"A Noise in Newboro" Showing at Sherrys Now.

The town of Newboro picked up its ears at just two noises; the rattle of silver and the crisp rattle of bills. And because Martha Mason has never had any money Newboro slighted her. Pretty and young and gifted—Martha could really draw—these made her difference to Newboro. Her idea of a pretty picture was one of these neat engravings in green and yellow that people pay rent with.

Martha left Newboro for New York and the study of art. She would come back some day, she knew, and make a noise in Newboro. There would be a brass band and Ben Colwell at the station. But did she? It's hard to live up to the dreams of eighteen.

The whole story of Martha is worth seeing, especially with Viola Hanna as the girl whose aim it was to make "A Noise in Newboro" now at Sherry's. That's the name of this star's new Metro picture. It's worth remembering.

Also showing the two-reel comedy with Neil Burns in "Back to the Woods."

"Bonehead" Passe in Hollywood—Now It's "Duley."

"Dumb-bell" has come into the show in Hollywood. A new word now reigns supreme. It's "Duley" now. What everybody pulls a "bone" or in better parlance, a "funny" face. It's "Duley" when some-body "pulls" his face" by pulling out of them. It's "Duley" when some "green" rep. asks you in the presence of your wife, if you're going to sit in at the poker game that night, after you've told your better half you're going to judge meeting.

"Duley" was derived from Comedian Talmadge's new film production of that name. In this screen adaptation of one of New York's biggest comedy successes, Constantine Talmadge finds herself in a new type of role.

"Duley" was directed by Producer Joseph M. Schenck by Sidney Franklin. It is a First National picture and will be shown at the local theatre on Friday and Saturday.

Other in the cast of "Duley" are Jack Mithall, Frederick Knudsen, Claude Gillingwater, May Wilson, Johnny Harron, Anne Corwatt, Andre de Berger, Gilbert Douglas and Milla Davenport.

Income Tax For HAS CONFIDENCE

BANKER, Ore.—J. King Heron, who represents C. V. Chapman of the Oregon Voice in the campaign for repeal of the income tax bill, returned to Baker on his mission of securing signatures to the petition.

Heron expressed satisfaction with the progress he has made in eastern Oregon and said the sentiment is strongly in favor of repeal of the measure.

The detriment that will accrue to the state by virtue of this law will, in the opinion of merchants and other business men, retard the development and prosperity of Oregon," he said.

"Aggravating prejudice upon the part of foreign investors is not commensurate with the constructive endeavors of all civic associations to make Oregon a popular place for investors."

"What Oregon wants is more taxable income property that will equalize taxes, but not possess a tax that will drive industries out of the state."

Least action in the construction of the grammar school building be erected in East La Grande this summer seems to be a watchword of the board of education.

Bids for the excavation for the basement will be let not later than tomorrow according to Harry Williams, clerk of the school board, and it is very probable that the actual work will begin early next week.

The plans for the building, though progress enough to permit excavating to begin, are yet incomplete. It is expected that they will be completed within the next ten days.

and La Grande Water Shortage

(Special)—Fear of a water shortage during the coming summer is felt. La Grande has had such shortages many times in the past and with such a dry winter, officials and citizens are fearful that the supply of water will be more or less inadequate.
