Clint's Clothery

A Store with a Conscience

A Word About Clint's Spring Suit Prices.

This ad was prompted by a remark we heard this week delivered by a local man who said—"Yes, your new Spring models are beautiful—but I'll bet the prices are beautiful too."

Our reply was this—

"What do you think would be a fair price for that suit?" we asked him.

"Oh, I'd say that $50 was about right."

And then we showed him the sleeve ticket—it read $34.85.

Yes, Men, the new Michaels-Stern Value First Spring Suits $34.85 to $51.85 many friends that she will be able to be out again in a few days.

Raising Poland-Chinas

Bert Knight, of Union, is raising a fine lot of Poland-China hogs of the big type, which are said to be the envy of other producers in the county. Three of his hogs are not quite two years of age yet but their total weight is over 1700 pounds.

Highway Commissioners Here

William Duby, state highway commissioner of Baker, and Assistant State Highway Commissioner L. P. Campbell, accompanied by Mrs. Duby, arrived in the city this morning to confer with W. C. Cross on highway matters.

Purchases Home

Mrs. E. Cameron recently purchased the modern five room bungalow in Connor's addition just completed by William Kaitera. Mrs. Cameron's son and his wife have taken possession and will be at home to friends at their new address. The property was handled through the La Grande Investment Company.

Down from Baker

Tom Proffitt insists that he is still a steekman of Baker although he spends a lot of his time around the Imperial Hotel in Portland. He was in La Grande last night looking up a trade or two with Frank Pity. The two men have been friends for many years and when trading is dull they hunt up each other and begin to swap.

Bank in Good Shape

James Hutchinson, cashier of the First National Bank of Union, stated recently to a reporter of the Evening Observer, that the past year has been one of the best in the history of the institution and he also stated that if 1924 is anything like 1923 he will be very well satisfied. Mr. Hutchinson is at present county commissioner but does not seek re-election.

Legion Meets Tonight

The Monthly Legion meeting is to be held this evening in the K. of P. hall. Many problems of mutual interest will be discussed among them, adjusted compensation. It is also probable that delegates will be elected to represent the local post at the district conference in Baker Friday. The regular auxiliary meets tonight at the same time in the adjoining hall. An informal dance will be given after the meeting.

DR. MAYVILLE PLANS RESORT

DR. MAYVILLE, Ore.—Seventy-two arrests of violators of the prohibition law were made by the Baker county sheriff's office during 1923, according to a report made public. Fines totaling $9435 were derived from this source, according to the report, which estimated more than 10,000 gallons of mash and 500 gallons of moonshine had been seized and destroyed.

RHEUMATISM GONE

Geo. E. Howe, of Union, Ore., said:

"Many people of Union know that I was almost a hopeless victim of rheumatism last fall, when I began taking your Whirling and Kidney and Rheumatic Tablets. I have not had a twinge or sign of rheumatism for over a year."

Chief Whirling said "I could try it." These Tablets are also recommended for all Kidney and Bladder derangements. Sold on money back guarantee by all La Grande druggists. $1 per box.
