

NEWS of SOCIETY

The regular Country club dance last evening was as much of a success as a dance is possible to be for the club room was filled with happy people who sought an enjoyable time and surely received it. Until midnight the dance lasted and the guests felt deeply indebted to the committee for the event. The committee for last evening consisted of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Jr. and Mrs. J. C. McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Robinson, Mrs. Ellen Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swin, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch, Jr. and Mrs. H. N. Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Roberts, Warren Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tanner, J. V. Lorfeil, Mrs. Anna Tolack and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Teuter.

Unusual interest is being manifested in the Bible and Art Lenten course which will start Thursday afternoon, March 6, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Mossman, 1104 Spring street. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Mossman by anyone wishing to attend and everyone interested is invited to make this reservation. A large number are already listed and during the Lenten season when social functions come to a great extent, everyone will find this course very enjoyable.

The lecture and slides will start at 2:30 promptly every Thursday afternoon and last one and one-half hours.

The Young Women's Educational Auxiliary will meet next Wednesday evening, March 6th, at the home of Mrs. F. A. Epling, 1102 Third street. Members are requested to take particular notice of the date, as the regular meeting night is on Tuesday, but on account of conflict with other occasions, the meeting is being held one night later. The committee in charge of this meeting consists of Mrs. F. A. Epling, Miss Annetta Johnson, Miss Mabel Doty, Mrs. Vera Wattenburg and Mrs. Cora Harding Scott.

One of the most delightful features of the season will take place March 7 and 8, when the senior class of the La Grande high school will present the very clever drama entitled "Seven Keys to Baldpate." Approximately fifteen young people of the senior class will take part in this excellent play and they are expecting every support from the people of La Grande.

Miss Mable Bennett is director of the play and assures everyone that they cannot afford to miss this comedy drama.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet Monday, March 3, with Mrs. I. Williamson, 2108 Third street, as hostess.

With numbers swelled to 26 members, the Enterprise Philharmonic orchestra gave its third concert at the O. K. theater. The regular stage at the house was not large enough to accommodate the musicians and an extension was built for the occasion over the pit in front. Even this left the space overcrowded. The audience was the largest of the year.

The opening and closing numbers were most pretentious and difficult being selections from Verdi's opera, "Il Trovatore," and from William Tell by Rossini. The orchestra had given much time to these and the opinion of judges was that the closing number was the most finished production ever rendered by the local organization. Considering that the orchestra is largely composed of boys and girls in school, and that they have had only a short musical training and have been under the care of Director J. D. Haines but a few months, the results were truly marvellous. It is doubtful if there is another such orchestra in the United States and if another leader is maturing Mr. Haines' performance.

As specialties, Lucia's Sextet was given by saxophones and orchestra, classical numbers by Mozart were played by six violins, accompanied by piano and organ, and a saxophone duet was rendered.

The special feature of the concert was provided by Paul Knautz, who came from Alcega to sing two solos which the audience insisted on expending to five numbers. His pure, rich voice delighted the house which could hardly hear enough. He is assured a most cordial and enthusiastic welcome whenever he can return to Enterprise. Mr. and Mrs. Knautz drove over from their home in the afternoon and gave their contribution to the concert. Mrs. Knautz accompanying her husband on the piano, asking no compensation and only accepting money enough to pay actual expenses.

The orchestra was indebted to Miss Lois Parker, teacher of music for accompanying on the piano. Mrs. W. F. Craig, the regular accompanist, is ill in Portland and Miss Parker consented to take her place, which she filled with ability. The fourth concert of the series has been set down for Monday, March 21, with date subject to change if found necessary.—Enterprise Chieftain.

Club Notes

The Club Notes, which will appear in the La Grande Evening Observer every Saturday, is open to any club wishing to make announcements of the following week's meetings or other items that would not otherwise be published in the society column.

Tennyson, the most loved American poet, will be the inspiration for the program next Tuesday afternoon, at the Neighborhood club. Several of his short poems will be put on in pictures. Mrs. H. A. Zorber, leader for the day will be assisted by Mrs. H. E. Dixon, Mrs. Chas. Bohnenkamp, Mrs. R. P. Landis, Mrs. W. H. Lehman, Mrs. E. L. Holmes, Mrs. A. T. Watkins, Mrs. Lawrence Dutton and Mrs. Leo Miller.

A very attractive feature of the program will be a fairy dance by ten little girls led by Evelyn Mays and Sallie Soigrist. The vocal numbers for the afternoon will be given by Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp, accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Berry at the piano and Mrs. David Stoddard, accompanied by David Stoddard.

During the social hour, Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, chairman of the social committee, assisted by several ladies will serve refreshments.

28 YEARS AGO

La Grande Gazette, February 25 1896—Freight train No. 21 went through a burning bridge early Monday morning while going down Kamela hill. The accident occurred between Huron and Wilbur but the bridge began a howl from and known as 134. The bridge is just beyond a short curve and the trainmen had no time to accomplish anything to save the train, having barely time enough to escape with their lives. The engine and one car passed over the bridge safely but the second car went through and they piled up until seven cars were in a heap. They soon caught fire and it was but a short time until the flames were master of the situation. The cars were loaded with merchandise which is usually the most costly freight and no doubt the loss will be very great. Engineer Eakin and Fireman Budge were on the engine and escaped without injury.

All passengers were transferred until yesterday when the train went through. There was no east bound train Monday and all trains Tuesday and Wednesday were several hours late.

A fair attendance was present at the Commercial Club meeting Tuesday evening.

The river road was the only matter of importance taken up. A report was rendered by L. H. Russell, which was in substance as follows: The cost will be $600,000 and the work will include 150 feet of bridging and several rolls of grading. The meeting was adjourned to meet the second Tuesday in March.

Mr. J. M. Church, of La Grande Agricultural College at Corvallis, vice president of the M. French, who has resigned. The appointment of Mr. Church to this important position is subject to ratification at the next session of the Oregon senate, which, of course, will be a mere matter of formality.

A learned attorney should hold the position of prosecuting attorney and we find just such a man in the person of Judge J. W. Knowles.

Americans Give Generously to French War Orphans
PARIS, (AP)—Americans have added 285,000 French war orphans during the nine years work of the Fraternal Franco-American. It was reported at the annual meeting of the society recently. Preference was made to the splendid work started in America in 1913 by two English women, Miss Schofield and Miss Fall, resulting in nearly 200 committees being formed in the United States.

The American organization of "Fraternal Children of France" was disbanded five years ago and its work was taken over by the Fraternal Franco-American. Since then it has received from the United States 7,500,000 francs and an equal sum direct from the American god-parents of its proteges.

Presbyterian Church
Some one has said that this nation will never elect as president a man who is not true to Christian convictions. It never has, for from Washington to Coolidge our leaders have found help in God. The same necessity applies to the citizenship of our country and to meet this need, the churches have found a life service. If you have no church home, we invite you to enlist with us in the worship of God and the friendly service of our fellow-citizens. Sunday School at 9:45 with classes for all and with increasing numbers every week to help you in the study of God's Truth. Morning worship at 11 at which time the quartette will sing the anthem: "From Egypt's Bondage Come," by Page; a violin offertory will also be heard, and the minister will bring the message. The Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:15 with an urgent invitation given to all young people to join with us in a most pleasing hour. During the Lenten season this church plans to have special services each Sunday evening at 7:30 and commencing on March 9th the choir will render a sacred musical with Mr. Raymond Bigger, cornet soloist and Mr. L. J. Lindsay, violinist, assisting in this evening of music. Plan your time to avail yourself of this unique opportunity during that Lenten period and start with the sacred concert.—Wm. Crosby Ross, Minister.

PSYCHOLOGY OF HOBOES BARED BY PROFESSOR

URBANA, Ill. (AP)—"But for the grace of providential circumstances you, too, would be a hobo."
This statement, directed at American citizens in general, by Prof. S. H. Sutherland, head of the Department of Sociology at the University of Illinois, started a group of hardy armed college students and learned sociologists, whom he addressed here.

"The hobo is a product of modern civilization, and understanding ourselves," the professor continued, "he defined the hobo as a migratory worker, in contrast to the tramp, who is a migratory non-worker, and the bum who is a stationary non-worker. But they all tend to degenerate into the bum class, he added.

"The hobo is a hobo because his desire for new experiences is overdeveloped," Prof. Sutherland explained. "There are four wishes which control all human behavior—that for new experiences, that for security, that for recognition by society, that for response from fellow men. We all have a great desire for new experiences, but we get them by reading, by the theater, and so on. The hobo gets his by moving from place to place."

To teach the hobo how to gratify his desire for new experiences and at the same time support his family and fill a useful place in society is the solution of the hobo problem, the sociologist said.

Half a million hoboes pass through Chicago in a year, and other cities are visited about in proportion to their population, according to estimates.

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. This using gets sloppy; get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then assimilate. The famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.
