Everyone enjoyed a pleasant time last evening when Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Dixon entertained a number of friends at their home on First and O streets. Bridge was the feature of the evening and nine tables were at play, with high honors going to Mrs. Donald Pague and Mrs. Chas. Langer winning the consolation prize.

An atmosphere of spring prevailed throughout the home, beautiful spring flowers being used as decoration and at the close of a very successful affair a delicious luncheon was served.

The Country club was the scene of a charming affair yesterday afternoon when Mrs. C. S. Moore entertained the Alpha club. Four tables of bridge were at play, with the guest prize going to Mrs. Walter Reuter and the club prize to Mrs. Walter Lehman. The consolation prize fell to Mrs. H. E. Dixon.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and before adjournment a delicious luncheon was served.

COVE ENJOYS A FINE CONCERT

High School Orchestra Appears Before Audience—New Drug Store Being Built.

COVE—(Special)—The new drug store which is now being built is rapidly nearing completion and it is hoped that it will be open for business about the middle of March, an event which is being looked forward to by the entire community.

The Cove high school orchestra gave a concert Friday evening to a large and appreciative audience. The program they rendered included several very difficult numbers, which these young artists delivered in a very masterful manner and they who were fortunate enough to be present claim it as the best that has been given and are eagerly awaiting announcement of future entertainments.

Tom Tolley, an old time resident of Cove, now of Boise, Ida., was here last week shaking hands with friends.

J. R. Love has just returned from Roseburg, where he has been all winter.

Another car of apples left Cove Monday. They are for foreign shipment and are bringing the growers a fair price.

Gilbert Miller, who suffered an accident last week, having injured his wrist, was unable to take part in the high school orchestra concert Friday evening. His part was taken by L. R. Lay, who is a skilled musician and ready at all times to lend a helping hand.

The high school is very busy just now making preparations for the junior convalescence to be presented March 7.

The Ladies Aid was entertained by Mrs. Stewart Allen last week, at the residence of Mrs. George Anderson. There was a large attendance and most delicious refreshments were served.

Ed. Faremont, of North Powder, was a Cove visitor last week. He lived in Cove at one time and we are always glad to welcome him back.

Lee Motley, also of North Powder, was a Cove visitor recently.

Mrs. E. T. Boswell was a passenger on the C. R. of O. yesterday. She was en route to La Grande to spend a few days with her sister Mrs. Earl Landers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rowe will leave Cove the last of this week to make their home in Walla Walla. Mr. Rowe will be employed at the mill. They are selling their stock before leaving. Rowe has lived in Cove for some time and we regret to lose them.

Archdeacon M. McLean Goldie was in Cove Sunday evening for services. He left Monday morning for Baker.

The fences of the Ascension school farm are undergoing a thorough repair.

Jacob Strother Houck celebrated his ninetieth birthday Saturday, February 23. He is a hale and hearty gentleman, keeping his mind occupied with affairs of the day and his hands busy. On his birthday he walked half a mile and spent the day at the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. P. Bell.

A birthday party was given on Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. DeBorde for Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hartley and baby daughter. The three birthdays falling very near together were all celebrated at the same time. There were fifty guests and the evening was spent in music and games, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Reverend Stayton returned last week from North Powder.

Services were held at the Baptist church Sunday as usual, both morning and evening.

At the Baptist prayer meeting Wednesday, there were 67 present. The same number was also present for Sunday school Sunday morning.

The men on the hillside were busy all last week hauling gravel to improve their road.

A small dinner party was given at the residence of Mrs. A. G. Conklin Saturday evening. Covers were laid for eight guests, including Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hertz, Miss Claudia Gale, Louie Lantz, Albert Conklin and the hostess.

Several Cove people were shopping in La Grande Saturday. Included among them were Mrs. T. W. Conklin, Mrs. E. J. Chastain, Miss Ethel Quimby, Miss Josephine Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeHaas, Mrs. Robert French and Mrs. Elmer Pulp.
