions of turning out for spring training. Among these are a number of varsity letter men and players who have gained football experience on last year's freshman aggregation.

WOMAN SURPRISES HER FRIENDS

"After a spell of Typhoid Fever 7 years ago I began to suffer from indigestion and pain in my stomach and colic attacks. This gradually became so bad that my doctor advised an operation for gall stones. A friend advised me to try Mavr's Wonderful Remedy which I did with splendid results. My friends were astonished at my rapid improvement. I have no more bloating and can eat anything I wish." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allows the practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.
