NEWS of SOCIETY

A charming social affair took place yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. A. L. Richardson was hostess of a delicious six course luncheon given at the Country club. An atmosphere of spring prevailed throughout the dining room of the club a very effective color scheme of gold and white being carried out in the exquisite decoration. The menu was cleverly arranged in gold and white and a beautiful centerpiece of golden daffodils, with a touch of blue, ornamented the table, while at each of twenty-six place cards was a favor in the form of a miniature basket of flowers in the same daffodil shades. Golden candles placed in crystal candelabras and pussy willows effectively arranged added to the pleasing atmosphere of the dining room.

Following the serving of a delicious luncheon those present retired to Mrs. Richardson's home on O avenue, where the afternoon was spent at six tables of bridge with high honors going to Mrs. John Thomsen, second prize to Mrs. Matt Jans, who is a house guest at the home of Mrs. F. L. Hanson, from Walla Walla, Wash., and the third prize going to Mrs. A. J. Stanger. Mrs. Richardson's spacious home was exquisitely decorated in pastel shades of beautiful roses and sweet peas and at the close of one of the most delightful events of the season Mrs. Richardson was voted a very charming hostess.

Yesterday was the opening day of the Lenten course to be given at Mrs. E. P. Mossman's every Thursday during Lent and seventy-five people were present to hear the first lectures. Mrs. Mossman opened the meeting by giving a talk on the Lenten season and throughout the meeting much interest was manifested. The subject for the day was "Christ's Entrance into Jerusalem," and Mrs. Robert Eakin, in a very scholarly way, gave the bible story. Following Mrs. Eakin's story three pictures were shown of the Entrance and Miss Margaret Anson gave an especially fine talk on the pictures. The masters chosen for the afternoon were Reno, Gerome and Ploech-horst and after Miss Anson's talk a general discussion took place on the pictures and the artist who had best portrayed the story. Following the discussion a vote was taken on which picture best portrayed the meaning. The afternoon was one of interest and as the Lenten season goes on it is expected that the interest will increase.

Mrs. D. C. French and daughters, Marie Lovett and Louise French, will leave this evening on No. 18 en route for Monmouth, Oregon, where they will attend the Junior Day at the Monmouth Normal school in which Miss Mildred Lovett is taking the leading role. Miss Lovett was chosen for this position last year from a group of seventy-five normal students and the production is anticipated to be an especially fine one. She is a La Grande girl, having attended the La Grande high school and the Sacred Heart academy of this city.

On their return trip to La Grande Mrs. French and daughter will attend the Chicago Civic Opera in Portland Monday night after which they will return home, expecting to arrive here on Tuesday.

The Young Women's Educational Auxiliary of the Methodist church met on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. F. A. Kelling, about fifty-five being in attendance. The committee in charge, consisting of Mrs. Kelling, Annetta Johnson, Mrs. Vera Wattenburg, Cora Hardie Scott and Isabel Doty, presented a program carrying out the subject for the evening, which was poetry. Readings were given by Miss Nell Mahaffey, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Haesler, and by Miss Doty, Miss Johnson and Miss Isabel Miller. A very pretty tableau was presented by Mrs. Wattenburg, Miss Effie Snider and Mrs. Sherwood Williams illustrating a reading by Mrs. Kelling. Mrs. Cora Scott gave a reading with a musical accompaniment by Miss Max Stearns and Miss Lola Gashill. The music for the evening was furnished by Mrs. Sherwood Williams and Mrs. A. W. Nelson, who sang a very beautiful sacred duet, and Miss LaNita Gashill, who sang two charming Irish songs. Refreshments carrying out the idea of St. Patrick's Day were served.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Sherwood Williams on April first. The committee in charge will be announced later.

Eagles hall was the scene of a very enjoyable time Wednesday evening when Harry Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Knight and Allyn Wright entertained the newly organized dancing club. Approximately twenty couples were in attendance and a pleasant time was spent at dancing, with excellent music furnished by Lindsay's Orchestra.

chests. This club will hold a dance every third Wednesday of each month and a good time is anticipated by the young people of La Grande through the club.

Mrs. C. L. Mackey will be hostess to the J. R. Card club with a one o'clock luncheon. Thursday afternoon, March 13. Following the luncheon the afternoon will be spent at bridge.

Plans are underway for the dance to be given for the Student body of La Grande high school by the H. I. East organization, and a good time is anticipated for every student in the high school who attends.

The Busy Bee section of the Maenches spent a delightful social afternoon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. L. Mackey. Approximately thirty-two were present and a very enjoyable time was spent at bridge and social visiting, after which a delicious luncheon was served by the charming hostess.

Gov. Pierce & Son Cheat Portland

At least that might be said by Portland dealers, because Pierce & Son are willing that Union County shall enjoy the cream of its own products. Governor Pierce & Son, breeders and raisers of big herds of purely-bred Herefords, have contracted to sell us a supply of their famed steers, and the first allotment is now on the block of our retail stores. We are especially delighted to announce that we can give our customers this service, and publicly express our gratitude to Pierce & Son.

Governor Pierce & Son have commanded the top price in all offerings at the Portland Stock Yards and in order to keep these splendid steers in La Grande we had to pay a bonus—a substantial bonus, too—but we had it willingly. Now we can chuckle, because the crafty sleuth of Portland has nothing on us, that which they paid big prices to get is now selling where it was raised—Union County.

The steers now at hand, and the balance to come, are identical with the ones that created a sensation and drew a bonus in Portland. They are all grain-fed—an important item in the raising of beef. The particular epicurean wants grain fed beef—when he can get it.

The average weight of these steers is around one thousand pounds, and their age puts them just beyond the baby beef stage—just where the most delectable steaks and roasts are produced. At no stage of beef production is the flavor as rich, or the tissues as tender as in and just out of the baby beef stage.

We are as tickled as a kid with a new pair of boots, over this contract, and we want our customers to share in joy and special offerings with us. In fact, it is and always will be our policy to keep superior quality always foremost in the operation of our extensive plants and retail establishments.
